PREFACE

This Hymnal and Liturgies is presented to the Congregations of the Moravian Church in America, in accordance with a series of enactments of the Synods of 1913 and 1920, of the Northern Province of the Moravian Church in America. A committee, constituted of nine representatives of the Northern Province and two of the Southern Province, was appointed to revise the Hymnal; a committee of five was also appointed to revise the Liturgy. To the former was committed the task of assembling all parts of the work, determining details of arrangement and of publication. Both committees aimed steadfastly to bring the new Hymn Book up to the standards of modern hymnological and liturgical practice, without impairing its Moravian character.

This latest addition to Moravian Hymnals has behind it a long and noble ancestry. It is the lineal descendant of the earliest collection of its kind. The Unitas Fratrum, or Moravian Church, was the first among Protestant churches to publish a hymn-book. It appeared in the Bohemian language, at Prague, in 1501. It contained versions of old Latin Hymns, together with many original compositions, mostly by John Hus and Bishop Luke of Prague. Subsequent issues followed up to the year 1569, some of them appearing in the Polish and German languages. The tunes, printed at the head of each hymn, were partly Gregorian, partly folk-song melodies adapted to the uses of the sanctuary, and partly original compositions. The hymns of these collections were a power in the Church, in Bohemia, Moravia and the regions beyond. They gave life to public worship, they were sung in the homes of noble and peasant, they set forth the pure Gospel in strains that captivated thousands of hearts.

The ancient Unitas Fratrum was overthrown in course of the Counter-Reformation, about the middle of the seventeenth century. The Renewed Unitas Fratrum, or Moravian Church, continued the hymnological traditions of the fathers. For a time, after its resuscitation, in Herrnhut, Saxony, 1722, some private collections of hymns by Count Zinzendorf were used. In 1735, a Church Hymn Book was issued, in the German language, compiled by Zinzendorf. Various revisions followed. The most notable of them was the collection prepared, 1778, under the supervision of Christian Gregor, a distinguished hymnologist of the Church. An abridgment of that Hymnal is still in use in the German congregations of the Moravian Church.

Many hymns and tunes of the Ancient Unitas Fratrum were included in these German hymnals. They form one of the strong historic links between the Moravian Church in its ancient and its modern forms. Based on one or another of these German editions, Hymn Books have been compiled in various European languages, such as French, Dutch, Windish, Lettish, and Esthonian, as well as in other foreign tongues, for the use of the Missions among the Eskimos, Indians, Kaffirs and others.

Preface

The first English Hymnal of the Moravian Church appeared in London, 1741. Revised editions followed in the succeeding decades. The Litany in English was first included in 1746. The Synod of the British Province, of the year 1835, requested James Montgomery, the Moravian poet, to undertake a revision, which, with modifications, appeared in 1849. Some decades later, further revision was accomplished. The latest edition of the Hymnal of the British Province appeared in 1914, to the preparation of which a Committee devoted study and labor extending through ten years. As regards character and language, this collection is more thoroughly English than any that has preceded it.

The first English Hymn Book of the Moravian Church published in America appeared in 1813. It was a reprint of the British Province Hymnal of 1801. The first original Hymn Book of the Moravian Church in America appeared in 1851. It was based upon the British edition of 1849, but differed from it in many respects. Successive Provincial Synods between 1864 and 1873 determined upon a thorough revision of the Liturgy and Hymns. This was completed in 1876 and has continued in use until now. Its place will be taken by the present Hymnal and Liturgies, on which the Hymnal Revision and Liturgy Revision Committees have been engaged since 1914.

A book, often referred to in the pages of this Hymnal, The Offices of Worship and Hymns, succeeding earlier editions issued in 1866 and 1872, designed for use in the Church-schools, in catechetical classes and meetings for prayer and praise, was published in 1891.

Moravians inherited the hymnological and musical impulse from John Hus. In course of time, they developed greatly the sacred poetry and music of their manuals of praise. They influenced the psalmody of Germany and, in turn, experienced the inflow of a great tide of German poetry and music, as well as a stream of influence from Geneva. They entered England in time to influence the singing as well as the theology of the great revival of the eighteenth century. In turn, their hymns and melodies experienced considerable changes in range and character. Now, new materials have been drawn from various sources opened up by the extended researches that have been conducted.

In compliance with the declared wish of Synod, this new book of praise is issued as a hymnal with music. This has given the Hymnal new form as compared with its predecessors. It is interesting to know that this method of publication was customary, though incompletely carried out, in the Hymnals of the Ancient Unitas Fratrum. The change has facilitated the importation of new material, especially of new musical forms. It should prove beneficial, also, in stimulating the singing of the congregations on all occasions of public worship. In consequence of the change, the system of designating tunes by number—in vogue in the Moravian Church since the middle of the eighteenth century when Grimm collected and Gregor published the tunes then in use in the Moravian Church and arranged them according to metre—has given place to the system of naming tunes. No significant tradition is thereby violated. For convenience, the tune numbers, long familiar, have been appended in unobtrusive parentheses to the tune names in the present Hymnal.

Preface

In the selection of hymns, the Committee proceeded with the clear understanding that a Moravian Hymnal must be faithful to Moravian traditions and practice, must draw upon the treasury of hymns of the Church universal, must express adequately all phases of Christian truth, life and feeling. In conformity with these considerations, hymns that best represented Moravian life and teaching have been retained, and only such have been admitted as new material as have commended themselves by a proved fitness. No period productive of worthy hymnody has been slighted, and wide examination has been given to the body of religious verse produced during the last century. The text of the hymns has been minutely scrutinized with a view to accuracy. Preference has been given to the author's original version, or to such particular reading as may have endeared itself to the Church.

Much care was exercised in the selection of tunes. Rich and varied materials were laid under tribute. As far as has been deemed expedient, preference has been given to "old and familiar" tunes and tunes the acceptability of which has been elsewhere tested in actual use. All tunes have been scrutinized from the standpoint of durable value, devotional spirit, fitness to the hymn to which each is set, and adaptability to use by the congregations. Careful regard has been paid to preserving established associations of hymns and tunes. Exception was made where it was found that new adaptations give fresh interest and dignity to precious hymns. In some cases an alternate tune has been added or indicated by cross-reference. Throughout, the revisers have striven to maintain the high standards and noble ideals handed down in the worship-song of the Moravian Church.

The hymns were selected to fill out a comprehensive rubric scheme, in order that the Hymnal might be built up in proper proportion and to a satisfying completeness. The divisions of the rubric arrangement are built on a doctrinal and practical subject basis; they recognize, also, the festivals and periods of the Christian Year. The two ideas were found to be not irreconcilable and did not involve unnecessary duplication. By a rubric system so framed the hymns are classified in such a manner as to be most readily at hand to meet the occasion. Complementing this arrangement, the Index of Subjects will further facilitate the choice of hymns.

With a view to stimulating intelligent interest in hymnology, historical data and other notes of information have been appended to hymns and tunes or set forth in appropriate indexes. Great care has been taken to secure all possible accuracy in detail.

Permission has been kindly granted, in not a few cases free of charge, to insert many copyright hymns and tunes. To the owners of copyright the revisers give their cordial thanks. Due acknowledgment is appended to each hymn or tune concerned. It is hoped that any unintentional infringement of copyright will be pardoned, special acknowledgment being omitted in some cases where, in spite of every effort, it has not been possible to trace the ownership.

Preface

In accordance with synodal enactment, the Liturgy has been carefully revised. Five new Forms of Worship have been added, a Service Preparatory to Holy Communion, a Service of Prayer for Schools and Colleges, a Patriotic Service, an Introductory Missionary Service and an alternate Service for the Burial of the Dead. The Rites of the Church required but few alterations. Provision was made for the generally adopted custom of using the individual cups in the Service for Holy Communion. "The Private Celebration of the Lord's Supper" has taken the place of "The Communion for the Sick."

Several of the Services for the Church Seasons have been revised. The Bible text used in the newer Services is taken, as a rule, from The American Standard Edition of the Revised Version of the Bible, copyright, 1901, by Thomas Nelson & Sons, and is used by permission. The Rites of the Church and the Services heretofore in use follow mainly the text of the King James' Version. It was deemed wise not to change readings which long usage has made precious.

In conclusion, we renew the prayers of our fathers as expressed in the Preface to every edition of the Hymn Book since 1789—"May all who use these hymns experience, at all times, the blessed effects of complying with the Apostle Paul's injunction (Eph. 5: 18, 19), 'Be filled with the Spirit, speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.' Yea, may they anticipate, while here below, though in an humble and imperfect strain, the song of the blessed above, who, being redeemed out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation, and having washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb, are standing before the throne, and singing in perfect harmony with the many angels round about it (Rev. 5: 9-12 and 7: 9-14), 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing, for ever and ever. Amen!'"

July, 1923.

NOTE

The tunes for the hymns in the Liturgical Services, which are not printed with the Chants, pages 145-171, will be found in the Hymnal.

The names of the tunes, their former designation in the Offices of Worship, by number and letter, enclosed in brackets, and the number at which the tunes may be found in the Hymnal, are printed with each hymn in the Liturgies.

The Chants for the Liturgical Services will be found on pages 145-171.

The Liturgy

The Bible text used in this Liturgy, in "The Lord's Supper," with "Communion Hymns," in "The Private Celebration of The Lord's Supper," "The Consecration of a Church or Chapel," "The Burial of the Dead, II," "The Second Sunday in Advent," "Ascension Day," "All Saints' Day," "Missionary," "Patriotic," "For Schools and Colleges," and "The Office for the Service Preparatory to the Holy Communion," is taken from The American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible, copyright 1901, by Thomas Nelson & Sons, and is used by permission.

The Litany

¶ The Chants and Tunes used in The Litany will be found on pages 145-150.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, hear us.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy Name in all the earth.

Unto Thee do we give thanks; for Thou art good: for Thy mercy endureth forever.

I will offer to Thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the Name of the Lord.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our Maker.

¶ Then shall all kneel and say:

Most Holy and Almighty God, our Saviour,

We acknowledge our transgressions.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way.

We have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly.

The good that we knew to do we have not done;

And in all our works we have been unprofitable servants, and have come short of Thy glory.

Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Thy Name; and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for Thy Name's sake; Amen.

Thus saith the Lord: I, even I, am He that blotteth out thy transgressions for Mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins. Go, and sin no more.

The Litany

¶ Then the congregation shall sing, all standing:

O Lord, have mercy on us all;
Have mercy on us when we call;
Lord, we have put our trust in Thee,
Confounded let us never be: Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Apostles' Creed and the Lord's Prayer, the congregation standing until the invocation to the Holy Ghost shall have been said:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He went to the place of departed spirits. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty, from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Christian Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting: Amen.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end: Amen.

Lord God, our Father, Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour of the world,

Be gracious unto us.

Lord God, Holy Ghost,

Abide with us for ever.

Thou Lamb once slain, our God and Lord,
To needy prayers Thine ear afford,
And on us all have mercy.

¶ Then shall the Minister continue, the congregation responding:

From all sin,
From all error,
From all evil,

Preserve us, gracious Lord and God.

From pestilence and famine,
From calamity by fire or water, hail or tempest,
From war and bloodshed,
From the violence of wicked men,

Preserve us, gracious Lord and God.

The Litany

From indifference to Thy merits and death,
From pride and self-complacency,
From needless perplexity,
From the unhappy desire of becoming great,
From hypocrisy and fanaticism,
From envy, hatred, and malice,
From the deceitfulness of sin,
From the murdering spirit and devices of Satan,
From the influence of the spirit of this world,

Preserve us, gracious Lord and God.

By all the merits of Thy life,
By Thy human birth and circumcision,
By Thine obedience, diligence and faithfulness,
By Thy humility, meekness and patience,
By Thine extreme poverty,
By Thy baptism, fasting and temptation,
By Thy griefs and sorrows,
By Thy prayers and tears,
By Thy having been despised and rejected,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God.

By Thine agony and bloody sweat,
By Thy bonds and scourging,
By Thy crown of thorns,
By Thy cross and passion,
By Thy sacred wounds and precious blood,
By Thy dying words,
By Thine atoning death,
By Thy rest in the grave,
By Thy glorious resurrection and ascension,
By Thy sitting at the right hand of God,
By Thy sending the Holy Ghost,
By Thy prevailing intercession,
By the holy sacraments,
By Thy divine presence,
By Thy coming again to Thy Church on earth, or our being called home to Thee,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God.

Most holy Lord and God,
 Holy, Almighty God,
 Holy and most merciful Saviour,
 Thou Eternal God,
 Grant that we may never
 Lose the comforts of Thy death:
 Have mercy, O Lord.

Thou Head and Saviour of Thy body, the Church:
 Unite all the children of God in one spirit;
 Send faithful laborers into Thy harvest;
 Give spirit and power to preach Thy word;
 Hinder all schisms and offenses;
 Put far from Thy people all deceivers:
 Bring back all that have erred or that are deceived:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Grant love and unity to all our congregations;

Give to our bishops and ministers soundness of doctrine and holiness of life, and preserve them therein;

Help all elders to rule well; and may every steward of things spiritual or temporal be faithful, not only in that which is much, but also in that which is least.

Preserve and sanctify each member through the truth;

Grant that all of us, in every age and station, may enjoy the powerful and sanctifying merits of Thy holy humanity, and make us chaste before Thee in soul and body.

Let our children be brought up in Thy nurture and admonition:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Supply, O Lord, we pray Thee, all the wants of Thy people;
 Let none entangle himself with the affairs of this life,
 But may all our labor of body and mind be hallowed unto Thee;
 Bless the sweat of the brow and faithfulness in business;

Help us to use Thy gifts aright, and never to forget that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

For the sake of that peace which we have with Thee, may we, as much as lieth in us, live peaceably with all men;

Teach us to bless them that curse us, and to do good to them that hate us;

Have mercy upon our slanderers and persecutors, and lay not this sin to their charge:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

The Litany

O Lord, the hope of Israel, and the desire of all nations:

Have mercy on Thy ancient covenant people, deliver them from their blindness;

O that Ishmael might live before Thee;

Prosper the endeavors of all Thy servants to spread Thy gospel;

Bless our and all other Christian congregations gathered from among the heathen;

Keep them as the apple of Thine eye:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

O praise the Lord, all ye nations:

Praise Him, all ye people.

Watch graciously over all governments;

Establish them in truth and righteousness, and give them thoughts of peace.

Bless the President of the United States, and both Houses of Congress; the Governor and Legislature of this Commonwealth, and all others that are in authority; and grant us to lead under them a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and honesty.

Teach us to submit ourselves to every ordinance of man for Thy sake; and to seek the peace of the places where we dwell.

Give prosperity, O God, to this land, and salvation to all its people:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

O Thou King of kings and Lord of lords, who desirest that all men should dwell together in unity:

Let Thy will be known and done among the nations; guide their feet into the way of peace.

Remember us and all mankind in Thy mercy. Deliver us from the sins which give rise to war and conflict and strengthen within our hearts the will to establish righteousness and justice in the earth.

Give unto us and to all who worship Thee the sincere desire to live in peaceful and loving fellowship with all men. Fix our minds and hearts upon Thine eternal purposes for the children of men.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

O Thou preserver of men,

Watch over those who travel by land or sea;

Send help to all who are in danger, tribulation, or distress;

The Litany

Strengthen and uphold those who suffer persecution for the sake of the gospel;

Defend and provide for fatherless children, and widows, and all who are desolate and afflicted;

Be the support of the aged;

Make the bed of the sick, and in the midst of suffering let them feel that Thou lovest them;

Enable the dying to put their trust in Thee, as the propitiation for the sins of the whole world:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Have mercy, O Lord, on Thy whole creation;

Hasten the day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ; and may we be accounted worthy to stand before Him.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the close of the Litany.

Lord, for Thy coming us prepare;
May we, to meet Thee without fear,
At all times ready be:
In faith and love preserve us sound;
O let us day and night be found
Waiting with joy to welcome Thee.

Keep us in everlasting fellowship with the Church Triumphant, and let us rest together in Thy presence from our labors:

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

O Christ, Almighty God,

Have mercy upon us.

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,

Manifest Thyself to us.

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,

Give unto us Thy peace.

O Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Amen.

General Liturgy I

¶ The Chants and Tunes for this Liturgy will be found on pages 151 and 152.

The Lord is in His holy temple, let all the earth keep silence before Him.

The mighty God, even the Lord, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, hath God shined.

Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and bless the Lord.

Stand up and bless the Lord your God forever and ever.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and sing:

From all that dwell below the skies
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's Name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

¶ Then, all standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond

O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Blessed is the man whom Thou choosest and causest to approach unto Thee, that he may dwell in Thy courts.

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple.

But who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?

Or who shall stand in His holy place?

He that hath clean hands and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and He is the propitiation for our sins:

And not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Thou high and lofty One that inhabitest eternity, Whose Name is holy, Who dwellest in the high and holy place, but with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit; give us grace that we, truly confessing our manifold sins, may bring Thee the sacrifice of a broken and contrite heart, which Thou, O God, dost not despise. Amen.

Drawing near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, we will confess our sins, and present our supplication before the Lord our God. Let us pray.

General Liturgy I

¶ Here all shall kneel, and the Minister shall continue, the congregation responding:

Lord God, merciful and gracious, long suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that wilt by no means clear the guilty; incline Thine ear and hear; for we do not present our supplications before Thee for our righteousnesses, but for Thy great mercies.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Have mercy upon us, O God, according to Thy loving-kindness; according unto the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out our transgressions, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Create in us a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within us. Cast us not away from Thy presence; and take not Thy Holy Spirit from us. Restore unto us the joy of Thy salvation; and uphold us with Thy free spirit.

O Lord, open Thou our lips,

And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the Gloria Patri shall have been said or chanted.

In humble, grateful lays,
The Lord of hosts we praise,
His saving Name confess;
Yea, filled with holy awe revere
The Father, Son and Comforter;
Amen, hallelujah,
Hallelujah,
Amen, hallelujah.

T. WEST (582, C)

¶ Instead of this hymn may be sung the following:

Hymn, 117

I praise the God of grace,
I trust His truth and might;
He calls me His, I call Him mine,
My God, my joy, my light.

Lord God, our Father, Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour of the world,

Manifest Thyself to us.

Lord God, Holy Ghost,

Abide with us for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end: Amen.

O Lord, lift up Thy countenance
Upon Thy Church, and own us Thine;
Thy blessing unto us dispense;
Impart to us Thy peace divine. Amen.

General Liturgy II

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth.

As for me, in the multitude of Thy loving-kindness will I come unto Thy house: in Thy fear will I worship.

T. WAREHAM (22, H)

Hymn, 56

Lord God of hosts! Oh may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill;
Still may we stand before Thy face,
Still hear and do Thy sovereign will.

Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Thy kingdom. Lord, who shall sojourn in Thy tabernacle?

Who shall dwell in Thy holy hill.

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,

And speaketh truth in his heart.

T. SOUTHAMPTON (14, F)

Hymn, 41

Alas, with shame I own that oft
I've turned away from Thee;
Oh, let Thy work, renewed to-day,
Remain eternally.

Against Thee have we sinned;

O Lord, rebuke us not in Thine anger.

We have transgressed and rebelled;

O Lord, chasten us not in Thy hot displeasure.

Remember not the sins of our youth, nor our transgressions,

But have mercy upon us, O God, according to Thy loving-kindness.

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed,

Because His compassions fail not.

T. ZURICH (168, A)

Hymn, 196

Thou hast canceled my transgression,
Jesus, by Thy precious blood;
May I find therein salvation,
Happiness and peace with God;
And since Thou for sinners suffering,
On the cross wast made an offering,
From all sin deliver me,
That I wholly Thine may be.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Restore unto us the joy of Thy salvation,

And renew a steadfast spirit within us.

Lead us, O Lord, in Thy righteousness, and guide us in Thy truth,

For Thou art the God of our salvation.

General Liturgy II

Thus saith the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the Lord thy God Who teacheth thee to profit, Who leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou hadst hearkened to My commandments! Then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea.

The ways of the Lord are right, and the just shall walk in them; but the transgressors shall fall therein.

From the sin of unbelief,
From all defilement of the flesh and spirit,
From all self-righteousness,
From every neglect of our duty,
From all ingratitude and selfishness,
From lukewarmness in our love to Thee and our neighbor,
From indifference to Thy meritorious life and death,

Deliver us, gracious Lord and God.

And ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and His righteousness unto children's children, to such as keep His covenant, and to those that remember His commandments to do them.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

T. JUDGMENT (585, A)

Hymn, 364

Then to all who have confessed,
Loved and served the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near ye blessed,
See the kingdom I bestow:
You for ever
Shall My love and glory know."

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the close of the Liturgy.

T. REGENT SQUARE (585, D)

Hymn, 164

Thanks we give and adoration
For the gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of Thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
King of Glory,
Sway Thy scepter all around.

Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Doxology

TO BE USED ON THE GREAT FESTIVALS OF THE CHURCH, AND ON OTHER SPECIAL OCCASIONS

¶ The Chants for the Doxology are found on pages 152-154.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, or chant, and the congregation respond:

Unto the Lamb that was slain,

And hath redeemed us out of all nations of the earth;

Unto the Lord Who purchased our souls for Himself;

Unto that Friend Who loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood;

Who died for us once,

That we might die unto sin;

Who rose for us,

That we also might rise;

Who ascended for us into heaven,

To prepare a place for us;

And to Whom are subjected the angels, and powers, and dominions:

To Him be glory at all times.

In the Church that waiteth for Him, and in that which is around Him,

From everlasting to everlasting: Amen.

Little children, abide in Him; that, when He shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

¶ Then shall be sung one of the following hymns, after which the Minister shall pronounce the Old Testament benediction.

T. CONFESSION (39, A)

Hymn, 312

The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know;

I feed in green pastures, safe-folded I rest;

He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow,

Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppress.

T. SEYMOUR (11, S)

Hymn, 287

Cast thy burden on the Lord,

Only lean upon His word;

Thou shalt soon have cause to bless

His eternal faithfulness.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

Te Deum Laudamus

TO BE USED ON THE GREAT FESTIVALS OF THE CHURCH, AND ON OTHER SPECIAL OCCASIONS

¶ The Chants for the Te Deum Laudamus will be found on page 155. A metrical version and chant will also be found on page 170.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, or chant, and the congregation respond:

We praise Thee, O God; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.

To Thee all angels cry aloud; the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To Thee cherubim and seraphim continually do cry:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;

Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of Thy glory.

The glorious company of the apostles praise Thee.

The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise Thee.

The noble army of martyrs praise Thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee; the Father, of an infinite majesty;

Thine adorable, true, and only Son; also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory, O Christ; Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man, Thou didst humble Thyself to be born of a Virgin.

When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, Thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.

We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy precious blood;

Make them to be numbered with Thy saints, in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine heritage: govern them, and lift them up forever.

Day by day we magnify Thee; and we worship Thy Name ever, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us;

O Lord, let Thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in Thee;

O Lord, in Thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end: Amen.

A Canticle of Praise

TO BE USED ON DAYS OF NATIONAL THANKSGIVING, AND ON OTHER OCCASIONS OF PRAISE

¶ The Chants for the Canticle of Praise will be found on page 156.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, or chant, and the congregation respond:

Blessed be Thou that dwellest between the cherubim, and graciously regardest them of low estate. O all ye works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord; praise Him, and magnify Him for ever.

Magnify Him for ever.

Heaven and earth, fire and water, sun and moon, all the stars of heaven, rain and dew, frost and snow, heat and cold, air and wind, clouds and lightning, day and night, light and darkness, hills and mountains, praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord.

All that groweth upon the earth, all that moveth in the water, all the fowls of the air, all ye beasts and cattle, praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord.

Laud Him, all ye hosts of heaven; ye angels of the Lord, praise Him; glorify, magnify Him for ever.

Magnify Him for ever.

Ye saints, ye humble and contrite souls, who trust in the Lord, glorify the Lord.

Glorify the Lord.

Ye servants of the Lord, serve Him with gladness, and magnify Him for ever.

Magnify Him for ever.

Ye churches of the Lord, rejoice ye in Him, and thou, the whole Israel of God, born of the Spirit, rejoice thou in Him, and sing praises unto Him for ever.

Sing praises unto Him for ever.

For He hath redeemed us from the hand of the enemy, He hath saved us from our sins, and hath delivered us out of many dangers: praise the Lord, for He is good, and His mercy endureth for ever.

His mercy endureth for ever.

O ye spirits and souls of the righteous, bless ye the Lord of lords; glorify Him, magnify Him, for His mercy endureth for ever.

T. FREYLINGHAUSEN (341, A)

Hymn, 126

Worthy, O Lord, art Thou,
That every knee should bow,
Every tongue to Thee confess;
Universal nature join,
Strong and mighty Thee to bless,
Gracious, merciful, benign.

¶ Instead of this hymn, may be sung the following:

T. GOUDIMEL (205, A)

Hymn, 111

Meet and right it is to sing.
At all times, in every place,
Glory to our heavenly King,
To the God of truth and grace;

Join we then with sweet accord,
All in one thanksgiving join:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Never ceasing praise be Thine.

The Service for Easter Morning

TO BE USED IN THE MORNING OF EASTER DAY, EITHER IN THE CHURCH, OR ON THE CONSECRATED GROUND OF THE DEAD

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy will be found on pages 156 and 157.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, or chant, and the congregation respond:

The Lord is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed!

COVENANT (185, A)

Hymn, 89

Hail, all hail, victorious Lord and Saviour,
Thou hast burst the bonds of death;
Grant us, as to Mary, the great favor
To embrace Thy feet in faith:
Thou hast in our stead the curse endured,
And for us eternal life procured;
Joyful, we with one accord
Hail Thee as our risen Lord.

¶ Then, all kneeling, the Minister shall offer prayer, after which, all standing, he shall say and the congregation respond:

I believe in the One only God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Who created all things by Jesus Christ, and was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself.

I believe in God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world;

Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son;

Who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ;

Who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, to the praise of the glory of His grace, wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved.

This I verily believe.

¶ The following ascription of praise may either be sung by the choir, or said by the Minister:

We thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in Thy sight.

Father, glorify Thy Name.

Our Father Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

The Service for Easter Morning

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated

I believe in the Name of the only begotten Son of God, by Whom are all things, and we through Him;

I believe, that He was made flesh, and dwelt among us; and took on Him the form of a servant;

By the overshadowing of the Holy Ghost, was conceived of the Virgin Mary; as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took part of the same; was born of a woman;

And being found in fashion as a man, was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin:

For He is the Lord, the Messenger of the covenant, Whom we delight in. The Lord and His Spirit have sent Him to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

He spoke that which He did know, and testified that which He had seen: as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God.

Behold the Lamb of God, Which taketh away the sin of the world.

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried;

Went also by the Spirit and preached unto the spirits in prison;

The third day rose again from the dead, and with Him many bodies of the saints who slept;

Ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the throne of the Father; whence He will come, in like manner as He was seen going into heaven.

T. MARENZO (146, A)

Hymn, 122

Voice—The Spirit and the Bride

"O come!" are now entreating;

Choir—Let all who hear their voice

"O come!" be loud repeating:

Congregation—Amen! Lord Jesus, come;

We wait in faith for Thee;

Soon, we implore Thee, come,

Thy glory let us see.

The Lord will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, to judge both the quick and the dead.

This is my Lord, Who redeemed me, a lost and undone human creature, purchased and gained me from sin, from death, and from the power of the devil;

Not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood, and with His innocent suffering and dying;

To the end that I should be His own, and in His kingdom live under Him and serve Him, in eternal righteousness, innocence, and happiness:

Even as He, being risen from the dead, liveth and reigneth, world without end.

This I most certainly believe.

The Service for Easter Morning

I believe in the Holy Ghost, Who proceedeth from the Father, and Whom our Lord Jesus Christ sent, after He went away, that He should abide with us forever;

That He should comfort us, as a mother comforteth her children;

That He should help our infirmities, and make intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered;

That He should bear witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God, and teach us to cry, Abba, Father;

That He should shed abroad in our hearts the love of God, and make our bodies His holy temple;

And that He should work all in all, dividing to every man severally as He will.

To Him be glory in the Church, which is in Christ Jesus, the holy, universal Christian Church, in the communion of saints, at all times, and from eternity to eternity:

Amen.

I believe, that by my own reason and strength I cannot believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him;

But that the Holy Ghost calleth me by the gospel, enlighteneth me with His gifts, sanctifieth and preserveth me in the true faith;

Even as He calleth, gathereth, enlighteneth, and sanctifieth the whole Church on earth, which He keepeth by Jesus Christ in the only true faith;

In which Christian Church, God forgiveth me and every believer all sin daily and abundantly.

This I assuredly believe.

I believe, that by holy baptism I am embodied a member of the Church of Christ, which He hath loved, and for which He gave Himself, that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word:

Amen.

In this communion of saints my faith is placed upon my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, Who died for me, and shed His blood on the cross for the remission of sins, and Who hath granted unto me His body and blood in the Lord's Supper, as a pledge of grace; as the Scripture saith, Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread; and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is My body which is given for you; this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also, our Lord Jesus Christ, when He had supped, took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

The Service for Easter Morning

Amen.

¶ Then may be sung the following hymns, the first by the choir and the second by the congregation or both by the congregation:

T. RHAW (22, A)

Hymn, 445

Hail, sacred feast, which Jesus makes,
Rich banquet of His flesh and blood!
Thrice happy he, who here partakes
That sacred stream, that heavenly food!

T. GOUDIMEL (205, A)

Hymn, 111

Lord, Thy body ne'er forsake,
Ne'er Thy congregation leave;
We to Thee our refuge take,
Of Thy fullness we receive:
Every other help be gone,
Thou art our support alone;
For on Thy supreme commands
All the universe depends.

¶ The following hymn shall be sung by the choir and congregation alternately, or unitedly, whenever this Service is used on the consecrated ground of the dead, else it shall be omitted.

T. BEDFORD (14, C)

Hymn, 132

Choir—

The graves of all His saints Christ blest,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying Head?

Thence He arose, no more to die,
And showed our feet the way
To follow Him, enthroned on high,
At the great rising day.

*Congregation—*Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise;
Awake, ye nations under ground,
Ye saints, ascend the skies.

¶ Then shall the Minister continue and say, and the congregation respond:

I have a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better; I shall never taste death; yea, I shall attain unto the resurrection of the dead; for the body which I shall put off, this grain of corruptibility, shall put on incorruption; my flesh shall rest in hope.

And the God of peace, That brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, That great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, shall also quicken these our mortal bodies, if so be that the Spirit of God hath dwelt in them.

Amen. We poor sinners pray, hear us, gracious Lord and God.

The Service for Easter Morning

And keep us in everlasting fellowship with those of our brethren and sisters who, since last Easter-day, have entered into the joy of their Lord and with the whole Church Triumphant, and let us rest together in Thy presence from our labors.

Amen.

T. GOUDIMEL (205, A)

Hymn, 111

Choir—

Who are these in bright array,
This innumerable throng,
Round the altar night and day,
Hymning one triumphant song:
“Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
Blessing, honor, glory, power,
Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
New dominion every hour?”

Congregation—

These through fiery trials trod,
These from great affliction came;
Now, before the throne of God,
Sealed with His almighty Name,
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their dear Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.

Glory be to Him Who is the Resurrection and the Life; He was dead, and behold, He is alive forevermore; and he that believeth in Him, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

Glory be to Him in the Church which waiteth for Him, and in that which is around Him, from everlasting to everlasting.

Amen.

T. ST. MARK (151, G)

Hymn, 149

I give Thee thanks unfeigned,
O Jesus, Friend in need,
For what Thy soul sustained,
When Thou for me didst bleed.
Grant me to lean unshaken
Upon Thy faithfulness,
Until I hence am taken
To see Thee face to face.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with us all.

Amen.

Rites of the Church

THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy will be found on page 158.

The service shall begin with the singing of a hymn, and a short discourse by the Minister, setting forth the meaning and obligations of this sacrament.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Christ, Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,

Leave Thy peace with us: Amen.

By Thy holy sacraments,

Bless us, gracious Lord and God.

Baptism was instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who said unto His disciples, Go ye, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.

Baptism is the answer of a good conscience toward God, Who hath saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, Who is shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

He also gave this promise: He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved.

Children may be made partakers of this grace; for Christ hath said: suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

¶ Then shall be sung one of the following hymns:

T. EISENACH (90, A)

Hymn, 140

An infant we present to Thee
As Thy redeemed property,
And Thee most fervently entreat
Thyself this child to consecrate
By baptism, and its soul to bless,
Out of the fullness of Thy grace.

T. RHAW (22, A)

Hymn, 445

The Saviour's blood and righteousness
Our beauty is, our glorious dress;
Thus well arrayed we need not fear,
When in His presence we appear.

¶ Then the Minister shall ask, and the parents shall answer:

Is it your sincere desire, by the grace of God, as much as lieth in you, to bring up this child in the fear and admonition of the Lord?

It is.

respond:

[Then the Minister shall offer prayer, after which, all standing, he shall say and the congregation respond:
Ye who are baptized into Christ Jesus, how were ye baptized
Into His death. blood of Christ life, was
Who has pardoned your

Rites of the Church

¶ Then the Minister shall name the child, and pour, or sprinkle, water on its head thrice, saying:

Into the death of Jesus I baptize thee, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

¶ Here the sponsors shall join the Minister in the imposition of hands.

Now art thou buried with Him by baptism into His death:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Now therefore live, yet not thou, but Christ live in thee; and the life which thou now livest in the flesh, live by the faith of the Son of God, Who loved thee, and gave Himself for thee.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace;

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Then may be sung the Doxology:

T. CONFESSION (39, A)

Hymn, 312

The Lamb, Who by blood our salvation obtained,
Took on Him our curse; and death freely sustained,
Is worthy of praises, let with one accord
All people say, Amen, O praise ye the Lord.

THE BAPTISM OF ADULTS

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy will be found on page 159.

¶ After a short discourse, shall follow these petitions:

Lord God, our Father, Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour of the world,

Be gracious unto us.

Lord God, Holy Ghost,

Abide with us for ever.

By Thy divine presence,

By Thy holy sacraments,

Bless us, gracious Lord and God.

¶ Then the Minister shall ask, the candidate responding:

believe in God the Father, almighty Maker and Preserver of h?

The Baptism of Adults

Dost thou believe in Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, our Lord, Who loved us, and gave Himself for us?

I do.

Dost thou believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Christian Church, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting?

I do.

Dost thou believe that Jesus Christ is thy Lord, Who redeemed thee, a lost and undone human creature, from sin, from death, and from the power of the devil, with His innocent suffering and dying, and with His holy and precious blood?

This I verily believe.

Dost thou in this faith desire to be baptized into the death of Jesus, to be washed from thy sins, and to be embodied into the congregation of the faithful?

This is my sincere desire.

Dost thou in this faith renounce the service of sin and Satan, and determine to live under Christ in His kingdom, and serve Him in holiness and righteousness all the days of thy life?

I do most heartily, in the strength of Jesus Christ, my Lord, and of His Spirit.

¶ Then shall be sung one of the following hymns:

T. ST. AGNES (14, Cc)

Hymn, 120

Jesus, as water well applied
Will make the body clean,
So in the fountain of Thy side
Wash Thou this soul from sin.

T. ST. THOMAS (582, P)

Hymn, 108

Rejoice, ye contrite hearts,
The blood which Jesus spilt,
While we with water you baptize,
Will wash away your guilt.

While with repenting tears
Your sins you now deplore,
Christ with His blood will blot them out,
Remember them no more.

¶ Here the candidate for baptism shall kneel, and the Minister shall offer prayer, after which he shall say, and the congregation respond:

Ye who are baptized into Christ Jesus, how were ye baptized?

Into His death.

¶ Then the Minister shall name the candidate, and pour, or sprinkle, water on his or her head thrice, saying:

Into the death of Jesus I baptize thee, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

¶ During the imposition of hands the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Now art thou washed, justified, and sanctified by the blood of Christ; therefore live, yet not thou, but Christ live in thee; and the life, which we have in Christ, we have by the faith of the Son of God, Who loved us and gave Himself for thee.

Rites of the Church

The Lord bless thee and keep thee:

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Then shall be sung one of the following doxologies:

T. THE OLD HUNDREDTH (22, E)

Hymn, 21

All power and glory doth pertain
Unto the Lamb, for He was slain,
And hath redeemed us by His blood,
And made us kings and priests to God.

T. PLEYEL'S HYMN (11, T)

Hymn, 626

Praise on earth to Thee be given,
Never-ceasing praise in heaven;
Boundless wisdom, power divine,
Love unspeakable are thine.

THE RITE OF CONFIRMATION

¶ The candidates for confirmation shall be carefully instructed by the Minister in the doctrines of the Christian religion as set forth in the catechism appointed for this purpose, and examined as touching their personal faith in Christ.

¶ At the time of the confirmation he shall address to them, all standing, the following questions, to which they shall publicly respond:

Do you believe in your heart, and confess with your mouth, the divine truths of the Holy Scriptures; and do you now declare your desire, by the grace of God, to abide by them, as the rule of your conduct in life, and the ground of your hope in death?

I do.

Are you ready in the presence of God the Omniscent, and of this congregation, to ratify the covenant within the bonds of which your baptism in infancy placed you, and to seal that covenant in the Holy Communion; and are you resolved by grace, cleaving to Christ your Saviour, to continue, in this covenant, to show forth His death until life's end?

I am.

Do you believe in God, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in Whose Name you have been baptized; and do you ground the assurance of the forgiveness of your sins and acceptance with God, solely on His mercy and the all-sufficient merits of our Lord Jesus Christ?

I do.

Do you in this faith renounce the service of sin and Satan, and determine to live under Christ in His kingdom, and to serve Him in holiness and righteousness all the days of your life?

I do most heartily, in the strength of Jesus Christ, my Lord, and of His Spirit.

¶ Then the following, or some other hymn, shall be sung by the choir, or by the congregation:

T. WOODWORTH. BECK (277, B)

Hymns, 433, 934

I am, without one plea,
Thy blood was shed for me,
Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
God, I come! I come!

Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot.
To Thee, Whose blood can cleanse each spot
O Lamb of God, I come! I come!

The Lord's Supper

¶ Thereupon the candidates shall kneel, and the Minister, laying his hands upon the head of each one, shall pronounce a text of Scripture; such as, "The very God of peace sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ," or any other suitable text, giving to each candidate a different text, and shall impart the Old Testament benediction, saying:

The Lord bless thee and keep thee;

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Then the whole congregation shall kneel, and the Minister shall offer prayer, committing those who have been confirmed into the keeping of the Triune God.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

(For the Communion Hymns, see pages 92-142.)

¶ The service of the Lord's Supper shall be opened by the officiating Minister with the Apostolic Salutation:

Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all.

¶ A hymn setting forth the meaning of the sacrament, or embodying the divine invitation, is sung. Thereupon, all kneeling, the Minister offers prayer, confessing sin and seeking forgiveness. At the discretion of the Minister, this prayer may be closed with the Lord's Prayer, in which the congregation unites.

¶ A stanza expressive of pardon, peace, and joy is now sung, and, all standing, the communicants extend to each other the right hand of fellowship.

¶ The Minister then consecrates the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples, and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

¶ The consecrated bread shall be distributed by those who assist in the administration of this sacrament, or, if he be alone, by the officiating Minister himself, and the occupants of each pew shall rise to receive it, the congregation meanwhile singing hymns speaking of the sufferings and death of our Lord. When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you.

¶ The whole congregation partakes simultaneously, and immediately afterward kneels in silent prayer, which may be followed by a brief hymn, the communicants still kneeling, and by these petitions:

By Thy divine presence,

By Thy holy sacraments,

By all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

¶ Then shall be sung a hymn presenting atonement by the blood of Christ. All standing, the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye ~~eat~~ ^{drink} your it, in remembrance of Me.

Rites of the Church

¶ When the chalice is used, the Minister and his assistants shall first partake of the wine, and then it shall be administered to the congregation, which again rises, pew by pew, to receive it, during the singing of hymns treating of the power of the blood of Jesus, brotherly love and divine communion.

¶ Where individual cups are used, the cups shall be served to the entire congregation, and participation shall be simultaneous, following the words:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Silent prayer again follows, with organ solo, the Minister and congregation concluding with the petition:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,

Give unto us Thy peace. Amen.

¶ A closing hymn, pledging the communicants to faithfulness and mutual Christian love, is sung, during which the right hand of fellowship is once more extended, and before the concluding stanza the Minister may chant or say, and the congregation respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,

Until He come.

¶ The service ends with the Old Testament benediction, with the congregational response,

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

THE PRIVATE CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

¶ If several infirm communicants desire to partake of the sacrament together, or if relatives and friends of a sick communicant are present, the following service may be used, entirely or in part, the hymns being either sung or read. Where a shorter Communion Service is desired, the first part of this service may be used.

When all things necessary are prepared, the Minister shall say:

Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dearly Beloved: Hear the gracious promise of our Lord and Saviour: Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them; and, Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Verily, I say unto you, he that heareth My word and believeth Him that sent Me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life.

Hear also what St. John writes: If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

T. SERVICE (56, A)

Hymn, 313

Since He welcomes every soul distressed,
And has promised to the weary rest,
At His call we now draw nigh;
He invites us graciously,
Come, poor sinner, come and share My feast.

¶ Thereupon the Minister shall offer prayer, confessing sin and praying for absolution, or use the following collect:

Most merciful and ever-loving Saviour: At Thy gracious invitation we igh to Thy table in order here to receive the renewed assurance of the less of our sins and of our fellowship with Thee. Conscious of our unworthiness and confessing our sins, we come because Thou hast wrought for us a complete redemption. In humble faith we accept anew the assurance of forgiveness and pray Thee to cleanse our hearts and lives from all that is evil.

Do Thou Thyself sanctify the elements, so that as we partake of this bread, it may be Thy life which enters into us, the life that triumphs over sickness and death and is eternal. As we partake of this cup, Thy blood poured out for the remission of our sins, may it be Thy Spirit which enters into us, to sanctify us in body, soul and spirit, so that in truth Thou livest in us and the life that we may yet live here shall be lived only in the faith of the Son of God, who loved us and gave Himself for us. In Thine own Name we ask it. Amen.

¶ The Minister extends the right hand of fellowship with the words:

Say, My peace I leave with you: Amen, Amen, be it so,

¶ The Minister shall consecrate the elements, either at the same time or in succession, using the accustomed words of Scripture for blessing and distribution. After partaking of the cup, there shall be silent prayer, which shall close with the petition:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

¶ And those present shall respond:

Bless us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

¶ Thereupon one or other of the following hymns may be read or sung:

T. PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

Hymn, 215

Thy blood, so dear and precious,
Love made Thee shed for me;
O may I now, dear Jesus,
Love Thee most fervently:
May the divine impression
Of Thy atoning death
And all Thy bitter passion
Ne'er leave me, while I've breath.

or:

T. ZURICH (168, A)

Hymn, 196

Oh how blessed is the station
Of all those who love the Lord;
Who partake of His salvation,
Trusting in His sacred word.
Blest who, in love's bond united,
To His altars are invited;
In His courts on earth they dwell,
There His matchless praise to tell.

or:

T. HAYN (82, D)

Hymn, 486

Jesus makes my heart rejoice, etc.

or:

T. RHAW (22, A)

Hymn, 445

The Saviour's blood and righteousness, etc.

¶ In conclusion, the communicants again extend to each other the right hand of fellowship, pledging faithfulness in their service of the Lord:

T. WORSHIP (159, A, 2nd part)

Hymn, 532

Once more we pledge both heart and hand,
As in God's presence here we stand,
To live to Him and Him alone,
Till we surround His throne.

¶ Then the Minister shall pronounce the following or some other benediction:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Rites of the Church

THE RITE OF ORDINATION

I. THE ORDINATION OF A DEACON

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy will be found on page 161.

¶ See also Hymn 942

¶ The service shall be opened with the Te Deum Laudamus, or with an invocation by the Bishop, after which shall be sung the following, or some other hymn:

T. VENI CREATOR SPIRITUS (22, O)

Hymn, 133

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Anoint our heart and cheer our face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes; give peace at home:
Where Thou art Guide, no ill can come.

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of Both, to be but One:
That through the ages all along
Thy praise may be our endless song.

¶ Then shall the Bishop preach a sermon setting forth the work and obligations of the Ministry in general, and the duty and office of a Deacon in particular, and, after the sermon, shall deliver a charge to the candidate for ordination. Thereupon, the candidate standing before him, the Bishop shall say and the candidate respond:

Brother (here he shall name him), dost thou believe in the truth of the Old and New Testaments, as inspired by the Holy Spirit?

I do.

Dost thou trust that thou hast by divine grace been brought to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ?

This is my humble trust.

Art thou resolved to devote thyself to the work of the Ministry, and to the service of the Lord in the Moravian Church?

I am.

Wilt thou diligently apply thyself to the study of the Holy Scriptures and to prayer, and declare all the counsel of God, that thou mayest be a workman that needeth not to be ashamed?

I will, by the grace of God.

Is it thy sincere purpose to live according to the precepts of God's Word, and to teach nothing but the truths and doctrines contained therein, as received and taught in the Moravian Church?

This is my sincere desire.

Dost thou promise to conform to the principles, regulations and requirements of the Moravian Church, as they are laid down by her Synods and constituted authorities?

This I promise to do, the Lord helping me.

¶ Then, all kneeling, the Bishop shall offer prayer, invoking the blessing of the Triune God upon the act of ordination which is about to be performed, and imploring Him, in particular, that the candidate may be endowed with power and unction for doing all those things which belong to the office of a Deacon, for the edification of the Church. At the close of the prayer the choir shall sing:

In the Name of Jesus. Amen.

The Rite of Ordination

¶ Then the congregation shall stand, while the candidate shall kneel, and the Bishop, with the imposition of hands, shall say:

I ordain thee, Brother (here he shall name the candidate), to be a Deacon of the Moravian Church in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Thereupon all shall kneel in silent prayer, after which the choir shall sing the following doxology, and the congregation, kneeling, shall join in the Amen, Hallelujah.

Glory be to Thy most meritorious ministry,
O Thou Servant of the true tabernacle,
Who didst not come to be ministered unto,
But to minister.

Amen, Hallelujah, Hallelujah,

Amen, Hallelujah.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the benediction shall have been said.

¶ The service shall close with a hymn and the benediction.

II. THE ORDINATION OF A PRESBYTER

¶ The service shall be opened in the same manner as at the ordination of a Deacon. After the singing of the Veni Creator Spiritus, or of some other hymn, the Bishop shall preach a sermon, setting forth the work and obligations of the Ministry in general, and the duty and office of a Presbyter in particular, and deliver a charge to the candidate for ordination. Thereupon, the candidate standing before him, the Bishop shall say and the candidate respond:

Brother (here he shall name him), dost thou abide by the sentiments and purposes which thou hast solemnly avowed at thy ordination as a Deacon of the Church?

I do.

Wilt thou continue faithfully to administer the Word and sacraments, to exercise the discipline of the Church, and in every way to fulfil the functions of thy pastoral office, that souls may be won for Christ, and built up on their most holy faith?

I will.

Having recognized in thy past experience the importance of upholding the principles and regulations of the Moravian Church, as they are laid down by its Synods, wilt thou faithfully observe them, and, as much as lies in thy power, guard against any violation of them?

I will, God being my helper.

¶ Then, all kneeling, the Bishop shall offer prayer, invoking the blessing of the Triune God upon the act of ordination which is about to be performed, and imploring Him, in particular, that the candidate may be endowed with power and unction for preaching the Word of God, for administering the sacraments, and for doing all those things which belong to the office of a Presbyter, for the edification of the Church. At the close of the prayer the choir shall sing:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

Rites of the Church

¶ Then, the congregation shall stand, while the candidate shall kneel, and the Bishop with the imposition of hands, shall say:

I ordain thee, Brother (here he shall name the candidate), to be a Presbyter of the Moravian Church, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;

The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen:

¶ Thereupon all shall kneel in silent prayer at the close of which the choir shall sing the following doxology, and the congregation, kneeling, shall join in the Amen, Hallelujah.

Glory be to Thy most holy priesthood,

Christ, Thou Lamb of God;

Thou Who wast slain for us;

Who by one offering hast perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

Amen, Hallelujah, Hallelujah,

Amen, Hallelujah.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the benediction shall have been said.

¶ The service shall close with a hymn, and the benediction.

III. THE CONSECRATION OF A BISHOP

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy will be found on page 163.

¶ If possible, not less than three Bishops shall take part in the consecration of a Bishop. The service shall be opened with the Church Litany, or a part thereof, and the singing of the Veni Creator Spiritus, or of some other hymn. Thereupon, one of the Bishops shall preach a sermon setting forth the work and obligation of the Ministry in general, and the duty and office of a Bishop in particular, and another Bishop, or the same Bishop, shall deliver a charge to the Bishop elect. Then, all kneeling, the presiding Bishop shall offer prayer, invoking the blessing of the Triune God upon the act of consecration which is about to be performed, and imploring Him, in particular, to endow the Bishop elect with power and unction for ordaining his brethren, with diligence and zeal for doing all other things which belong to the episcopal office, and with wisdom and grace for edifying the Church and setting a holy example to its ministry. At the close of the prayer the choir shall sing:

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

¶ Then, the congregation shall stand, and each of the officiating Bishops shall lay his right hand upon the head of the Bishop elect, who kneels before them, and the presiding Bishop shall say:

We consecrate thee, Brother (here he shall name him), to be a Bishop of the Moravian Church, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee;

The Lord make His face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee, and give thee peace;

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

¶ Thereupon, all shall kneel in silent prayer, at the close of which the choir shall sing the following doxology, and the congregation, kneeling, shall join in the Amen, Hallelujah.

Glory be to the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls,
The great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant:

The Laying of a Corner-Stone

Glory and obedience be unto God the Holy Ghost, our Guide and Comforter;
Glory and adoration be to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Who is the Father of all who are called children on earth and in heaven.

O might each pulse thanksgiving beat,
And every breath His praise repeat.
Amen, Hallelujah, Hallelujah.
Amen, Hallelujah.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the benediction shall have been said.

¶ The service shall end with the singing of a hymn, and the festal doxology (page 21, chant page 152); or, instead of the doxology, merely with the benediction.

THE LAYING OF A CORNER-STONE

¶ The service may be opened with the Te Deum Laudamus, or with the Canticle of Praise, or with an Invocation. Then shall be sung a hymn, after which shall be read the ninety-sixth Psalm, or some other portion of Scripture. An address, or several addresses, shall follow.

¶ Thereupon, the Pastor of the church shall read the document appointed for such occasions, and put it into the corner-stone, as well as all the other articles which the same is to contain, naming them, as he does so, one by one. Then shall be sung the following hymn:

T. THE OLD HUNDREDTH (22, E)

Hymn, 21

This stone to Thee in faith we lay,
We build the temple, Lord, to Thee;
Thine eye be open night and day,
To guard this house and sanctuary.

Here, when Thy messengers proclaim
The blessed gospel of Thy Son,
Still, by the power of His great name,
Be mighty signs and wonders done.

Here when Thy people seek Thy face,
And dying sinners pray to live,
Hear, Thou, in heaven, Thy dwelling-place,
And when Thou hearest, oh forgive.

Thy glory never hence depart;
Yet choose not, Lord, this house alone;
Thy kingdom come to every heart,
In every bosom fix Thy throne.

¶ Here the Bishop, or, if no Bishop be present, the Pastor of the Church, or some other Minister appointed by him, shall lay the stone in its place, saying and the congregation responding:

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.

Our help is in the Name of the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

¶ Then, taking a hammer, he shall say, and the congregation respond:

I lay the corner-stone of a church, (or chapel), to be here erected by
..... (here he shall name the congregation for whose use it is to be built), and to be set apart for the worship of the Triune God agreeably to the ritual and usages of the Moravian Church, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Amen.

¶ Here he shall thrice strike with the hammer upon the corner-stone. Then each of the Ministers present shall in like manner strike thrice upon the corner-stone, repeating the words:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Amen.

¶ Thereupon the Bishop, or the officiating Minister, shall offer prayer, and the service shall close with a hymn and the benediction.

Rites of the Church

THE CONSECRATION OF A CHURCH OR CHAPEL

¶ The service may be opened with an anthem of praise by the choir, during the singing of which the Bishop and Ministers present may enter in procession, taking their places around the communion table.

¶ Then, all standing, one of the Ministers shall say, and the congregation respond:

PSALM XXIV

The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein:

For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? and who shall stand in His holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood, and hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek after Him, that seek Thy face, even Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle,

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory? The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.

¶ Then may be sung the following hymn:

T. SOUTHAMPTON (14, F)

Hymn, 41

Arise, O, King of grace, arise,
And enter to Thy rest;
Behold, Thy Church, with longing eyes,
Waits to be owned and blest.

Here, mighty God, accept our vows;
Here let Thy praise be spread;
Bless the provisions of Thy house,
And fill Thy poor with bread.

Enter with all Thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit, and Thy Word;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.

Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's anointed shine;
Justice and truth His court maintain,
With love and power divine.

¶ Here shall be prayed the Te Deum Laudamus, all standing, after which the Bishop, or, if no Bishop be present, the Minister appointed to perform the act of consecration, shall read the eighty-fourth Psalm, and Solomon's prayer at the consecration of the temple, as found in 1 Kings viii, 22-53.

¶ Then shall be sung the following hymn:

T. THE OLD HUNDREDTH (22, E)

Hymn, 21

O Thou, Who didst the temple fill
With Thy resplendent, awful train,
The glory of Thine Israel still,
Appear in those bright robes again.

In us, and round about us, shine;
Here cause us to behold Thy face;
Oh, make this tabernacle Thine!
Oh, sanctify this holy place!

The Solemnization of Matrimony

¶ Thereupon, all standing, the Bishop, or, if no Bishop be present, the Minister appointed to perform the act of consecration, shall say:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I consecrate this church, (or chapel), to the worship of the Triune God, agreeably to the ritual and usages of the Moravian Church.

Let us pray.

¶ Here he shall offer the prayer of consecration, imploring God to own and bless the reading and the preaching of His Word, the baptism of infants and those of riper years, the renewal of the baptismal covenant in the rite of confirmation, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the solemnization of matrimony, and all other services that will be held in the church, (or chapel) to the good of souls, the spread of His kingdom, and the glory of His Name. After the prayer of consecration, another anthem of praise may be sung by the choir.

Then shall follow the sermon by the Minister appointed to preach it, and the service shall be closed with the singing of a hymn, and the festal doxology (page 21, Chant page 152), or with a short prayer and the benediction.

THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MATRIMONY

The persons to be married shall stand before the Minister with their witnesses, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left. The Minister shall then say:

Dearly Beloved: We are here assembled, in the presence of God and these witnesses, to join together this man (here he shall mention the man's name) and this woman (here he shall mention the woman's name) in holy matrimony, which is commended by the Apostle to be honorable among all men; and, therefore, is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

In holy writ we are taught:

That matrimony was instituted by God Himself, and is therefore an holy estate:

That, according to the ordinance of God, a man and his wife shall be one flesh;

That, under the New Covenant, the married state hath been sanctified to be an emblem of Christ and His Church;

That the husband, as the head of the wife, should love her, even as Christ also loveth the church; and that the wife be subject to her own husband in the Lord, as the Church is subject unto Christ;

That, in consequence, Christians thus united together, should love one another, as one in the Lord, be faithful one to the other, assist each other mutually, and never forsake one another.

Into this holy estate these two persons come now to be joined. If any man can show just cause why they may not lawfully be joined together, according to the word of God and the laws of this State, let him now speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

¶ Then the Minister shall say to the man, addressing him by name:

Wilt thou have this woman (here he shall name her) here present to thy wedded wife, to live together, after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love her, honor her, and care for her; and, through the grace of God, approve thyself unto her, in every respect, a faithful Christian husband, so long as ye both shall live? If this is thy desire, then answer and say, "I will."

Rites of the Church

¶ Then shall the man answer and say:

I will.

¶ In like manner the Minister shall say to the woman, addressing her by name:

Wilt thou have this man (here he shall name him) here present to thy wedded husband, to live together, after God's ordinance, in the holy estate of matrimony? Wilt thou love him, honor him, and be subject unto him, in the Lord; and, through the grace of God, approve thyself unto him, in every respect, a faithful Christian wife, so long as ye both shall live? If this is thy desire, then answer and say, "I will."

I will.

¶ Then shall the woman answer and say:

¶ If a ring be used, the man shall here give the ring to the woman, which the Minister taking from her shall deliver again to the man, and say:

Let this ring be the sign and the token of this holy vow. Take it, and place it upon the finger of this woman and say:

With this ring I thee wed.

¶ Then the Minister shall say:

Forasmuch, then, as ye have thus consented to live together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and these witnesses, we exhort you, that ye enter upon the estate of matrimony in the Name of the Lord, and that ye live therein according to the precepts of His holy word.

Let us pray:

O Lord, our God! Who Thyself hast instituted and blessed the estate of matrimony, sanctifying the same, under the New Covenant, to be an emblem of Christ and His Church, we beseech Thee, graciously to look upon these two persons, who are about to be united in holy wedlock. Grant, that they may enter upon, and continue in this estate, in Thy Name. Replenish their hearts with Thy love, and enable them to be faithful one to the other, and thus to live together in perfect love and peace. Sanctify and bless their union; vouchsafe unto them the guidance of Thy Holy Spirit, and teach them to do that which is well pleasing in Thy sight, through Jesus Christ, our Lord: Amen.

In the Name of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, I now join you together to live in holy wedlock, as husband and wife. What God hath joined together let not man put asunder. Receive ye the blessing of the Lord:—

The Lord bless you, and keep you;

The Lord make His face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you;

The Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace:

In the Name of Jesus: Amen.

Burial I

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD I

¶ The following may be used in the house of mourning, or in the church.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

O Lord our God, in Whom we live, and move, and have our being,
Have mercy upon us.

O Lord our God, Who turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men,
Be gracious unto us.

O Lord our God, Who dost not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men,
Bless and comfort us, we humbly pray.

Holy Father, accept us as Thy children in Thy beloved Son, Jesus Christ,
Who came forth from Thee, and came into the world, was made flesh, and dwelt among us, took on Him the form of a servant, and hath redeemed us lost and undone human creatures from all sin and from death, with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent suffering and dying; to the end that we should be His own, and in His kingdom live under Him and serve Him, in eternal righteousness, innocence, and happiness; forasmuch as He, being risen from the dead, liveth and reigneth, world without end:

Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister say one, or more, of the following texts:

Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down; he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

As touching children, Jesus saith: Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Thou Saviour of the world! So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself; for whether we live, we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lord's; for to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that He might be Lord both of the dead and living.

O Lord, what wait we for? our hope is in Thee.

Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear
Him. For He knoweth our frame, He remembereth that we are dust.

The Lord raiseth them that are bowed down.

He relieveth the fatherless and widow.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and His righteousness unto children's children.

Rites of the Church

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, Who comforteth us in all our tribulation.

The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord.

Blessed be His glorious Name forever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end: Amen.

^f Then there shall follow a hymn, a prayer, and a short discourse at the discretion of the Minister. At the grave, when all is ready for the committal, the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, hear us.

Lord God, our Father, Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour of the world,

Be gracious unto us.

By Thy human birth,

By Thy prayers and tears,

By all the troubles of Thy life,

By the grief and anguish of Thy soul,

By Thine agony and bloody sweat,

By Thy bonds and scourgings,

By Thy crown of thorns,

By Thine ignominious crucifixion,

By Thy sacred wounds and precious blood,

By Thine atoning death,

By Thy rest in the grave,

By Thy glorious resurrection and ascension,

By Thy sitting at the right hand of God,

By Thy divine presence,

Burial I

By Thy coming again to Thy Church on earth, or our being called home to Thee,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God.

Lord God, Holy Ghost,

Abide with us for ever.

I am the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. And whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die.

Therefore, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors.

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law; but thanks be to God, Who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

¶ Then, while the body is committed to the grave, shall be sung one of the following stanzas:

T. ESSLINGEN (14, A)

Hymn, 859

Now to the earth let these remains
In hope committed be,
Until the body changed attains
Blest immortality.

or:

The body here to rest we lay
Within its silent bed,
Till Jesus comes, at the last day,
And earth gives up her dead.

We poor sinners pray,

Hear us, gracious Lord and God;

And keep us in everlasting fellowship with the Church Triumphant, and let us rest together in Thy presence from our labors.

Amen.

Glory be to Him Who is the Resurrection and the Life, Who quickeneth us, while in this dying state, and, after we have obtained the true life, doth not suffer us to die any more.

Glory be to Him in the Church which waiteth for Him, and in that which is around Him, for ever and ever.

Amen.

T. RHAW, (22, A)

Hymn, 445

The Saviour's blood and righteousness
My beauty is, my glorious dress;
Thus well arrayed I need not fear,
When in His presence I appear.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with us all.

Amen.

Rites of the Church

THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD II

¶ The following may be used in the house of mourning, or in the church.

All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

Father Almighty, Creator, Ruler and Preserver of all men,

Have mercy upon us.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour from sin and death,

Be gracious unto us.

O Holy Spirit, Comforter Divine, Giver of life and peace,

Grant us Thine abiding presence.

Lord, make us to know our end, and the measure of our days, what it is; let us know how frail we are.

So teach us to number our days that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Hear our prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto our cry; for we are strangers with Thee, sojourners, as all our fathers were.

It is appointed unto men once to die, and after this cometh judgment.

For we must all be made manifest before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

What is your life? For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time and then vanisheth away.

There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power over the day of death.

As for man, his days are as grass; as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

Through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all have sinned.

But God commendeth His own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. And He died for all, that they that live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto Him Who for their sakes died and rose again.

The loving-kindness of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and His righteousness unto children's children.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Burial II

¶ The service may then be continued at the discretion of the Minister.

¶ At the grave, when all is ready for the committal, the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Our Father Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

¶ A prayer may here be offered, at the discretion of the Minister, who shall continue:

Forasmuch as it hath pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to take out of the world the soul of the departed, we therefore commit this body to the tomb, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust; looking for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

¶ Then shall the Minister say one or more of the following texts while the body is committed to the grave.

[The dust returneth to the earth as it was, and the spirit returneth to God Who gave it. We brought nothing into the world, neither can we carry anything out. The Lord gave; the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the Name of the Lord. The eternal God is thy dwelling-place, and underneath are the everlasting arms.]

¶ After the committal, the Minister shall continue:

If a man die, shall he live again?

The hour cometh in which all that are in the tombs shall hear His voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of judgment.

Jesus saith; I am the Resurrection and the Life; he that believeth on Me, though he die, yet shall he live.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth My word, and believeth Him that sent Me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgment, but hath passed out of death into life.

And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write: blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them.

There remaineth, therefore, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God. Let us fear, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into His rest, any one should seem to have come short of it.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, Who comforteth us in all our affliction.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

Liturgical Services for the Church Seasons

NOTE.—These Services are intended for use, at the discretion of the Minister, in the morning or evening of the days named. If used in the morning, they shall take the place of the Litany, and be followed by the sermon and such further order as the Minister may determine; if in the evening, they shall be preceded or followed by a sermon or a short address or such order as the occasion may require.

The italic type indicates the responses of the congregation.

Some of the hymns have been arranged to be sung antiphonally by the Minister (or a chorister), the choir, and the congregation. Should this be found impracticable, these hymns may be sung by all.

Ye servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of His heavenly word,
And watchful at His gate.

O happy servant he,
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned.

Our Lord said unto His disciples: A little while and ye behold Me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see Me. Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. Ye now therefore have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you.

Even so come, Lord Jesus.

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first; then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

T. REJOICE (151, I)

Hymn, 102

Our Hope and Expectation,
O Jesus, now appear;
Arise, thou Sun so longed for!
O'er this benighted sphere;
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
That brings us unto Thee.

Behold, the Lord will come as a mighty One, and His arm will rule for Him: behold, His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.

Behold, I send My Messenger, saith Jehovah, and He shall prepare the way before Me; and the Lord, Whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple: and the Messenger of the Covenant, Whom ye desire.

Behold the day cometh, it burneth as a furnace; and all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be as stubble. But unto you that fear My Name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise, with healing in His wings.

For the Lord will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, to judge both the living and the dead.

The hour cometh, in the which all that are in the tombs shall hear His voice, and shall come forth to judgment.

Then shall He sit on the throne of His glory, and all the angels with Him, and before Him shall be gathered all the nations.

But who can abide the day of His coming? And who shall stand when He appeareth?

T. RHAW (22, A)

Hymn, 445

The Saviour's blood and righteousness
My beauty is, my glorious dress;
Thus well arrayed, I need not fear,
When in His presence I appear.

In Him I trust for evermore;
He hath expunged the dreadful score
Of all my guilt; this done away,
I need not fear the judgment-day.

So then, let us not sleep, but let us watch and be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are. For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew Him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if He shall be manifested, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him even as He is.

And every one that hath this hope set on Him purifieth himself, even as He is pure.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

T. SUABIA (582, K)

Hymn, 613

When He who is our life
Appears, to take the throne,
We too shall be revealed, and shine
In glory, like His own.

Like Him we then shall be,
Transformed and glorified;
For we shall see Him as He is,
And in His light abide.

Christmas Day

By Thine atoning death,
By Thy rest in the grave,
By Thy glorious resurrection and ascension,
By Thy sitting at the right hand of God,
By Thy sending the Holy Ghost,
By Thy prevailing intercession,
By the holy sacraments,
By Thy divine presence,

By Thy coming again to Thy Church on earth, or our being called home to Thee,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God.

And now, abide in Him; that, if He shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit, and soul, and body, be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Hymn, 160

Joy to the world, the Lord is come;
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns;
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

All things were made by Him, and without Him was not anything made that was made.

Holy, holy, holy is God the Lord, the Almighty, Who was, and is, and is to come.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and they that were His beheld His glory, the glory as of the Only Begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

For the law was given by Moses,

But grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

No man hath seen God at any time;

The only begotten Son, Who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him.

In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

He is before all things, and by Him all things consist. He upholdeth all things by the word of His power, being the brightness of God's glory, and the express image of His person.

T. WEST (582, C)

Hymn, 117

O Saviour of our race,
Welcome indeed Thou art
Blessed Redeemer, Fount of grace,
To this my longing heart.

Light of the world, abide
Through faith within my heart:
Leave me to seek no other guide,
Nor e'er from Thee depart.

Thou art the Life, O Lord!
Sole Light of Life Thou art!
Let not Thy glorious rays be poured
In vain on my dark heart.

¶ Here shall all chant, or say, the Gloria in Excelsis.

Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory.

O Lord God, Heavenly King, God the Father Almighty: O Lord, the Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For Thou only art holy; Thou only art the Lord;

Thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

T. ADESTE FIDELES (39, F)

Hymn, 155

*Choir—Come hither, ye faithful, triumphantly sing;
Come see in the manger the angels' dread King!
To Bethlehem hasten, with joyful accord;
O come ye, come hither, to worship the Lord!*

*All—True Son of the Father, He comes from the skies;
To be born of a Virgin He doth not despise:
To Bethlehem hasten, with joyful accord;
O come ye, come hither, to worship the Lord!*

*To Thee, then, O Jesus, this day of Thy birth,
Be glory and honor through heaven and earth.
True Godhead incarnate, omnipotent Word!
O come, let us hasten, to worship the Lord!*

Glory be to Thee, Lord God our Father,

Thou Father of mercies, and God of all comfort,

In that Thou hast chosen us in Jesus Christ, our Lord, before the foundation of the world.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.

Epiphany

Thou hast blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.
Thou hast delivered us from the power of darkness, and hast translated us into the kingdom of Thy dear Son.

In Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; He is the true God, and eternal life.

By Himself hath He reconciled all things unto Himself, whether they be things on earth, or things in heaven.

O Thou, Who art the one God and Father of all, and Who hast adopted us as children in Jesus Christ, Thy Son, in Whom we have redemption, even the forgiveness of our sins, quicken us, we beseech Thee, who have been dead in trespasses and sins.

For the sake of that great love wherewith Thou hast loved us, make us to live in Christ our Lord.

O Immanuel, Thou Saviour of the world,
Manifest Thyself to us.

By Thy holy incarnation,
By Thy human birth,
By Thy pure and gracious childhood,
By Thine obedience and diligence,
By Thy humility, meekness, and patience,
By Thine extreme poverty,
By Thy griefs and sorrows,
By Thy prayers and tears,
By Thy having been despised and rejected,
By Thy cross and passion,
By Thy death and burial,
By Thy glorious resurrection and ascension,

Help us and save us.

May we all, beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, be changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

T. CONFESSIO (39, A)

Hymn, 312

To God our Immanuel, made flesh as we are,
Our Friend, our Redeemer, and Brother most dear,
Be honor and glory: let with one accord
All people say, Amen! Give praise to the Lord.

Epiphany

The following Service may be used also at Missionary Meetings.

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy are the same as for the Litany, on page 145.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, and the congregation respond:

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, hear us.

Epiphany

Lord God, our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever; Amen.

Lord God, Son, Thou Saviour of the world,
Be gracious unto us.

Lord God, Holy Ghost,
Abide with us for ever.

T. ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR (205, F)

Hymn, 861

From the vast and veiled throng,
Round the Father's heavenly throne,
Swells the everlasting song:
Glory be to God alone!

Round Immanuel's cross of pain
Mortal men, in tribes unknown,
Sing to Him Who once was slain:
Glory be to God alone!

Blend, ye raptured songs, in one,
Men redeemed, your Father own;
Angels, worship ye the Son:
Glory be to God alone!
Spirit, 'tis within Thy light,
Streaming far from cross and throne,
Earth and heaven their songs unite:
Glory be to God alone!

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

When He hath made His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in His hand.

He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied: by His knowledge shall Thy righteous servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong: because He hath poured out His soul unto death.

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted Him, and given Him a Name which is above every name; that at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

T. MISSIONARY (151, O)

Hymn, 341

Arabia's desert ranger
To Him shall bow the knee;
The Ethiopian stranger
His glory come to see:
With offerings of devotion
Ships from the isles shall meet,
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at His feet.

Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing:
For He shall have dominion
O'er river, sea and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion,
Or dove's light wing, can soar.

How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things.

Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the end of the earth.

The Lord gave the word:

Great was the company of those that published it.

Epiphany

Lift up your eyes, and look upon the fields, for they are white already to harvest.

The harvest truly is plenteous but the laborers are few.

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest that He would send forth laborers into His harvest.

Thus saith the Lord, I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, who shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence.

Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

Surely the isles shall wait for Me, saith the Lord of Sabaoth, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the Name of the Lord thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because He hath glorified thee.

T. PLEYEL'S HYMN (11, T)

Hymn, 626

Hark, the distant isles proclaim
Glory to Messiah's Name;
Hymns of praise, unheard before,
Echo from the farthest shore.

Hearts, that once were taught to own
Idol gods of wood and stone,
Now to light and life restored,
Honor Jesus as their Lord.

Behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee.

And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Arise, shine: for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.

T. JUDGMENT (585, A)

Hymn, 364

Yes, we trust the day is breaking,
Joyful times are near at hand;
God, the mighty God, is speaking
By His word, in every land:
Mark His progress,
Darkness flies at His command.

While the foe becomes more daring,
While he "enters like a flood,"
God the Saviour is preparing Means to spread His truth abroad;
Every language
Soon shall tell the love of God.

Bless our and all other Christian congregations gathered from among the heathen; keep them as the apple of Thine eye. Let them be a light unto them who sit in darkness and in the region and shadow of death.

Have mercy on Thy ancient covenant people; deliver them from their blindness.

Oh that Ishmael might live before Thee!

Hear us, gracious Lord and God:

T. WEST (582, C)

Hymn, 117

Send Thou Thy servants forth,
To call the Hebrews home;
From west and east, from south and north,
Let all the wanderers come.

With Israel's myriads sealed,
Let all the nations meet;
And show Thy mystery fulfilled,
Thy family complete.

Lent

¶ All standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy, the Minister and congregation shall pray:

*Thou light and desire of all nations,
Watch over Thy messengers both by land and sea;
Accompany the word of their testimony concerning Thy atonement with demonstration of the Spirit and of power.*

Thou knowest where they dwell, and wherein they labor; and that they are keeping the word of Thy patience.

In the hour of temptation do Thou keep them; and let Thy holy Name be named upon them: preserve them in times of danger and distress.

Let them find comfort in the fellowship and intercessions of the churches, which have sent them forth in obedience to Thy call.

May the fire of Thy love awaken and preserve amongst us the spirit of the great cloud of witnesses, who loved not their life unto the death.

Bless us all, both them and us, and make of us a blessing. Amen.

T. JUDGMENT (585, A)

Hymn, 364

When exposed to fearful dangers,
Jesus will His own defend;
Borne afar 'mid foes and strangers,
Jesus will appear your Friend,
And His presence
Shall be with you to the end.

Behold, a great multitude, whom no man can number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, who are before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands, saying, Salvation to our God Who sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

Lent

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace.

Lord God, our FATHER in heaven, Thou hast manifested Thy great love toward us, because that Thou hast sent Thy Son into the world to be the propitiation for our sins.

We give Thee thanks, that Thou hast made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light, having delivered us from the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of Thy dear Son:

In Whom we have redemption through His blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

T. ROCKINGHAM, OLD (22, G)

Hymn, 225

Choir—

Give to our God immortal praise;
Mercy and truth are all His ways:
Wonders of grace to God belong,
Repeat His mercies in your song.

All—

He sent His Son with power to save
From guilt, from darkness, and the grave:
Wonders of grace to God belong,
Repeat His mercies in your song.

Lent

Lord God, SON, Thou Saviour of the world, forasmuch as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, Thou didst also Thyself likewise take part of the same, that through death Thou mightest destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil.

Thou wast in all things made like unto Thy brethren, that Thou mightest be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

Thou wast despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief. Thou wast wounded for our transgressions; Thou wast bruised for our iniquities;

The chastisement of our peace was upon Thee; and with Thy stripes we have healed.

T. PRAGUE (22, D)

Hymn, 185

Maker of all things, Lord our God,
Now veiled in feeble flesh and blood,
To reconcile and set us free
From endless woe and misery;

What heights, what depths of love divine
In Thy blest incarnation shine!
Let heaven and earth unite their lays,
To magnify Thy boundless grace.

Lord God, HOLY GHOST, Thou didst descend and abide upon Him; Thou didst anoint Him to preach the gospel to the poor; to heal the brokenhearted; to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind; to set at liberty them that are bruised; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

In Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

T. LA TROBE (581, A)

Hymn, 204

Choir—

All—

Now with angels round the throne,
Cherubim and seraphim,
And the Church which still is one,
Let us swell the solemn hymn:
Glory to the great I Am!
Glory to the slaughtered Lamb!

Blessing, honor, glory, might,
And dominion infinite,
To the Father of our Lord,
To the Spirit and the Word,
As it was all worlds before,
Is, and shall be evermore.

From the sin of unbelief,
From all defilement of the flesh and spirit,
From all self-righteousness,
From every neglect of our duty,
From ingratitude and selfishness,
From lukewarmness,
From all indifference to Thy meritorious life and death,

Deliver us gracious Lord and God.

T. PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

Hymn, 215

What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For all Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end!
Oh, should I leave Thee ever,
Then do not Thou leave me;
Lord, let me never, never,
Outlive my love to Thee.

Lent

By, Thy holy incarnation and birth; Thine early exile; Thy pure and blameless childhood; Thy willing obedience; Thy humility, meekness, and patience; Thy faithfulness in Thy earthly calling; Thy perfect life before God and man,

Help us, O Christ, to dedicate both soul and body to Thy service.

Thy tears and agony, Thy crown of thorns and cross,

Lead us to repentance for our sins.

By Thy willing sacrifice of Thyself even unto death,

Make known to us the mystery of Thy love.

Into Thy open arms stretched out upon the cross,

Receive us all.

T. RATHBUN

Hymn, 197

In the Cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
Never shall the Cross forsake me;
Lo, it glows with peace and joy.

When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the Cross the radiance streaming
Adds more lustre to the day.

Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the Cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

By all Thy sacred wounds and precious blood,

By Thine innocent suffering and dying,

By Thy rest in the grave,

By Thy glorious resurrection and ascension,

Bless us and save us, O Christ, our Redeemer.

Fulfill in us Thy prayer, that all who love Thee may be one, as Thou art in the Father, and the Father in Thee.

Hear us and help us, gracious Saviour.

Thou hast declared unto us the Father's Name, that the love wherewith He hath loved Thee may be in us,

And Thou in us.

CHRIST, AND HIM CRUCIFIED,

Remain our confession of faith.

T. EISLEBEN (519, A)

Hymn, 199

Voice—Most Holy Lord and God,
Holy, Almighty God.

Choir—Holy and most merciful Saviour,
Thou Eternal God!

All—Grant that we may never
Lose the comforts of Thy death:
Have mercy, O Lord.

Easter

T. AURELIA (151, L)

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

Hymn, 260

The day of resurrection,
Earth, tell it out abroad:
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light;
And, listening to His accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own, "All hail!" and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead;—unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved for us in heaven.

Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

He was delivered for our offenses:

And was raised again for our justification.

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect?

It is God that justifieth.

Who is he that condemneth?

It is Christ that died; yea rather, that is risen again; Who is even at the right hand of God, Who also maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through Him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come.

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

T. LUX EOI (167, H)

Hymn, 233

Choir—

Voice—

Hallelujah! hallelujah!

Hearts to heaven and voices raise;

Sing to God a hymn of gladness,

Sing to God a hymn of praise;

He, Who on the Cross a Victim

For the world's salvation bled,

Jesus Christ, the King of glory,

Now is risen from the dead.

All—Christ is risen, Christ the first-fruits

Of the holy harvest field,

Which will all its full abundance,

At His second coming yield;

Then the golden ears of harvest

Will their heads before Him wave,

Ripened by His glorious sunshine

From the furrows of the grave.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Easter

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affections on things above, and not on things on the earth.

Like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so let us walk in newness of life.

For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself; for whether we live, we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we die unto the Lord;

Whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's: for to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that He might be Lord both of the dead and living.

As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

It is sown in corruption,

It is raised in incorruption:

It is sown in dishonor,

It is raised in glory:

It is sown in weakness,

It is raised in power:

It is sown a natural body,

It is raised a spiritual body.

Brethren, I would not have you to be ignorant concerning them who are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him.

¶ The congregation shall rise at the second verse of the following hymn and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

T. INNSBRUCH (79, A)

Hymn, 411

Choir—

All—

Children of God, look up and see

Your Saviour, clothed with majesty,

Triumphant o'er the tomb:

Cease, cease to grieve, cast off your fears,

In heaven your mansions He prepares,

And soon will come to take you home.

His Church is still his joy and crown,

He looks with love and pity down

On her He did redeem:

The members of that Church He knows,

He shares their joys and feels their woes,

And they shall ever reign with Him.

Glory be to Him Who is the Resurrection and the Life, even Jesus Christ our Lord, the Faithful and the True Witness, the first-born from among the dead, the Prince of the kings of the earth. For the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ:

And He shall reign for ever and ever, King of kings and Lord of lords.

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of His everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through

To Whom be glory for ever and ever: Amen.

Ascension Day

T. INNOCENTS (11, M)

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

Hymn, 162

Hail the day that sees Him rise,
Glorious to His native skies!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Re-ascends His native heaven.

Him though highest heaven receives,
Still He loves the earth He leaves.
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; yea, lift them up ye everlasting doors;

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is this King of glory?

The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of glory.

The Lord hath prepared His throne in the heavens,

And His Kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless the Lord, ye His angels, that excel in strength, that do His commandments, hearkening unto the voice of His word.

Bless ye the Lord, all ye His hosts; ye ministers of His, that do His pleasure.

Bless the Lord, all His works, in all places of His dominion:

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Unto Him that loveth us and loosed us from our sins by His blood, and He made us to be a Kingdom, to be priests unto His God and Father;

To Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

T. JUDGMENT (585, A)

Hymn, 364

Crown the Saviour, angels, crown Him!

Rich the trophies Jesus brings;

In the seat of power enthrone Him,

While the heavenly concave rings.

Crown Him! Crown Him!

Crown the Saviour "Kings of kings."

The Father of glory hath raised Christ from the dead, and made Him to sit at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come, and He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the Church, which is His body, the fulness of Him that filleth all in all.

¶ The congregation shall here unite in saying the Tersanctus.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Thy glorious Name: evermore praising Thee, and saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory: glory be to Thee, O Lord Most High. Amen.

Ascension Day

T. FREYLINGHAUSEN (341, A)

Above the starry sky
Thou reign'st, enthroned on high;
Prostrate at Thy feet we fall;
Power supreme to Thee is given,
As the righteous Judge of all
Sons of earth and hosts of heaven.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Through His own blood He entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption, now to appear before the face of God for us.

Wherefore, also, He is able to save to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect?

It is God that justifieth.

Who is he that condemneth?

It is Christ Jesus that died, yea, rather, that was raised from the dead, Who is at the right hand of God, Who also maketh intercession for us.

T. EISENACH (90, A)

Hymn, 140

By faith we claim Him as our own,
Our Kinsman near allied in blood,
Flesh of our flesh, bone of our bone,
The Son of man, the Son of God;
We to His mercy-seat draw nigh;
He never can Himself deny.

Jesus said: In My Father's house are many mansions. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

If then we were raised together with Christ, let us seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God.

Fear not, saith the Lord, I am the first and the last and the living One and I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit down with Me in My throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with My Father in His throne.

Thanks be to God, Who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be.

We know that, if He shall be manifested, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him even as He is.

And every one that hath this hope set on Him purifieth himself, even as He is pure.

Ascension Day

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and sing:

T. ST. EDITH (151, Q)

Hymn, 269

That we should look, poor wanderers,
To have our home on high!
Or mortals seek for dwellings
Beyond the starry sky!
And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up unto the Lord.

O Christ, Thou Saviour of the world,

Own us to be Thine.

By all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless us, gracious Lord and God.

As Thou wast raised from the dead,

May we also walk in newness of life.

As Thou didst ascend into heaven,

May we set our minds on things above.

As Thou sittest on the throne,

May we be confident of final triumph.

As Thou makest intercession for us,

May we rejoice in forgiveness and peace.

As angels honor Thee in heaven,

May every tongue on earth confess Thy Name.

And when we see Thee face to face,

May we share Thy glory.

T. CASSELL (167, A)

Hymn, 192

Thou hast raised our human nature,
On the clouds to God's right hand.
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand.
Jesus reigns adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension,
We by faith behold our own.

¶ The following ascription of praise may either be said or chanted.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing, for ever and ever: Hallelujah.

Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Amen.

T. WAREHAM (22, H)

Hymn, 116

Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with Him we reign,
This song our song of songs shall be:
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain."

Whitsunday

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth! Sing His praise in the congregation of the saints, for He hath done marvellous things!

Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord! Who can show forth His praise!

T. GOUDIMEL (205, A)

Hymn, 111

Hail the joyful day's return,
Hail the Pentecostal morn,
Morn when our ascended Head
On His Church the Spirit shed.
Like to cloven tongues of flame,
On the twelve the Spirit came;
Tongues, that earth may hear the call;
Fire, that love may burn in all.

Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness! Let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation; and let righteousness spring up together.

Thou, O Lord, hast created it: Hallelujah!

O God, when Thou wentest forth before Thy people, when Thou didst march through the wilderness, the earth shook, the heavens also dropped, even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

But now, O God, Thou dost send a gracious rain, and dost confirm Thine inheritance that is weary. Thou hast prepared of Thy goodness for the poor.

The heavens shall praise Thy wonders, O Lord, Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints. Let us praise the Lord!

T. CASSELL (167, A)

Hymn, 192

Voice—From that height which knows no measure
As a gracious shower descend,
Choir—Bringing down the richest treasure
Man can wish or God can send.
All—Author of the new creation!
Come with unction and with power;
Make our hearts Thy habitation;
On our souls Thy graces shower.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Thus saith the Lord: It shall come to pass that I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh, that whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look upon Me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him as one mourneth for his only son.

Whitsunday

T. LUX EOI (167, H)

Hymn, 233

All—Come, Thou witness of His dying,
Come, remembrancer divine!
Let us feel Thy power, applying
Christ to every soul and mine;
Let us groan Thine inward groaning,
Look on Him we pierced, and grieve;
All receive the grace atoning,
All the sprinkled blood receive.

Choir—Hath the Holy Ghost been holden
By those ancient saints alone?
Only may the ages olden
Call the Comforter their own?

All—Wonders we may not inherit,
Signs and tongues we may not crave,
Yet we still receive the Spirit,
Still the Comforter we have.

John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

Except we are born of water and of the Spirit, we cannot see the kingdom of God.

And Christ said: It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you: but if I depart, I will send Him unto you.

T. ST. AGNES (14, Cc)

Hymn, 120

Choir—

All—

The Spirit came into the Church
With His unfailing power;
He is the living heart that beats
Within her at this hour

Most tender Spirit, mighty God,
Sweet must Thy presence be,
If loss of Jesus can be gain,
So long as we have Thee.

And now hath the Father sent the Comforter, even the Spirit of truth, to convince the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment.

Ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.

If we have not the Spirit of Christ, we are none of His.

If Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

And if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in us, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken our mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in us. And hereby we know that He abideth in us, by the Spirit Whom He hath given us.

He that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

T. PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

Hymn, 215

Order our path in all things
According to Thy mind,
And when this life is over,
And all must be resigned,

With calm and fearless spirit
O grant us then to die,
And after death inherit
Eternal life on high.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

Whitsunday

Glory be unto the Holy Ghost, our Teacher, Guide, and Comforter, Who proceedeth from the Father, and Whom our Lord Jesus Christ sent, that He should abide with us forever.

O Spirit of truth, Whom the world cannot receive, Who callest us by the gospel, enlightenest us by Thy gifts, sanctifiest and preservest us in the true faith, our tongues shall praise Thee, and our lips shall declare Thy glory.

O Thou most gracious Comforter, Who helpst our infirmities, and makest intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered, we worship Thee with grateful hearts.

For Thou dost comfort us, as a mother doth comfort her children.

T. BEECHER

Hymn, 490

Finish then Thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in Thee,
Changed from glory into glory
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Thou bestowest diversities of gifts, and workest all in all, dividing unto every man severally as Thou wilt.

Thou sheddest abroad in our hearts the love of God, and makest our bodies Thy holy temple.

Thou takest away the stony heart, and givest us an heart of flesh, that we may walk in the Lord's statutes and keep His ordinances.

Thou bearest witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and teachest us to cry, Abba, Father.

O Spirit of grace, direct our hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ; and grant unto us an unction from the Holy One.

Establish Thou us in the faith, that we may abound therein with thanksgiving; and seal our hearts unto the day of redemption.

To Thee be glory, with the Father, and with the Son,

In the Church which is by Christ Jesus; the holy, universal Christian Church, in the communion of saints, at all times, and from eternity to eternity: Amen.

T. HOLLINGSIDE (205, I)

Hymn, 422

Thou, Who didst our fathers guide,
With their children still abide;
Grant us pardon, grant us peace,
Till our earthly wanderings cease.
To the Father praises sing,
Praise to Christ, our risen King,
Praise to Thee, the Lord of love,
Blessed Spirit, holy dove.

Trinity Sunday

¶ The Chants for this Liturgy, are found on pages 166-168.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

T. ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR (205, F)

Hymn, 861

Meet and right it is to sing,
At all times, in every place,
Glory to our heavenly King,
To the God of truth and grace;
Join we, then, in sweet accord,
All in one thanksgiving join:
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Never-ceasing praise be Thine.

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God of hosts! The whole earth is full of His glory!

No man hath seen God at any time; the only-begotten Son, Who is in the bosom of the Father, He hath declared Him.

O Lord, Thou Triune God, of Thee, through Thee, and to Thee, are all things. Thou dwellest between the cherubim; yet Thou graciously regardest them of low estate; in mercy hear our prayer.

Lord, Lord God! great in counsel, and mighty in deed; Whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men; we poor sinners come before Thee, trusting, not in our own righteousness, but solely in Thy great mercy.

O Lord God! comfort us; lift up the light of Thy countenance upon us, and we shall be saved:

Amen! (Chant, Amen! Amen! Amen!)

Lord God, our FATHER, Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

Lord God, SON, Thou Saviour of the world,

Be gracious unto us.

Lord God, HOLY GHOST,

Abide with us forever.

T. PETRA (581, G)

Hymn, 220

Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One in Three, and Three in One,
As by the celestial host,
Let Thy will on earth be done;
Praise by all to Thee be given,
Glorious Lord of earth and heaven.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Holy FATHER! glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son also may glorify Thee: as Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as Thou hast given Him.

And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent.

Trinity Sunday

We pray not that Thou shouldest take us out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep us from the evil. Sanctify us through Thy truth; Thy word is truth.

Thou God of all grace, the true Father of all Thy children both in heaven and on earth, do Thou, while we are in this world make us perfect, stablish, strengthen us.

By Thy Spirit strengthen us in the inner man, and grant that Christ may dwell in our hearts by faith, and that we may be rooted and grounded in Him through love; so that we may be with Him where He is, and behold His glory, which Thou hast given Him.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

T. TE DEUM (235, A. IV, V)

Chants, page 166

Father of heaven! Whose love profound
A ransom for our souls hath found,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy pardoning love extend: Amen.

Faithful is He that hath called you, Who also will do it.

Amen! (Chant, Amen! Amen! Amen!)

Lord God, SON, Thou Saviour of the world! Thou eternal Word, by Whom, and for Whom, all things were made! Thou didst become flesh for our sakes, that whosoever believeth on Thee should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Grant us to behold Thy glory, the glory of the only-begotten Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

O Jesus Christ, our Saviour! Who art true God and true man; Thou art the light of the world. Teach us to walk in Thy light.

Thou hast the words of eternal life! Feed our souls unto life everlasting. No man cometh unto the Father but by Thee. Teach us, therefore, to know the Father.

And as Thou hast gone to the Father, do Thou send to our hearts the Comforter, the Holy Ghost, that He may reveal Thee unto us as the propitiation for our sins, and not for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Have mercy upon us.

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Reveal Thyself unto our hearts.

O Christ, Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world.
Give unto us Thy peace.

T. THURINGIA (68, A)

Hymn, 47

Holy Trinity,
Thanks and praise to Thee,
That our life and whole salvation
Flow from Christ's blest incarnation,
And His death for us
On the shameful Cross.

Trinity Sunday

O most merciful Saviour! Who hast reconciled all things unto Thyself, whether they be things on earth or things in heaven, and Who hast made peace through the blood of Thy cross; may Thy precious blood cleanse us from all sin; and by Thy stripes may we be healed.

Crucify with Thee our sinful flesh, with all its desires, that henceforth we may not serve sin, but walk with Thee in newness of life.

O Thou Prince of life, Who didst rise from the grave; Thou Who hast overcome him that had the power of death; Who hast brought life and immortality to light; confirm us in the Faith, that we may live, even though we die.

Teach us to look away from the things that are seen and are temporal and to seek those things that are above; and let Thy strength, O Thou Prince of our salvation, be mighty in our weakness.

O Thou, our eternal High-priest! Thou, Who for us didst enter within the vail: be Thou our advocate at the right hand of the Father, so that neither height nor depth, things present nor things to come, nor any other creature, may be able to separate us from the love of God.

O Christ, Thou eternal King of glory! unto Whom is given all power in heaven and on earth, rule Thou over Thy enemies, till they become Thy footstool. Lead Thou Thy Church out of conflict unto victory, when Thou shalt come again in the clouds of heaven to judge the living and the dead.

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

T. TE DEUM (235, A. IV, V)

Chants, page 166

Almighty Son! Incarnate Word!
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord!
Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy saving grace extend: Amen.

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing, for ever and ever: Hallelujah!

Amen! (Chant, Amen! Amen! Amen!)

O Thou, HOLY SPIRIT! Who proceedest from the Father, and Whom our Lord Jesus Christ hath sent unto us, Thou Who art true God, do Thou testify of Christ unto our hearts.

O Spirit of truth, Who provest all things, search and try our hearts whether we be in the faith.

Teach us to call Jesus Our Lord; and help us to cry Abba, Our Father; that we may not again fear, but have access to the throne of grace with all confidence and joy.

Trinity Sunday

Bear witness with our spirits that we are children of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with Him, that we may, hereafter, be glorified with Him.

Enlighten us with Thy light, and lead us into all truth, that we may know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge.

Constrain us by faith and by love to be obedient unto Thee, that we may not grieve Thee; for by Thee are we sealed unto the day of redemption.

Incite us to every good word and work; and enable us to mortify the flesh, that we may truly live.

Help our infirmities, when we know not how to pray for anything as we ought; make intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Adorn us with strength and gifts in Christ Jesus; and change us into His glorious image from glory to glory; that we may be His property, and abound unto the praise of His grace.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

T. TE DEUM (235, A. IV, V)

Chants, page 166

Eternal Spirit! by Whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,
Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy quickening power extend: Amen.

O Spirit of grace! direct our hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

Amen! (Chant, Amen! Amen! Amen!)

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end: Amen.

Grace and peace be with all them that are the elect of God, according to the foreknowledge of the Father, through the blood of sprinkling of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the sanctifying influences of the Holy Spirit:

Amen! (Chant, Amen! Amen! Amen!)

T. CASSELL (167, A)

Hymn, 192

May the grace of Christ our Saviour,
And the Father's boundless love,
With the Holy Spirit's favor,
Rest upon us from above;
Thus may we abide in union
With each other and the Lord;
And possess, in sweet communion,
Joys which earth cannot afford.

All Saints' Day

¶ To be used on the Sunday nearest July 6th, the Memorial Day of the Martyrdom of John Hus; or, on the Sunday nearest November 1st.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

T. ALL SAINTS NEW C. M. D.

Hymn, 586

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar;
Who follows in His train?
Who best can drink His cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears His cross below,
He follows in His train.

A glorious band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came;
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame.

They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane;
They bowed their necks the death to feel:
Who follows in their train?

A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed.
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven,
Through peril, toil and pain:
O God! to us may grace be given
To follow in their train!

Behold, a great multitude, which no man can number, out of every nation and of all tribes and people and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands;

And they cry with a great voice, saying: Salvation unto our God who sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb.

Who are these in white robes arrayed, and whence came they?

These are they of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts, and mountains, and caves, and the holes of the earth. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword, they were burned at the stake. They were destitute, afflicted, ill-treated.

These are they that come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His temple.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat; for the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their Shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life.

And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

T. SARUM (58, E)

Hymn, 740

For all Thy saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest:
Hallelujah!

Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine;
Hallelujah!

¶ Here all shall kneel.

Let us pray.

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we offer unto Thee our hearty thanks and praise, for the holy lives of all Thy servants, the prophets, apostles and martyrs, who have shined forth as lights in the world and have sacrificed their lives in testimony of their faith in Thee. We rejoice in the blessed communion of all Thy saints in glory. We remember before Thee all who have departed this life in the true faith, and especially those most dear to us. We thank Thee for our present fellowship with them, for our common hope, and for the promise of future joy.

Let the great cloud of witnesses, the innumerable company of those who have gone before and entered into rest, be to us for an example of godly life, so that with patience we may run the race that yet remains before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; and obtain an entrance into the everlasting kingdom, the glorious assembly of the saints, and with them worship and adore Thee through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

T. MARTYRDOM (14, M)

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

Hymn, 203

All—

Choir—

Triumphant martyrs! ye did fight,
And fighting, ye did fall;
And falling, ye took up a crown:
Crown Him who crowned you all.

'Twas through the Lamb's most precious blood,
They conquered every foe;
And to His power and matchless grace
Their crowns and honors owe.

*All—*Lord may we keep in view
The patterns Thou hast given,
And ne'er forsake the blessed path
Which led them safe to heaven.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Blessed are the poor in spirit:

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn:

For they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek:

For they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness:

For they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful:

For they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart:

For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers:

For they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely for My sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven.

Who shall separate us from the love of God? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.

If God be for us, who can be against us!

Thanksgiving

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the close of the Liturgy.

T. ST. EDITH (151, Q)

Hymn, 269

O Lamb of God, still keep me
Near to Thy wounded side;
'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide.
What foes and snares surround me,
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

Thus saith the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, Who was dead and is alive again:

Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.

Unto Him, Who is the Faithful Witness, and the Firstborn of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth, Who loveth us, and loosed us from our sins by His blood, and made us to be a kingdom, to be priests unto God,—to Him be the glory and the dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Lord, who should not love Thee, who should not serve Thee, when he thinks of Thee!

T. BEDFORD (14, C)

Hymn, 132

Glory to God Whose witness-train,
Those heroes bold in faith,
Could smile on poverty and pain,
And triumph e'en in death.

God Whom we serve, our God, can save,
Can damp the scorching flame,
Can build an ark, can smooth the wave,
For such as love His Name.

Lord, if Thine arm support us still
With its eternal strength,
We shall o'ercome the mightiest ill,
And conquerors prove at length.

The God of all grace, Who called you unto His eternal glory in Christ, after that ye have suffered a little while, shall Himself perfect, establish, strengthen you.

May the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, abide with us all evermore. Amen.

Hymn, 389

Stand up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of His choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.

God is our strength and song,
And His salvation ours;
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and bless His name.

For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations.

All Thy works shall praise Thee, O Lord, and Thy saints shall bless Thee.

They shall abundantly utter the memory of Thy great goodness, and sing of Thy righteousness.

J. T. MARENZO (146, A)

Hymn, 661

To Thee, O God, we raise
Our voice, in choral singing;
We come, with prayer and praise,
Our hearts' oblations bringing.
Thou art our fathers' God,
And ever shalt be ours:
Our lips and lives shall laud
Thy Name, with all our powers.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

The Lord said in His heart: While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease. Hath He said, and shall He not do it? Or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good? He sendeth forth His commandment upon earth: His word runneth very swiftly: He giveth snow like wool: He scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes. He casteth forth His ice like morsels: who can stand before His cold? He sendeth forth His word and melteth them: He causeth His wind to blow, and the waters flow. He prepareth rain for the earth, and maketh it soft with showers, and blesseth the springing thereof. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herbs for the service of man, that He may bring forth food out of the earth. Let us fear the Lord our God, Who giveth us the former and latter rain in its season, and reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of harvest.

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! in wisdom hast Thou made them all: the earth is full of Thy riches.

T. PLEYEL'S HYMN (11, T)

Hymn, 626

Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ.

All the blessings of the fields,
All the stores the garden yields,
All to Thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow.

Bless the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me, bless His holy Name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits. He redeemeth thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with tender mercies. He hath not dealt with us after our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. As the heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward them that fear Him.

He knoweth our frame, and remembereth that we are dust. He openeth His hand, and satisfieth the desire of every living thing. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him.

T. CASSELL (167, A)

Hymn, 192

Choir—For Thy love what due requital
Can our feeble praises be?

All—May its power and spirit vital
Lift our daily life to Thee.
Give us, in our work allotted,
Active hand and fervent mind,
Strength to serve with heart devoted,
Grace to bear with heart resigned.

Thanksgiving

Blessed be God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

Labor not for the meat that perisheth, but for that which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you. For He hath said: I am the Bread of Life. He that cometh unto Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise, and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

T. EISENACH (90, A)

Hymn, 140

Daily, O Lord, our prayers be said,
As Thou hast taught, for daily bread;
But not alone our bodies feed;
Supply our fainting spirits' need!
O Bread of life! from day to day,
Be Thou our Comfort, Food, and Stay.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. The Spirit and the Bride say, Come.

And let him that heareth say, Come.

And let him that is athirst come.

And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely.

T. REGENT SQUARE (585, D)

Hymn, 164

Choir—Thanks we give and adoration
For the gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of Thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
All—King of glory,
Sway Thy sceptre all around.

Glory be to God, the Father!
Glory be to God, the Son!
Glory be to God, the Spirit!
Great Jehovah, Three in One:
Choir—Glory, glory,
All—Glory, glory,
While eternal ages run.

¶ The Chant for this service will be found on page 168 (Trinity Sunday, VIII).

¶ All standing, the opening ascription of praise may be said, or may be chanted by the choir and congregation, responsively:

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing,

Forever and ever. Hallelujah.

This Jesus hath God highly exalted with His right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour,

That every tongue should confess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The nations are His inheritance,

And the uttermost parts of the earth are His possession.

Of the increase of His government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David and upon His Kingdom,

To establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever.

His Kingdom is not of this world; else would His servants fight. It cometh not by might, nor by power, but by His Spirit.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of them that publish salvation.

He shall see of the travail of His soul. For He humbled Himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the cross; wherefore also God highly exalted Him and gave unto Him the Name which is above every name.

And this is His Name whereby He shall be called, "The Lord Our Righteousness."

His Name shall endure forever; His Name shall be continued as long as the sun; and men shall be blessed in Him;

For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

In none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other Name under heaven that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

Blessed be His glorious Name forever; and let the whole earth be filled with His glory. Amen and Amen.

T. PARK STREET (22, S)

Hymn, 880

Great God of nations, now to Thee
Our hymn of gratitude we raise;
That Thou hast made this Nation free,
We offer Thee our song of praise.

Thy Name we bless, Almighty God,
For all the kindness Thou hast shown
To this fair land, by pilgrims trod,
This land we fondly call our own.

We praise Thee, that the gospel's light
Through all our land its radiance sheds,
Dispels the shades of error's night,
And heavenly blessings round us spreads.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem;

Praise thy God, O Zion.

For He hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;

He hath blessed thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders:

He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He showeth His word unto Jacob,

His statutes and His ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation:

And as for His ordinances, they have not known them.

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Thy Name give glory,

For Thy loving-kindness, and for Thy truth's sake.

Wherefore should the nations say, Where is now their God?

But our God is in the heavens; He hath done whatsoever He pleased.

His loving-kindness is great toward us; and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

Praise ye the Lord.

Patriotic

Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are accounted as the small dust of the balance: behold, He taketh up the isles as a very little thing: and Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

Praise ye the Lord.

Let the living know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever He will. The Lord bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought; He maketh the thoughts of the people to be of no effect. The counsel of the Lord standeth fast forever, the thought of His heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom He hath chosen for His own inheritance. Yea, happy is the people whose God is the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord.

T. ST. MATTHEW (590, B)

Hymn, 230

Great King of nations, hear our prayer
While at Thy feet we fall,
And humbly, with united cry,
To Thee for mercy call.
Our fathers' sins were manifold,
And ours no less we own;
Yet wondrously, from age to age,
Thy goodness hath been shown.

When dangers, like a stormy sea,
Beset our country round,
To Thee we looked, to Thee we cried,
And help in Thee we found.
With pitying eye behold our need
As thus we lift our prayer;
Correct us with Thy judgments, Lord,
Then let Thy mercy spare.

¶ Here the congregation shall kneel in prayer.

Almighty God, Thou Who art Ruler of Nations and to Whose gracious Providence we owe the manifold blessings of our land,

We worship Thee with grateful hearts.

We confess that, in many things, we have departed from Thy precepts and from Thy judgments, and that it is of Thy mercies that we are not consumed. To the Lord belong mercies and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him; neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and pardon our transgressions.

Bless the President of the United States and both Houses of Congress, the Governor and Legislature of this Commonwealth, and all others that are in authority. Protect them from violence, and fill the hearts of the people with reverence and love for those who, as the ministers of God, have been set for the punishment of evil-doers and the praise of them that do well. Raise up for us shepherds that shall perform Thy pleasure, who, in patience and fortitude, shall stay themselves upon their God.

Save Thy people and bless Thine inheritance.

Make of this nation a chosen instrument for the promotion of peace, freedom and righteousness. May it be a haven for the oppressed of other lands, a home of happiness for all who dwell within its borders; and may our heritage of liberty be preserved unimpaired for the generations to come.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Safeguard, we beseech Thee, Thy holy day of rest and the sacred institution of the home; grant that all who are employed in the education of youth may recognize that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; and turn Thou the hearts of the people unto Thee that they may seek eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Grant unto those who are of the household of faith, wisdom, that, as citizens of the Commonwealth, they may adorn the Gospel in all their works. Enable them to submit to every ordinance of man for Thy sake, ready unto every good work, abstaining from every form of evil and rendering unto all their dues.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

Grant unto the people of this and all other lands a love of peace, and hasten the day when nations shall learn war no more, and that greater day when the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and remain standing until the conclusion of the Liturgy.

T. MANOAH C. M.

Lord of the nations, thus to Thee
Our country we commend;
Be Thou her Refuge and her Trust,
Her everlasting Friend.

Hymn, 870

Now, therefore, saith the Lord, if ye will obey My voice indeed, and keep My covenant, then ye shall be Mine own possession; and ye shall be unto Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.

All that the Lord hath spoken we will do.

Then shall ye dwell in your land safely, saith the Lord, and I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down and none shall make you afraid, and I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be My people.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

T. ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR (205, F)

Hymn, 879

Swell the anthem, raise the song;
Praises to our God belong;
Saints and angels join to sing
Praises to the heavenly King.
Blessings from His liberal hand
Flow around this happy land;
Kept by Him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

Here, beneath a virtuous sway
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.
Hark, the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

T. DIX (581, H)

Hymn, 181

Blessing, honor, glory, might,
And dominion infinite,
To the Father of our Lord,
To the Spirit and the Word;
As it was all worlds before,
Is, and shall be evermore.

Thou Omniscient Creator, with Whom is wisdom and might, counsel and understanding, Who art perfect in knowledge, Father of Lights, with Whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning, and from Whom cometh every good gift and every perfect gift, we praise Thee for the wisdom, power and love displayed in the heavens above and in the earth beneath, and in man, whom Thou madest to have dominion over the works of Thy hands.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

Thou Light of the World, Thou Teacher come from God, Incarnate Word, Eternal Truth, we praise Thee that Thou art come to be a light unto them that sit in darkness, and that Thou hast called us to the life of the children of light.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

Thou Divine Spirit, Who revealest unto men the deep things of God, and bestowest diversities of gifts, dividing to each one severally even as Thou wilt, our Helper and our Strength, we praise Thee that Thou dost abide with us that we may become the children of God, and dost lead us in the paths of that wisdom which is from above.

Glory be to Thee, O Lord.

T. ITALIAN HYMN (579, B)

Hymn, 10

Holy and blessed Three,
Glorious Trinity,
Wisdom, love, might!
Boundless as ocean's tide
Rolling in fullest pride
Through the world, far and wide,
Let there be light.

Let us pray.

¶ Here shall the congregation kneel in prayer.

O gracious God, Who wouldst have all men to come to a knowledge of Thyself:

We remember before Thee, on this day, the various institutions of learning in our land. Guide, direct and enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit. Inspire them to pursue the ideals commended in the Scriptures:

To know wisdom and instruction;
To discern the words of understanding;

For Schools and Colleges

To receive instruction in wise dealing;
In righteousness and justice and equity;
To give prudence to the simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion;
That the wise man may hear and increase in learning;
And that the man of understanding may attain unto sound counsels.

Hear us, gracious Lord and God.

We pray for the enterprises of the Church established for the instruction, training and care of the young, in this and other lands, its schools and seminaries, its academies and colleges, and for the educational work of the missions, carried on in behalf of those peoples unto whom Thou hast called us to minister. Attend with success the labors of all who are engaged in this service. Give to our Trustees and Directors the wisdom which so great a work demands. Lead our teachers to regard their work as a divine calling. Give to all instructors diligence in acquiring and skill in imparting useful knowledge; and when, in weakness of flesh and spirit, the workers be tempted to doubt and discouragement, do Thou comfort and strengthen them, we humbly pray.

Hear us, and help us, we beseech Thee.

We commend unto Thee the children and youth of our homes and schools. Arouse them to diligence in the morning of life. Inspire them with the spirit of honor and reverence. Keep them in purity and health.

Do Thou guide them:

In the search of the Scriptures,
In the study of Thy wondrous works,
In the pursuit of truth,
In all their thoughts, words and deeds;

and may the example of their Saviour

In His innocent childhood and youth,
In His willing obedience,
In His unselfish service of His fellowmen,
In His perfect pattern in life and death,

be their constant inspiration.

Hear our prayer, O Lord.

Our Father Who art in heaven,

Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever: Amen.

T. DUKE STREET (22, Q)

¶ Here shall the congregation rise.

Hymn, 272

Lord of all being; throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before Thy ever blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.

Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame!

A Day of Humiliation and Prayer

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say and the congregation respond:

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ hear us.

T. CASSELL (167, A)

Hymn, 192

Dread Jehovah, God of nations,
From Thy temple in the skies
Hear Thy people's supplications,
Now for their deliverance rise!
Lo, with deep contrition turning,
Humbly at Thy feet we bend:
Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning,
Hear us, spare us, and defend.

T. ST. MARK (151, G)

Hymn, 149

Hast Thou Thy loving-kindness
Shut up in endless wrath?
No; this is our own blindness,
That cannot see Thy path.
We call to recollection
The years of Thy right hand;
And, strong in Thy protection,
Again through faith we stand.

Thus saith the High and Lofty One, that inhabiteth eternity, Whose Name is Holy:

Return, ye backsliding children; and I will not cause Mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, and I will not keep anger for ever. Only acknowledge your iniquity, that ye have transgressed against the Lord your God.

We acknowledge our transgression: and our sin is ever before us. Against Thee, Thee only, have we sinned, and done this evil in Thy sight: that Thou mightest be justified when Thou speakest, and be clear when Thou judgest.

Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

O Lord, the great and dreadful God, we have sinned and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from Thy precepts and from Thy judgments: wherefore we abhor ourselves, and repent in dust and ashes.

T. AYLESBURY (582, A)

Hymn, 202

Choir—But whither should we go,
Burden'd, and sick, and faint?
To whom should we our trouble show,
And pour out our complaint?

T. FEDERAL STREET (22, Z)

Hymn, 84

All—This, Lord, our comfort is alone,
That we may meet before Thy throne,
And cry, O faithful God, to Thee
For rescue from our misery.

And thus we come, O God, to-day,
And all our woes before Thee lay;
For tried, afflicted, lo! we stand,
Peril and foes on every hand.

A Day of Humiliation and Prayer

¶ Here shall all kneel, and the Minister shall continue, the congregation responding:

If Thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

Our iniquities are gone over our heads; as an heavy burden they are too heavy for us.

Enter not into judgment with Thy servants; for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

We do not present our supplications before Thee for our righteousnesses, but for Thy great mercies.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Thy loving kindness:

According unto the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,

And cleanse me from my sin,

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Hide Thy face from my sins,

And blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God;

And renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from Thy presence;

And take not Thy Holy Spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of Thy salvation;

And uphold me with Thy free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways;

And sinners shall be converted unto Thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God:

And my tongue shall sing aloud of Thy righteousness.

O Lord, open Thou my lips;

And my mouth shall shew forth Thy praise.

For Thou desirest not sacrifice;

Else would I give it.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit:

A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise,
Amen.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

T. HAMBURG (22, P)

Hymn, 315

See, we repent, we weep, we mourn;
To our forsaken God return;
O spare our guilty country, spare
The Church which Thou hast planted here.

We plead Thy grace, indulgent God;
We plead Thy Son's atoning blood;
We plead Thy gracious promises;
And are they unavailing pleas?

A Day of Humiliation and Prayer

O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord. I am the Lord thy God, Who teacheth thee to profit, Who leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou hadst hearkened to My commandments! thou hadst thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea. Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

T. CONFESSION (39, A)

Hymn, 312

Choir—O turn ye, O turn ye, for why will ye die,
When God in great mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you; the Spirit says, "Come!"
And angels are waiting to welcome you home.

T. MARENZO (146, A)

Hymn, 122

All—Therefore, though void of good
Defiled by sin and stained,
Yet bought with Jesus' blood,
Who our salvation gained,
We sinners, vile and poor,
Appear before Thy face,
Most humbly Thee adore,
And pray for peace and grace.

Save Thy people, and bless Thine inheritance: feed them also who are the Church of God, which Thou hast purchased with Thine own blood. Return, we beseech Thee, O God of hosts; look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine; and the vineyard which Thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that Thou madest strong for Thyself.

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. The gates of hell shall not prevail against My Church. Because thou hast kept the word of My patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

T. JUDGMENT (585, A)

Hymn, 364

All—

Choir—

Zion stands with hills surrounded,
Zion, kept by power divine;
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine:
Happy Zion,
What a favored lot is thine!

In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright.
But can never cease to love thee:
Thou art precious in His sight:
God is with thee,
God, thine everlasting light.

T. GRACEHAM (581, K)

Hymn, 434

All—What our Father does is well;
Though He sadden hill and dell,
Upward yet our praises rise
For the strength His Word supplies.
He has called us sons of God;
Can we murmur at his rod?

The Lord hear thee in the day of trouble:
Amen.

Hymn, 422

Saviour, when, in dust, to Thee,
Low we bend the adoring knee;
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce would we lift up our eyes;
O, by all the pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from Thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn litany!

Lord, hear my voice; let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my applications.

If Thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in His word do I hope.

I am the Good Shepherd, saith the Lord; the Good Shepherd layeth down His life for the sheep. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, and I give unto them eternal life. Thus saith the Shepherd of Israel, I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick.

We have gone astray like lost sheep; O Lord, seek Thy servants.

As many as I love, I reprove and chasten; be zealous, therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear My voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me.

I am the Bread of Life; he that cometh to Me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst.

T. HOLY LORD (119, A)

Hymn, 3

Bread of Life,
Christ, by Whom alone we live;
Bread that came to us from heaven,
My poor soul can never thrive
Unless Thou appease its craving;
Lord, I hunger only after Thee,
Feed Thou me.

¶ Here shall the congregation be seated.

Service Preparatory to the Holy Communion

¶ Here may follow a Scripture lesson and an address, after which, all standing, the following hymn shall be sung. If no address is given, the hymn may be omitted, and the congregation remain seated until the prayer.

T. UPSALA, II (23, B)

Deeply moved and duly heeding
My good Shepherd's kindly leading,
Bowed with reverence before Him,
I would praise Him and adore Him.

Jesus, heed me, lost and dying,
Unto Thee for shelter flying;
All my sin and sorrow feeling,
I now come for help and healing.

Beloved, draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will exalt you. Confess, therefore, your sins one to another, and pray one for another.

We will search our hearts and try our ways and turn again to the Lord.

If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous; and He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

We, therefore, draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

Jesus, our blessed Redeemer, has said: Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest; him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

T. LACHRYMAE (253, C)

Hymn, 300

While in penitence we kneel,
Thy sweet presence let us feel,
All Thy wondrous love reveal.

From the bonds of sin release,
Cold and wavering faith increase,
Lamb of God, grant us Thy peace.

¶ Here shall the congregation kneel in prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, our only Mediator with God the Father, our mighty Saviour and our glorious King, we humbly bow before Thee and confess our manifold transgressions.

We, Thy disciples, have oft in word and deed dishonored the holy name we bear, and have turned aside from that path of holiness and loving service, in which Thou hast called us to follow Thee.

Pardon all our forgetfulness of Thy great love and our coldness of heart, our frequent conformity to the ways of the world, and our failure to labor for the extension of Thy kingdom.

Have mercy upon us, according to Thy lovingkindness; hide Thy face from our sins and blot out all our iniquities.

Service Preparatory to the Holy Communion

O Lord, our crucified, but now risen and ascended Redeemer, our trust is in the merits of Thy blood, shed for the remission of our sins; let that precious blood cleanse us from all iniquity, and let the Holy Spirit sanctify us to Thy service.

Hear us and help us, most gracious Saviour.

Grant us, through the communion of Thy Holy Supper, the assurance of Thy pardon, a greater power of sanctification, a closer union with Thyself, and the joyous expectation of eternal life in the heavenly Kingdom.

In mercy hear our prayer.

Thus saith the Lord: I will be merciful to your iniquities, and your sins will I remember no more. Peace be unto you.

¶ Here shall the congregation rise and unite in singing:

T. BOYLSTON (582, N)

Hymn 74

I hear the words of love,
I gaze upon the blood,
I see the mighty sacrifice,
And I have peace with God.

'Tis everlasting peace,
Sure as Jehovah's name;
'Tis stable as His steadfast throne,
Forevermore the same.

The God of peace, Who brought again from the dead the Great Shepherd of the sheep, with the blood of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ:

To Whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Hymns

I. FOR THE OPENING YEAR AND EPIPHANY

SALUTATION

"Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen."

¶ All, standing, unite in singing.

IRISH (14, M)

No. 118

Come, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne:
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

"Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus";
"Worthy the Lamb," our hearts reply,
"For He was slain for us."

Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever Thine.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung.

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you":
Amen, Amen, be it so.

EISENACH (90, A)

No. 140

The Lamb was slain! let us adore,
With grateful hearts His mercy own;
May all within us evermore
In silence at His feet fall down;
Serve without dread, with reverence love
The Lord, Whose boundless love we prove.

Through Him alone we live, for He Hath drownéd our transgressions all
In love's unfathomable sea;
Fall prostrate, lost in wonder fall,
Ye sinners, for the Lamb was slain;
He died that we might life regain.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

MELCOMBE

No. 40

Bless, O my soul, the God of grace;
His favors claim thy highest praise;
How can the wonders He hath wrought
Be lost in silence, and forgot?

'Tis He, my soul, that sent His Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done;
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.

SUABIA (582, K)

No. 613

Jesus, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in Thine own appointed way,
We come to meet Thee, Lord!

Thus we remember Thee,
And take this bread and wine
As Thine own dying legacy,
And our redemption's sign.

Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,
The joy unspeakable.

Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us the banner spread
Of everlasting love.

BEDFORD (14, C)

No. 132

Amazing grace, (how sweet the sound!)
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I am already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord hath promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Communion Hymns

GOUDIMEL (205, A)

No. 111

Vain, delusive world, adieu!
Thou, with all thy creature-good;
Only Jesus I pursue,
Him, Who bought me with His blood;
All thy pleasures I forego,
All thy wealth and all thy pride;
Only Jesus will I know,
Jesus, and Him crucified.

Him to know is life and peace,
Joy and pleasure without end;
This is all my happiness,
On my Jesus to depend;
Daily in His grace to grow,
In His favor to abide;
Only Jesus will I know,
Jesus, and Him crucified.

COVENANT (185, A)

No. 89

To the soul that seeks Him, Christ is gracious;
They who wait, ne'er wait in vain,
But experience Him a God propitious;
He the feeble doth sustain;
Hungry souls He on rich pastures feedeth,
Those who thirst, to living waters leadeth,
Hears the needy sinner's cry,
And to help and save is nigh.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, suffering death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

PILGRIMAGE (166, A)

No. 58

Ye followers of the slaughtered Lamb,
Draw near and take the cup of God;
Approach unto the healing stream,
And drink of the atoning blood;
That blood for our redemption spilt,
Assuring us of purchased grace;
That blood which takes away all guilt,
And speaketh to the conscience peace.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

THE OLD HUNDREDTH (22, E)

No. 121

With humble faith on Thee I call,
My Light, my Life, my Lord, my All:
I wait, O Lord, to hear Thee say,
"My blood hath washed thy sins away."

Speak, gracious Lord, my sickness cure,
Make my infected nature pure;
Peace, righteousness and joy impart,
And give Thyself unto my heart.

THURINGIA (68, A)

No. 47

Bliss beyond compare, which in Christ I share;
He's my only joy and treasure;
Tasteless is all worldly pleasure
When in Christ I share bliss beyond compare.

Jesus is my joy, therefore blest am I:
Oh, His mercy is unbounded,
All my hope on Him is grounded;
Jesus is my joy, therefore blest am I.

LINDSEY HOUSE (590, A)

No. 338

In these our days exalt Thy grace,
Thy precious gospel spread;
That for the travail of Thy soul
Thou mayst behold Thy seed.
O may Thy knowledge fill the earth;
Increase the number still
Of those who in Thy word believe,
And do Thy holy will.

Hereto we gladly say, Amen;
We have this truth avowed,
That we in spirit, body, soul,
Are bound to serve our God,
Who touched, and drew, and wooed our hearts,
And conquered us by love;
To Him we have engaged ourselves,
O may we faithful prove.

GUIDING STAR (155, A)

No. 542

O, what praise in highest strain,
By the ransomed host in heaven
Will be given
To Him Who brought us to God
By His blood,

Communion Hymns

When of every tongue and nation
There will be with exultation
But one flock and Shepherd known.

Amen, Jesus' words are true;
Surely He His gracious promise
Will accomplish:
Ye His servants, ready stand
In each land,
Yea, in the most distant places,
Till He comes, to sound His praises,
And make known His saving Name.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

WEST (582, C)

No. 117

Come, O my soul, and sing
How Jesus thee hath fed;
How Jesus gave Himself to thee,
The true and living Bread.

For food He gives His flesh;
He bids us drink His blood:
Amazing favor, matchless grace
Of our incarnate God!

¶ Here the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

This holy bread and wine
Confirms us in the faith,
In love and union with our Lord,
And we show forth His death.

BENEDICTION.

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

II. FOR LENT

SALUTATION

"Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!"

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

The Cross, the Cross, oh, that's my gain;
Because on that the Lamb was slain;
'Twas there my Lord was crucified,
'Twas there my Saviour for me died.

The stony heart dissolves in tears
When to our view the Cross appears;
Christ's dying love, when truly felt,
The vilest, hardest heart doth melt.

Here doth the Lord of life proclaim
To all the world His saving name;
Repenting souls, in Him believe;
Ye wounded, look on Him and live.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

Draw near to Jesus' table,
Ye contrite souls, draw near;
The hungry, sick and feeble
Are made most welcome here;
Let Jesus' death engraven
Upon your hearts remain;
Thus here, and there in heaven,
Eternal life you gain.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

THURINGIA (68, A)

No. 47

Holy Trinity, we confess with joy,
That our life and whole salvation
Flow from Christ's blest incarnation,
And His death for us on the shameful Cross.

Communion Hymns

Had we angels' tongues, with seraphic songs,
Bowing hearts and knees before Thee,
Triune God, we would adore Thee
In the highest strain, for the Lamb once slain.

PETRA (581, G)

No. 605

Son of God! to Thee I cry:
By the holy mystery
Of Thy dwelling here on earth,
By Thy pure and holy birth,
Lord! Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me!

Lamb of God! to Thee I cry:
By Thy bitter agony,
By Thy pangs, to us unknown,
By Thy spirit's parting groan,
Lord! Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me!

Prince of life! to Thee I cry:
By Thy glorious majesty,
By Thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Lord! Thy presence let me see,
Manifest Thyself to me!

Lord of glory, God most high,
Man exalted to the sky!
With Thy love my bosom fill;
Prompt me to perform Thy will;
Then Thy glory I shall see,
Thou wilt bring me home to Thee.

CASELL (167, A)

No. 192

O the love wherewith I'm lovéd.
Source of all my happiness;
Thou, O Love, by mercy movéd,
Tak'st upon Thee my distress:
As a lamb led to the slaughter
Goest to the Cross's tree,
Seal'st Thy love with blood and water,
Bear'st the world's iniquity.

Love so strikingly displayéd
In Thy tears and bloody sweat:
Love, by sinful men betrayéd,
Dragged before the judgment-seat:
Love, Who for my soul's salvation
Willingly didst shed Thy blood,
Through Thy death and bitter passion
I am reconciled to God.

Communion Hymns

Love, Who hast for me endured
Death upon the accursed tree,
And eternal bliss procuréd,
Fill my soul with love to Thee;
Lord, how hast Thou captivated
My else cold and lifeless heart;
Let me, till to heaven translated,
Never more from Thee depart.

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

The Saviour's blood and righteousness
My beauty is, my glorious dress;
Thus well arrayed, I need not fear,
When in His presence I appear.

The holy, spotless Lamb of God,
Who freely gave His life and blood,
For all my numerous sins to atone,
I for my Lord and Saviour own.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body Which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing.

AYLESBURY (582, A)

No. 202

My Saviour's piercé side
Poured forth a double flood;
By water we are purified,
And pardoned by His blood.

Look up, my soul, to Him
Whose death was thy desert,
And humbly view the living stream
Flow from His wounded heart.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

SOUTHAMPTON (14, P)

No. 41

There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

Communion Hymns

The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day:
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

Then in a nobler, sweeter song
I'll sing Thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering tongue
Lies silent in the grave.

ZURICH (168, A)

No. 196

Thou hast canceled my transgression,
Jesus, by Thy precious blood;
May I find therein salvation,
Happiness and peace with God;
And since Thou, for sinners suffering,
On the Cross wast made an Offering,
From all sin deliver me,
That I wholly Thine may be.

All the pain Thou hast endured;
All Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn,
Hands and feet with nails through bored,
The reproach which Thou hast borne;
Thy back, ploughéd with deep furrows,
Cross and grave, and all Thy sorrows;
Thy blood-sweat and agony,
O Lord Jesus, comfort me.

CASELL (167, A)

No. 192

Hail, Thou once despised Jesus!
Hail, Thou Galilean King!
Thou didst suffer to release us;
Thou didst free salvation bring.
Hail, Thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame!
By Thy merits we find favor;
Life is given through Thy Name.

Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on Thee were laid;
By Almighty Love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made:
All Thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of Thy blood:
Opened is the gate of heaven,
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

Communion Hymns

SEYMOUR (11, S)

No. 287

O how wondrous is His love
To all who His goodness prove;
Deep abasement, heavenly joy,
Their alternate thoughts employ.

Wonders without end we see,
Countless mercies great and free;
Lord, accept our thanks and praise
For Thy goodness, truth, and grace.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,

Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

HAMBURG (22, P)

No. 315

Happy, thrice happy hour of grace!
I've seen by faith my Saviour's face;
He did Himself to me impart,
And made a covenant with my heart.

¶ Here the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,

Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

Ah, might in my behavior shine
The power of Jesus' love divine,
His conflict and His victory,
His seeking and His finding me.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

III. FOR MAUNDY THURSDAY

SALUTATION

"Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all, Amen!"

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

EISLEBEN (519, A)

No. 199

Most Holy Lord and God,
Holy, Almighty God,
Holy and most merciful Saviour,
Thou Eternal God;
Grant that we may never
Lose the comforts from Thy death:
Have mercy, O Lord.

Most Holy Lord and God,
Holy, Almighty God,
Holy and most merciful Saviour,
Thou Eternal God;
Bless Thy Congregation
Through Thy sufferings, death, and blood:
Have mercy, O Lord.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship, while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

I see my Saviour languish
In sad Gethsemane,
Till through His pores, in anguish,
Great blood-drops force their way;
The load which Him oppresses,
I, I deserve to feel;
The bloody sweat of Jesus
Doth soul and body heal.

My Saviour was betrayéd,
Reproach and pain to meet;
My sins the Lord conveyéd
'Fore Pilate's judgment seat;
These, these did Him deliver
Into the foe's dire hand;
I should have felt forever
The pangs my Lord sustained.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

LA TROBE (581, A)

No. 204

Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power,
Your Redeemer's conflict see,
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
Turn not from His griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

Follow to the judgment-hall,
View the Lord of life arraigned;
Oh, the wormwood and the gall!
Oh, the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the Cross.

CASELL (167, A)

No. 207

Great high-priest, we view Thee stooping
With our names upon Thy breast,
In the garden, groaning, drooping,
To the ground with horrors pressed:
Angels saw, struck with amazement,
Their Creator suffer thus;
We are filled with deep abasement,
Since we know 'twas done for us.

Jesus, to the garden lead us,
To behold Thy bloody sweat;
Though Thou from the curse hast freed us,
May we ne'er the cost forget;
Be Thy groans and cries rehearsed
By Thy Spirit in our ears,
Till we, viewing Whom we piercéd,
Melt in penitential tears.

PENITENCE (141, E)

No. 581

In the hour of trial,
Jesus, plead for me;
Lest by base denial
I depart from Thee;
When Thou see'st me waver,
With a look recall,
Nor for fear or favor
Suffer me to fall.

With forbidden pleasures
Would this vain world charm;
Or its sordid treasures
Spread to work me harm;

Communion Hymns

Bring to my remembrance
Sad Gethsemane,
Or, in darker semblance,
Cross-crowned Calvary.

Should Thy mercy send me
Sorrow, toil, and woe;
Or should pain attend me
On my path below;
Grant that I may never
Fail Thy hand to see;
Grant that I may ever
Cast my care on Thee.

When my last hour cometh,
Fraught with strife and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again;
On Thy truth relying
Through that mortal strife,
Jesus, take me, dying,
To eternal life.

DOWNS

No. 138

According to Thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord,
I will remember Thee.

Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember Thee.

Gethsemane can I forget?
Or there Thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember Thee?

When to the Cross I turn mine eyes,
And rest on Calvary,
O Lamb of God, my Sacrifice,
I must remember Thee;

Remember Thee, and all Thy pains,
And all Thy love to me;
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember Thee.

Communion Hymns

SERVICE (56, A)

No. 313

They who hunger after Christ, are fed,
All the thirsty to life's fountain led;
He the needy doth supply
With good things abundantly;
From His fullness they are nourished.

Since He welcomes every soul distressed
And hath promised to the weary rest,
At His call we now draw nigh;
He invites each graciously;
"Come, poor sinner, come and share My feast."

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:
Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection.

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All standing, unite in singing.

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

Thy blood, so dear and precious,
Love made Thee shed for me;
Oh, may I now, dear Jesus,
Love Thee most fervently;
May the divine impression
Of Thy atoning death,
And all Thy bitter passion,
Ne'er leave me while I've breath.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

HOLLINGSIDE (205, I)

No. 422

By Thine hour of dark despair;
By Thine agony of prayer;
By the Cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany!

Communion Hymns

ELLERS (32, D)

No. 390

I lift my heart to Thee, Saviour Divine,
For Thou art all to me, and I am Thine,
Is there on earth a closer bond than this,
That my Beloved's mine, and I am His?

Thine am I by all ties, but chiefly Thine,
That through Thy sacrifice Thou, Lord, art mine;
By Thine own cords of love, so sweetly wound
Around me, I to Thee am closely bound.

To Thee, Thou bleeding Lamb, I all things owe:
All that I have and am, and all I know:
All that I have is now no longer mine,
And I am not my own; Lord, I am Thine.

How can I, Lord, withhold life's brightest hour
From Thee; or gathered gold, or any power?
Why should I keep one precious thing from Thee;
When Thou hast given Thine own dear Self for me?

CULFORD (205, L)

No. 751

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide
Flowing from His pierced side;
Praise we Him, Whose love divine
Gives His sacred blood for wine,
Gives His body for the feast,
Christ the Victim, Christ the Priest.

Where the Paschal Blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe;
Praise we Christ, Whose blood was shed,
Paschal Victim, Paschal Bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

HOLY LORD (119, A)

No. 262

Praise the Lord;
Bounteously He deals with thee,
Highly favored Church of Jesus:
Thee He chose through mercy free,
To show forth His matchless praises,
And rich fruit, meet for the Master's use,
To produce.

Communion Hymns

Gracious Lord,
Blesséd is our lot indeed,
In Thy ransomed Congregation:
Here we on Thy merits feed,
And the well-springs of salvation,
All the needy to revive and cheer,
Stream forth here.

We entreat,
Lord, lift up Thy countenance
On Thy ransomed Congregation;
Grace to every soul dispense:
May we all, each in his station,
Daily in Thy great salvation share:
Hear our prayer.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All, standing, the Minister shall then say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A)

No. 214

Lamb of God, Thou shalt remain forever
Of our songs the only theme;
For Thy boundless love, Thy grace and favor,
We will praise Thy saving Name;
That for our transgressions Thou wast wounded,
Shall by us in nobler strains be sounded,
When we, perfected in love,
Once shall join the Church above.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

IV. FOR GOOD FRIDAY

SALUTATION

"Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!"

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

ALBERT (89, A)

No. 193

Come to Calvary's holy mountain,
Sinners, ruined by the fall;
Here a pure and healing fountain
Flows to you, to me, to all,
In a full, perpetual tide,
Opened when our Saviour died.

Come, in poverty and meanness,
Come, defiled, without, within;
From infection and uncleanness,
From the leprosy of sin,
Wash your robes and make them white;
Ye shall walk with God in light.

Come, in sorrow and contrition,
Wounded, impotent, and blind;
Here the guilty free remission,
Here the troubled peace may find;
Health this fountain will restore,
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung;

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

ELLERS (32, D)

No. 390

I kneel in spirit at my Saviour's Cross,
Where He in blood expired for His foes;
With deepest reverence humbly I adore
My dying Lord, Who all my sorrows bore.

This blessed truth I firmly will maintain,
That my Creator for my sins was slain;
May this constrain me gladly to obey
And love the Lord, Who took my sins away.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

Communion Hymns

SYCHAR (16, E)

No. 131

Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the Cross I spend;
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.

Here it is I find my heaven,
While upon the Cross I gaze;
Love I much? I'm much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace.

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

The Cross, the Cross, oh, that's my gain,
Because on that the Lamb was slain;
'Twas there my Lord was crucified,
'Twas there my Saviour for me died.

Here is an ensign on a hill,
Come hither, sinners, look your fill;
To look aside is pain and loss:
I glory only in the Cross.

Here doth the Lord of life proclaim
To all the world His saving name;
Repenting souls, in Him believe;
Ye wounded, look on Him and live.

No flaming sword doth guard the place,
The Cross of Christ proclaims free grace;
All pilgrims who would heaven win,
By Jesus' Cross must enter in.

RATHBUN

No. 197

In the Cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the Cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

MARTYRDOM (14, X)

No. 203

Alas, and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would He devote his sacred head
For such an one as I?

But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'Tis all that I can do.

Communion Hymns

AYLESBURY (582, A)

No. 202

Only one prayer to-day,
One earnest, tearful plea;
A litany from out the heart,
Have mercy, Lord, on me!

Because of Jesus' Cross,
And that unfathomed sea,
The crimson tide which heaves the world,
Have mercy, Lord, on me!

No other name than His,
My Hope, my Help may be;
Oh! by that one all-saving Name,
Have mercy, Lord, on me!

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

O Sacred Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, Thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was Thine!
Yet though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Oh, make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never
Outlive my love to Thee!

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

Communion Hymns

GRACEHAM (581, K)

No. 434

Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood
From Thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure;
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Not the labor of my hands
Can fulfill Thy law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring;
Simply to Thy Cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress,
Helpless, look to Thee for grace,
Foul, I to the Fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in Thee.

BERTHELSDORF (141, A)

No. 125

Glory be to Jesus,
Who, in bitter pains,
Poured for me the life-blood
From His sacred veins.
Grace and life eternal
In that blood I find,
Blest be His compassion
Infinitely kind.

Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream,
Which from endless torments
Did the world redeem!
Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies,
But the blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel-hosts rejoicing
Make their glad reply.

Communion Hymns

Lift ye then your voices;
Swell the mighty flood;
Louder and still louder
Praise the precious blood!

GOUDIMEL (205, A)

No. 111

Amen, yea, hallelujah;
Lord, our comfort, joy and peace,
By Thy Cross thou gain'dst for us
Everlasting happiness;
Since the effects we richly prove
Of this wondrous act of love,
With what gratitude should we
Raise our hearts and eyes to Thee.

ZURICH (168, A)

No. 196

Thou hast canceled my transgression,
Jesus, by Thy precious blood;
May I find therein salvation,
Happiness and peace with God;
And since Thou, for sinners suffering,
On the Cross wast made an Offering,
From all sin deliver me,
That I wholly Thine may be.

All the pain Thou hast endured;
All Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn,
Hands and feet with nails through boréd,
The reproach which Thou hast borne;
Thy back, ploughéd with deep furrows,
Cross and grave, and all Thy sorrows;
Thy blood-sweat and agony,
O Lord Jesus, comfort me.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

Communion Hymns

¶ All, standing, unite in singing.

COENA DOMINI (1, C)

No. 690

Peace, perfect peace, in this dark world of sin?
The blood of Jesus whispers peace within.

Peace, perfect peace, by thronging duties pressed?
To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

Peace, perfect peace, with sorrows surging round?
On Jesus' bosom nought but calm is found.

¶ Here the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,

Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

V. FOR EASTER AND GENERAL OCCASIONS

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

WORSHIP (159, A)

No. 623

All hail! Thy Church's Saviour dear!
Jesus, her glorious Head,
To Thy disciples now appear,
As risen from the dead;
Let our rejoicing souls in Thee
The tokens of Thy passion see,
And hear Thy gentle voice anew
Say, "Peace be unto you!"

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you."
Amen, Amen, be it so.

Communion Hymns

PILGRIMAGE (166, A)

No. 802

O Thou, the Church's Head and Lord,
Who as a Shepherd leadest
Thy flock, and richly with Thy word
And sacrament us feedest:
What shall we say? lost in amaze,
Our hearts bow down before Thee;
For none sufficiently can praise,
Love, honor, or adore Thee.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

WAREHAM (22, H)

No. 116

Come, let us sing the song of songs,
With hearts and voices swell the strain,
The homage which to Christ belongs;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

To Him who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at His soul's price, to gain,
Blessing, and praise, and glory be;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

To Him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with Him we reign,
This song, our song of songs shall be;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

HOLY LORD (119, A)

No. 3

Bread of life,
Christ, by Whom alone we live;
Bread that came to us from heaven,
My poor soul can never thrive
Unless Thou appease its craving:
Lord, I hunger only after Thee,
Feed Thou me.

Holy Lord,
By Thy body given to death,
Mortify my sinful nature,
Till I yield my dying breath:
Ah, protect Thy feeble creature;
Grant that I, by nothing drawn aside,
Thine abide.

Communion Hymns

ST. ANDREW (582, Q)

No. 97

Jesus Who died, is now
Seated upon His throne;
The angels, who before Him bow,
His just dominion own.

The unworthiest of His friends
Upon His heart He bears;
He ever to their cause attends,
For them a place prepares.

Blest Saviour, condescend
My Advocate to be;
I could not have a better Friend
To plead with God for me.

EVENTIDE (32, K)

No. 516

I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my Guide and Stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me.

DUNDEE (14, P)

No. 83

Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.

Then sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and Thy blood,
That living Bread, that heavenly Wine,
Be our immortal food.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection.

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

EISLEBEN (519, A)

No. 199

Most Holy Lord and God,
Holy, Almighty God,
Holy and most merciful Saviour,
Thou Eternal God;
Bless Thy Congregation
Through Thy sufferings, death, and blood:
Have mercy, O Lord.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

SOUTHAMPTON (14, F)

No. 41

Besprinkle with Thy blood my heart,
O Jesus, Son of God;
And take away whate'er Thy grace
Hath hitherto withstood.
Alas, with shame I own that oft
I've turned away from Thee:
O, let Thy work, renewed to-day,
Remain eternally.

SUABIA (582, K)

No. 613

Our life is hid with Christ,
With Christ in God above;
Upward our heart would go to Him,
Whom seeing not, we love.
When He Who is our Life
Appears, to take the throne,
We too shall be revealed, and shine
In glory like His own.
Life worketh in us now,
Life is for us in store;
So death is swallowed up of life;
We live for evermore.
Like Him we then shall be,
Transformed and glorified:
For we shall see Him as He is,
And in His light abide.

CASELL (167, A)

No. 667

O that such may be our union,
As Thine with the Father is,
And not one of our communion
E'er forsake the path of bliss;
May our light 'fore men with brightness,
From Thy light reflected, shine;
Thus the world will bear us witness,
That we, Lord, are truly Thine.

PRAGUE (22, D)

No. 185

O Christ, our true and only Light,
Illumine those who sit in night;
Let those afar now hear Thy voice,
And in Thy fold with us rejoice.
Shine on the darkened and the cold,
Recall the wanderers to Thy fold,
Unite those now who walk apart,
Confirm the weak and doubting heart.

Communion Hymns

DUNDEE (14, P)

No. 273

Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone:
For all the servants of our King
In heaven and earth are one.

One family, we dwell in Him,
One Church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

E'en now, by faith, we join our hands
With those that went before;
And greet the blood-besprinkled bands
On the eternal shore.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it,
in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

HAYN (82, D)

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

No. 486

Should not I for gladness leap,
Led by Jesus as His sheep?
For when these blest days are over,
To the arms of my dear Saviour,
I shall be conveyed to rest;
Amen, yea, my lot is blest.

¶ Here the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

GOUDIMEL (205, A)

No. 111

Eat and rest at this great feast,
Then to serve Him freely go,
As it is for pilgrims fit,
As disciples ought to do:
We, when Jesus we shall see
Coming in His majesty,
Shall the marriage-supper share,
If we His true followers are.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

VI. FOR WHITSUNDAY

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

ST. ANDREW (582, Q)

No. 143

Spirit of truth, come down,
Reveal the things of God,
Make Thou to us Christ's Godhead known,
Apply His precious blood.

His merits glorify,
That each may clearly see,
Jesus, Who did for sinners die,
Hath surely died for me.

Then, only then, we feel
Our interest in His blood,
And cry with joy unspeakable,
"Thou art my Lord, my God."

THURINGIA (68, A)

No. 47

Holy Trinity,
Thanks and praise to Thee,
That our life and whole salvation
Flow from Christ's blest incarnation,
And His death for us,
On the shameful Cross,

¶ Then all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

ARLINGTON (14, S)

No. 392

Together with these symbols, Lord,
Thy blessed self impart:
And let Thy holy flesh and blood
Feed the believing heart.

Come, Holy Ghost, with Jesus' love
Prepare us for this feast;
Oh let us banquet with our Lord,
And lean upon His breast.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of me.

Communion Hymns

LANGRAN (32, F)

No. 297

Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face!
Here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
Here would I grasp with firmer hand Thy grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.

Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load;
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

I have no help but Thine; nor do I need
Another arm save Thine to lean upon;
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

PILGRIMAGE (166, A)

No. 802

Lord Jesus, to our hearts reveal
Thy grace and love unceasing;
Thy hand, once piercéd with the nail,
Bestow on us a blessing;
That hand which to Thy family,
With tender love's affection,
Ere Thou ascendedst up on high,
Imparted benediction.

O Spirit in the Godhead's throne,
Accept our adoration;
Thou ever didst attend the Son,
And aid His ministration;
Thou teachest us the way to bliss:
Keep under Thy protection
That Church of which He ruler is;
We'll follow Thy direction.

LINDSEY HOUSE (590, A)

No. 240

O, teach us, Lord, to know and own
This wondrous mystery,
That Thou with us art truly one,
And we are one with Thee!
Soon, soon shall come that glorious day,
When, seated on Thy throne,
Thou shalt to wondering worlds display,
That Thou with us art one.

GOUDIMEL (205, A)

No. 111

Jesus, hear our fervent prayer,
Own Thy people, seal us Thine:
Thee to obey from day to day
By Thy Spirit us incline:

Communion Hymns

Us forever bless and keep,
Mark us as Thy chosen sheep,
From Thy fullness to us grant
Every grace and gift we want.

HAMBURG (22, P)

No. 315

Give us Thy Spirit's power to feel,
Baptize each soul with holy fire;
And with devotion's burning zeal
Do Thou our every thought inspire.

Then can we move, a conquering host,
Jesus our Leader and our Lord;
With highest power to save the lost,
And lead them upward to our God.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:
Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Biess and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

REJOICE (151, I)

No. 595

Come, faithful Shepherd, bind me
With cords of love to Thee,
And evermore remind me
That Thou hast died for me;
O may the Holy Spirit
Set this before mine eyes,
That I Thy death and merit
Above all else may prize.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

JUDGMENT (585, A)

No. 364

Jesus, Lord of life and glory,
Bend from heaven Thy gracious ear,
While our waiting souls adore Thee,
Friend of helpless sinners, hear!
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

Communion Hymns

Taught by Thine unerring Spirit,
Boldly we draw nigh to God,
Only in Thy spotless merit,
Only through Thy precious blood:
By Thy mercy,
O deliver us, good Lord!

DULCE CARMEN (167, G)

No. 497

Did but Jesus' love and merit
Fill our hearts both night and day,
And the unction of His Spirit
All our thoughts and actions sway:
Might we all be ever ready
Cheerfully to testify,
How our spirit, soul and body
Do in God our Saviour joy.

Saviour, lo! the isles are waiting,
Stretched the hand, and strained the sight,
For Thy Spirit, new creating,
Love's pure flame and wisdom's light;
Give the word, and of the preacher
Speed the foot, and touch the tongue,
Till on earth, by every creature,
Glory to the Lamb be sung.

DUKE STREET (22, Q)

No. 272

As long as Jesus Lord remains,
Each day new rising glory gains;
It was, it is, and will be so
With His Church militant below.

Our only stay is Jesus' grace,
In every time and every place;
And Jesus' blood-bought righteousness
Remains His Church's glorious dress.

He is and shall remain our Lord,
Our confidence is in His word;
And, while our Jesus reigns above,
His Church will more than conqueror prove.

ZURICH (168, A)

No. 196

Meanwhile God the Holy Spirit
Is our pledge of joys to come,
Of the bliss we shall inherit
When above with Christ at home:

Communion Hymns

Oh, this blessed meditation
Yields us solid consolation,
That we shall, when time is o'er,
With the Lord be evermore.

FEDERAL STREET (22, Z)

No. 255

Spirit of mercy, truth and love,
Oh, shed Thine influence from above;
And still, from age to age, convey
The wonders of this sacred day.

In every clime, by every tongue,
Be God's surpassing glory sung;
Let all the listening earth be taught
The wonders by our Saviour wrought.

Unfailing Comfort, heavenly Guide,
Still o'er Thy holy Church preside;
Still let mankind Thy blessings prove,
Spirit of mercy, truth, and love.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All standing, the minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

BATTY (16, A)

No. 263

Now the Triune God confessing,
God the Father's Name adore;
To the Son give praise and blessing:
Bless the Spirit evermore.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

VII. FOR THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL OF A CONGREGATION

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with ou all. Amen!

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

SLEEPERS, WAKE (230, A)

No. 489

Jesus, Lord most great and glorious,
Reward and crown of the victorious,
Restorer of lost paradise;
We appear with supplication,
Before Thee, God of our salvation,
And send to Thee our fervent cries;
O Lord our righteousness,
'Tis Thy delight to bless;
We desire it,
Come, then, for we Belong to Thee,
And bless us inexpressibly.

CASELL (167, A)

No. 192

Peace be to this congregation,
Peace to every soul therein;
Peace which flows from Christ's salvation,
Peace, the seal of cancelled sin;
Peace that speaks its heavenly Giver,
Peace, to earthly minds unknown;
Peace divine that lasts for ever,
Here erect its glorious throne.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

BATTY (16, A)

No. 263

As we meet around Thy table,
From the world and sin set free,
Bless, oh, bless us with Thy presence,
Let us find our peace in Thee.

Give us power for future conflict,
Strengthen faith, and deepen love,
Grant us grace for every trial,
Till we reach the rest above.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

ST. THOMAS (582, P)

No. 369

Come, we that love the Lord!
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God,
But servants of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

BEDFORD (14, C)

No. 132

Lord, how divine Thy comforts are!
How heavenly is the place,
Where Jesus spreads the sacred feast
Of His redeeming grace!

There the rich bounties of our God,
And heavenly glories shine:
There Jesus saith, that I am His,
And my Beloved's mine.

COVENANT (185, A)

No. 89

The unbounded love of my Creator
Heart-felt gratitude doth claim;
Why did Christ appear in human nature?
'Twas for me He man became;
While the whole world's Saviour I confess Him,
As my own Redeemer I embrace Him,
And His merits I apply
To myself especially.

HAYN (82, D)

No. 486

Jesus makes my heart rejoice,
I'm His sheep, and know His voice;
He's a Shepherd kind and gracious,
And His pastures are delicious;
Constant love to me He shows,
Yea, my very name He knows.

Trusting His mild staff always,
I go in and out in peace;
He will feed me with the treasure
Of His grace in richest measure;
When athirst to Him I cry,
Living water He'll supply.

Communion Hymns

Should not I for gladness leap,
Led by Jesus as His sheep?
For when these blest days are over,
To the arms of my dear Saviour,
I shall be conveyed to rest;
Amen, yea, my lot is blest.

ZURICH (168, A)

No. 196

Jesus, Source of my salvation,
Conqueror both of death and hell,
Thou Who didst, as my Oblation,
Feel what I deserved to feel,
Through Thy sufferings, death and merit
I eternal life inherit;
Thousand, thousand thanks to Thee,
Dearest Lord, for ever be.

Lord, I'll praise Thee now and ever,
Who for me wast crucified;
For Thy agony, dear Saviour,
For Thy wounds and pierced side,
For Thy love, so tried, unending,
For Thy death, all deaths transcending,
For Thy death and love divine,
Lord, I'll be for ever Thine.

AURELIA (151, L)

No. 260

The Church's one Foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is His new creation
By water and the word;
From heaven He came and sought her,
To be His holy bride:
With His own blood He bought her,
And for her life He died.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

Thy blood, so dear and precious,
Love made Thee shed for me;
O may I now, dear Jesus,
Love Thee most fervently;

Communion Hymns

May the divine impression
Of Thy atoning death,
And all Thy bitter passion,
Ne'er leave me while I've breath.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

CONFIDENCE (83, D)

No. 238

More than shepherd's faithfulness
To His flock our Saviour showeth;
From the treasures of His grace
He the choicest gifts bestoweth:
As His sheep by Him we're owned,
Since His blood for us atoned.
They who feel their want and need,
Thirsting for His great salvation,
On the richest pastures feed,
With true joy and delectation;
Till they shall, when perfected,
With celestial joys be fed.

LANGRAN (32, F)

No. 297

Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face!
Here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
Here would I grasp with firmer hand Thy grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.
I have no help but Thine; nor do I need
Another arm save Thine to lean upon;
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.
Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood,
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace—
Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord, my God.

THURINGIA (68, A)

No. 696

Jesus! still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless;
Guide us by Thy hand
To our fatherland.
If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For through many a foe
To our home we go.

Communion Hymns

HOLY LORD (119, A)

No. 3

Thanks and praise,
Jesus, unto Thee are due;
O, accept our adoration
For the blessings, which accrue
From Thy human life and passion;
May our hearts and lips with one accord
Praise Thee, Lord.

For Thy death,
Thou art worthy, Lamb of God,
That our lives and whole demeanor
Praise Thee, yea, each drop of blood
Be devoted to Thy honor,
And our souls uninterruptedly
Cleave to Thee.

In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

BERTHELSDORF (141, A)

No. 616

Since we, though unworthy,
Through electing grace,
'Mid Thy ransomed people
Have obtained a place;
Lord, may we be faithful
To our covenant found,
To Thee, as our Shepherd,
And Thy flock fast bound.

¶ Here the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

Hear the joint petition
We present to Thee,
Whose unbounded mercy
Is our only plea:
All that is displeasing
Unto Thee, forgive;
More to Thy Name's glory
May we henceforth live.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Communion Hymns

VIII. FOR THE THIRTEENTH OF AUGUST

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

BERTHELSDORF (141, A)

No. 805

Own Thy congregation,
O Thou slaughtered Lamb;
We are here assembled
In Thy holy Name;
Look upon Thy people,
Whom Thou by Thy blood
Hast in love redeemed,
And brought nigh to God.

Church, who art arrayéd
In the glorious dress
Of Thy Lord and Saviour's
Spotless righteousness,
Be both now and ever
By His blood kept clean,
And in all thy members
Be His likeness seen.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung.

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

O Church of Jesus, now draw near
With humble joy and filial fear;
According to His testament
Enjoy the holy sacrament.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

SEYMOUR (11, S)

No. 287

By Thy hallowed outward sign,
By the cleansing grace within,
Seal, and make us wholly Thine;
Wash, and keep us pure from sin.

Communion Hymns

Called to bear the Christian name,
May our vows and life accord,
And our every deed proclaim
"Holiness unto the Lord!"

ST. AGNES (14, Cc)

No. 120

Jesus, Thy love exceeds by far
The love of earthly friends;
Bestows whate'er the sinner needs,
Is firm, and never ends.

My blessed Saviour, is Thy love
So bounteous, great, and free?
Behold, I give my sinful heart,
My life, my all to Thee.

No man of greater love can boast,
Than for his friend to die;
Thou for Thy enemies wast slain;
What love with Thine can vie?

WORSHIP (159, A)

No. 532

'Tis the most blest and needful part
To have in Christ a share,
And to commit our way and heart
Unto His faithful care:
This done, our steps are safe and sure,
Our hearts' desires are rendered pure,
And nought can pluck us from His hand,
Which leads us to the end.

Nought in this world affords true rest
But Christ's atoning blood;
This purifies the guilty breast,
And reconciles to God:
Hence flows unfeigned love to Him
Who came lost sinners to redeem,
And Christ our Saviour doth appear
Daily to us more dear.

WALTON (22, R)

No. 55

Thy sacred body Thou didst give
For us, that we thereby might live;
No pledge of love could be so great:
O, may we ne'er Thy love forget!

Thy precious blood for sinners spilt,
Cleanseth our hearts, removes our guilt;
The debt is paid which we incurred,
And we're to happiness restored.

Communion Hymns

SUABIA (582, K)

No. 613

O God of grace and love,
Regard us from Thy throne;
Send down to us the Heavenly Dove,
And seal us as Thine own.

We have no other trust,
But Thy dear Sacrifice;
Our hope, Thou holy One and Just,
Thou never wilt despise.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

PASSION CHORALE (151, A)

No. 215

Thy blood, so dear and precious,
Love made Thee shed for me;
O may I now, dear Jesus,
Love Thee most fervently:
May the divine impression
Of Thy atoning death,
And all Thy bitter passion,
Ne'er leave me while I've breath.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

LINDSEY HOUSE (590, A)

No. 240

Thy sufferings, Lord, each sacred sign,
To our remembrance brings;
We feed upon Thy love divine,
Forget all earthly things;
O tune our voices, and inflame
Our hearts with love to Thee;
That each may gratefully proclaim,
The Saviour died for me.

Communion Hymns

SYCHAR (16, E)

No. 131

Friend of sinners! Lord of glory!
Lowly, Mighty! Brother, King!
Musing o'er Thy wondrous story,
Fain would I Thy praises sing!

Friend to help us, comfort, save us,
In Whom power and pity blend,
Praise we must the grace which gave us
Jesus Christ, the sinner's Friend.

O, to love and serve Thee better!
From all evil set us free;
Break, Lord, every sinful fetter,
Be each thought conformed to Thee.

EISENACH (90, A)

No. 446

Christ is our Master, Lord, and God,
The fullness of the Three in One;
His life, death, righteousness, and blood,
Our faith's foundation are alone,
His Godhead and His death shall be
Our theme to all eternity.

On Him we'll venture all we have,
Our lives, our all to Him we owe;
None else is able us to save,
No other Saviour will we know;
This we subscribe with heart and hand,
Resolved through grace thereby to stand.

CONFESSION (39, A)

No. 678

Is this our high calling, harmonious to dwell,
And thus in sweet concert Christ's praises to tell,
In peace and blest union our moments to spend,
And live in communion with Christ as our Friend?

Oh yes, having found in the Lord our delight,
He is our chief object by day and by night;
This knits us together, no longer we roam,
We all have one Father, and heaven is our home.

LANGRAN (32, F)

No. 256

O Holy Ghost, on this great day inspire
Our souls, we pray, with pentecostal fire:
Breathe Thou upon us with Thy heavenly wind,
That it refresh and purify our mind.

Kindle within us and preserve that fire,
Which will with holy love our breast inspire,
And with an active zeal our soul inflame,
To do Thy will and glorify Thy Name.

Communion Hymns

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All standing, the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A)

No. 89

We who here together are assembled,
Joining hearts and hands in one,
Bind ourselves, with love that's undissembled,
Christ to love and serve alone:
Oh, may our imperfect songs and praises
Be well-pleasing unto Thee, Lord Jesus:
Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

IX. FOR THE THIRTEENTH OF NOVEMBER

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!

¶ All standing, unite in singing:

COVENANT (185, A)

No. 89

Jesus, great High Priest of our profession,
We in confidence draw near;
Condescend, in mercy, the confession
Of our grateful hearts to hear:
Thee we gladly own in every nation,
Head and Master of Thy congregation,
Conscious that in every place
Thou dispensest life and grace.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

¶ The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

Communion Hymns

PILGRIMAGE (166, A)

No. 802

Welcome among Thy flock of grace
With joyful acclamation,
Thou, Whom our Shepherd we confess,
Come, feed Thy congregation:
We own the doctrine of Thy Cross
To be our sole foundation;
Accept from every one of us
The deepest adoration.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

ROCKINGHAM, OLD (22, G)

No. 225

When I survey the wondrous Cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
Forbid it, Lord! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God,
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

DUNDEE (14, P)

No. 83

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim-flock,
With manna in the wilderness,
With water from the rock.
Hungry and thirsty, faint and weak,
As Thou when here below,
Our souls the joys celestial seek,
That from Thy sorrows flow.
Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart;
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.

SERVICE (56, A)

No. 313

They who hunger after Christ are fed,
All the thirsty to life's fountain led;
He the needy doth supply
With good things abundantly;
From His fullness they are nourished.

Communion Hymns

GOUDIMEL (205, A)

No. 681

Lord, Thy body ne'er forsake,
Ne'er Thy congregation leave;
We to Thee our refuge take,
Of Thy fullness we receive:
Every other help be gone,
Thou art our support alone;
For on Thy supreme commands
All the universe depends.

DUKE STREET (22, Q)

No. 272

Our only stay is Jesus' grace,
In every time and every place;
And Jesus' blood-bought righteousness
Remains His Church's glorious dress.

All self-dependence is but vain,
Christ doth our Corner-stone remain,
Our Rock which will unshaken stay
When heaven and earth are fled away.

He is and shall remain our Lord,
Our confidence is in His word;
And, while our Jesus reigns above,
His Church will more than conqueror prove.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

¶ All standing, unite in singing:

GRACEHAM (581, K)

No. 434

Rock of ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in Thee;
Let the water and the blood
From Thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure;
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Nothing in my hand I bring;
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress,
Helpless, look to Thee for grace,
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

Communion Hymns

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

PILGRIMAGE (166, A)

No. 58

Ye followers of the slaughtered Lamb,
Draw near, and take the cup of God;
Approach unto the healing stream,
And drink of the atoning blood;
That blood for our redemption spilt,
Assuring us of purchased grace;
That blood which takes away all guilt,
And speaketh to the conscience peace.

ST. MARK (151, G)

No. 683

The ground of my profession
Is Jesus and His blood;
He gives me the possession
Of everlasting good;
Myself and whatsoever
Is mine, I can not trust;
The gifts of Christ my Saviour
Remain my only boast.

HAYN (82, D)

No. 486

Jesus makes my heart rejoice,
I'm His sheep, and know His voice;
He's a Shepherd kind and gracious,
And His pastures are delicious;
Constant love to me He shows,
Yea, my very name He knows.

Trusting His mild staff always,
I go in and out in peace;
He will feed me with the treasure
Of His grace in richest measure;
When athirst to Him I cry,
Living water He'll supply.

CONFESSION (39, A)

No. 312

Though dark be my way, yet since He is my Guide,
'Tis mine to obey, and 'tis His to provide;
Though cisterns be broken, and creatures all fail,
The word He hath spoken will surely prevail.

How bitter the cup none can ever conceive,
Which Jesus drank up that poor sinners might live;
His way was much rougher and darker than mine:
Did Jesus thus suffer, and shall I repine?

Communion Hymns

INNSBRUCK (79, A)

No. 411

O Fount of grace redeeming,
O River ever streaming
From Jesus' wounded side:
Come Thou, Thyself bestowing
On thirsty souls, and flowing
Till all their wants are satisfied.

Jesus, this feast receiving,
Thy word of truth believing,
We Thee unseen adore:
Grant when our race is ended,
That we, to heaven ascended,
May see Thy glory evermore.

AGNUS CHRISTI (115, B)

No. 499

How great the bliss to be a sheep of Jesus,
And to be guided by His shepherd-staff;
Earth's greatest honors, howsoe'er they please us,
Compared to this, are vain and empty chaff:
Yea, what this world can never give,
May, through the Shepherd's grace, each needy sheep receive.

Whoe'er would spend his days in lasting pleasure,
Must come to Christ, and join His flock with speed;
Here is a feast prepared, rich beyond measure;
The world meanwhile on empty husks must feed:
Those souls may share in every good,
Whose Shepherd doth possess the treasures of God.

¶ In case of the individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the • Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it,
in remembrance of Me.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God, Which takest away the sin of the world,
Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

The holy, spotless Lamb of God,
Who freely gave His life and blood,
For all my numerous sins to atone,
I for my Lord and Saviour own.

Communion Hymns

O King of glory, Christ the Lord,
God's only Son, Eternal Word,
Let all the world Thy mercy see,
And bless those who believe in Thee.

¶ Here the minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,
Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

Thy incarnation, wounds, and death
I will confess while I have breath,
Till I shall see Thee face to face,
Arrayéd with thy righteousness.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

X. FOR GENERAL OCCASIONS

SALUTATION

Grace, mercy and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all. Amen!

¶ All, standing, unite in singing:

WEBB (151, T)

No. 354

O Love, all love excelling,
From heaven to earth come down,
Come, fix in us Thy dwelling,
Of all Thy gifts the crown:
Lord, Thou art all compassion,
Unbounded love Thou art;
Oh grant us Thy salvation,
Speak peace to every heart.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

PRAYER

The communicants, all standing, shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

COVENANT (185, A, Part 4)

No. 89

Say, "My peace I leave with you:"
Amen, Amen, be it so.

TOPLADY (581, L)

No. 434

Hither each afflicted soul
May repair, though filled with grief;
To the sick, not to the whole,
The Physician brings relief:
Fear not, therefore, but draw nigh,
Christ will all your wants supply.

Communion Hymns

He who Jesus' mercy knows,
Is from wrath and envy freed;
Love unto our neighbor shows
That we are His flock indeed;
Thus we may in all our ways
Show forth our Redeemer's praise.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the bread, saying:

Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and, when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said: Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.

BOYLSTON (582, N)

No. 74

Jesus, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in Thine own appointed way
We come to meet Thee, Lord!

Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,
The joy unspeakable.

Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us Thy banner spread
Of everlasting love.

OLIVET

No. 429

My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
Oh, let me, from this day,
Be wholly Thine.

May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As Thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to Thee
Pure, warm and changeless be,
A living fire.

BEDFORD (14, C)

No. 132

Hungry and thirsty, faint and weak,
As Thou when here below,
Our souls the joys celestial seek,
That from Thy sorrows flow.

Communion Hymns

We would not live by bread alone,
But by that Word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding-place.

HOLY LORD (119, A)

No. 3

Bread of life,
Christ, by Whom alone we live;
Bread that came to us from heaven,
My poor soul can never thrive
Unless Thou appease its craving:
Lord, I hunger only after Thee,
Feed Thou me.

RHAW (22, A)

No. 445

The enjoyment of the flesh and blood
Of Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God,
Endows our souls with strength and grace
To love and serve Him all our days.

BATTY (16, A)

No. 263

Jesus, by the Holy Spirit
May we all instructed be;
Sanctify us by the merit
Of Thy blest humanity.

Grant that we may love Thee truly;
Lord, our thoughts and actions sway,
And to every heart more fully
Thy atoning power display.

Lead us so that we may honor
Thee, the Lord our Righteousness,
And bring fruit to Thee, the Donor
Of all gospel-truth and grace.

¶ When the bread has been distributed, the communicants shall rise and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you.

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

By Thy divine presence, by Thy holy sacraments, by all the merits of Thy life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God, Amen.

Communion Hymns

¶ All standing, unite in singing:

MARTYN (205, K)

No. 523

Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within:
Thou of life the Fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

¶ Then the Minister shall consecrate the wine, saying:

After the same manner also our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to His disciples, saying: Drink ye all of it; this is My blood, the blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

SPANISH HYMN (581, M)

No. 452

Once again beside the Cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away,
Clouds they are that hide my day;
Hence, vain shadows! let me see
Jesus crucified for me.

Blessed Saviour! Thine am I,
Thine to live, and Thine to die;
Height, or depth, or creature power,
Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more;
Ever shall my glory be,
Only, only, only Thee.

WOODWORTH

No. 433

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God! I come—I come!

Just as I am; Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God! I come—I come!

STEPHANOS (269, C)

No. 716

I am trusting Thee, Lord Jesus,
Trusting only Thee!
Trusting Thee for full salvation,
Great and free.

Communion Hymns

I am trusting Thee for pardon,
At Thy feet I bow:
For Thy grace and tender mercy,
Trusting now.

I am trusting Thee for cleansing
In the crimson flood;
Trusting Thee to make me holy
By Thy blood.

LEOMINSTER (595, B)

No. 101

My Shepherd is the Lamb,
The living Lord, Who died;
With all that's truly good I am
Most plenteously supplied.
He richly feeds my soul
With manna from above,
And leads me where the rivers roll
Of everlasting love.

When faith and hope shall cease,
And love prevail alone,
I then shall see Him face to face
And know as I am known.
Then I my Shepherd's care
Shall praise, and Him adore,
And in His Father's house shall share
True bliss for evermore.

ST. BEES (11, U)

No. 95

That dear blood, for sinners spilt,
Shows my sin in all its guilt;
Ah, my soul, He bore thy load;
Thou hast slain the Lamb of God.

Hark, His dying word: "Forgive;
Father, let the sinner live;
Sinner, wipe thy tears away,
I thy ransom freely pay."

He has dearly bought my soul:
Lord, accept and claim the whole;
To Thy will I all resign,
Now no more my own, but Thine.

¶ In the case of individual service, when the cups have been distributed, the communicants shall rise, and the Minister shall say:

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, Drink ye all of it. This do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.

Communion Hymns

¶ Here all shall kneel.

SILENT PRAYER

¶ Then the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

O Thou Lamb of God Which takest away the sin of the world,

Give unto us Thy peace, Amen.

All standing, the Minister shall say, and the communicants respond:

As often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death,

Until He come.

¶ The communicants shall give the right hand of fellowship while the following lines are sung:

WORSHIP (159, A)

No. 532

We now return each to his tent,
Joyful and glad of heart,
And from our solemn covenant
Through grace will ne'er depart:
Once more we pledge both heart and hand,
As in God's presence here we stand,
To live to Him, and Him alone,
Till we surround His throne.

BENEDICTION

In the Name of Jesus, Amen.

Lord God, Thy praise we sing,
To Thee our thanks we bring:

II

Both heaven and earth do worship Thee,
Thou Father of eternity;
To Thee all angels loudly cry,
The heavens and all the powers on high:

Cherubs and seraphs Thee proclaim,
And cry thrice holy to Thy Name:

III

Holy is our Lord God,
Holy is our Lord God,
Holy is our Lord God,
The Lord of Sabaoth.

Occasional Chants

IV

With splendor of Thy glory spread,
Are heaven and earth replenished:
The apostles' glorious company,
The prophets' fellowship praise Thee:
The noble and victorious host
Of martyrs makes of Thee their boast:
The holy Church in every place
Throughout the earth, exalts Thy praise.

Thee, Father, God on heaven's throne,
Thy only and beloved Son,
The Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
The Church doth worship and revere.

O Christ, Thou glorious King, we own
Thee to be God's eternal Son:
Thou, undertaking in our room,
Did'st not abhor the Virgin's womb:
The pains of death o'ercome by Thee,
Made heaven to all believers free:
At God's right hand Thou hast Thy seat,
And in thy Father's glory great:
And we believe the day's decreed,
When Thou shalt judge the quick and dead.

Promote, we pray, Thy servants' good,
Redeemed with Thy most precious blood;
Among Thy saints make us ascend
To glory that shall never end:
Thy people with salvation crown,
Bless those, O Lord, that are Thine own:
Govern Thy Church, and, Lord, advance
For ever Thine inheritance.

From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor Thee:
Thy Name we worship and adore
World without end for evermore:
Vouchsafe, O Lord, we humbly pray,
To keep us safe from sin this day:
O Lord have mercy on us all;
Have mercy on us when we call:
Thy mercy, Lord, to us dispense,
According to our confidence:

V

Lord, we have put our trust in Thee,
Confounded let us never be: Amen.

The Holy Scriptures

1 HUS L. M. (22 F.)

? John Hus, 1369-1415

Hussite Hymn, sung before the sermon.

1. The Word of God which ne'er shall cease, Proclaims free par-don, grace and peace,

Sal-va-tion shows in Christ a-lone, The per-fect will of God makes known. A-men.

- 2 This holy Word exposes sin,
Convinces us that we're unclean,
Points out the wretched, ruined state
Of all mankind, both small and great.
- 3 It then reveals God's boundless grace,
Which justifies our sinful race,
And gives eternal life to all
Who will accept the gospel call.
- 4 It gently heals the broken heart,
And heavenly riches doth impart,
Unfolds redemption's wondrous plan,
Through Christ's atoning death for man.
- 5 O God, in Whom our trust we place,
We thank Thee for Thy Word of grace;
Help us its precepts to obey,
Till we shall live in endless day.

2 BEATITUDO C. M.

The Rev. John B. Dykes, 1823-1876 (1875)

1. Fa - ther of mer - cies! in Thy Word What end - less glo - ry shines!

For ev - er be Thy Name a-dored, For these ce - les - tial lines. A-men.

2 Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light.

3 O, may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight;

4 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord!
Be Thou for ever near;
Teach me to love Thy sacred Word,
And view my Saviour there.

Anne Steele, 1716-78 (1760)

BELMONT C. M.

1. How pre-cious is the Book di-vine, By in-spir-a-tion given!

Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine, To guide our souls to heav'n. A - men.

3 HOLY LORD 3.7.8.7.8.9.3. Trochaic (119, A)

Joh. Eusebius Schmidt

1. Ho - ly Lord, ho - ly Lord, Thanks and praise be ever Thine, That Thy Word to us is giv - en, Teaching us with power divine, That the Lord of earth and heaven,

Ev - er - last - ing life for us to gain, Once was slain: Once was slain. A-men.

2 Lord, our God,
May Thy precious saving Word,
Till our race is here completed,
Light unto our path afford;
Then, among Thy saints ascended,
We for Thy redeeming love shall raise
Ceaseless praise.

By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven. 2 Its light, descending from above,
Our gloomy world to cheer,
Displays a Saviour's boundless love,
And brings His glories near. | 3 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light and joy, it still imparts,

Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day. |

5 HOLY CROSS C. M. Arr. by Samuel Smith from Thomas Hastings, 1821-1917 (1731)

1. Je - sus, Thy Word is my de-light; There grace and truth are seen;

Ah, could I stud - y day and night, And med - i - tate there-in. A-men.

- 2 The Gospel, as a polished glass,
Thy glory lets us see;
And, by beholding there Thy face, We're rendered like to Thee.
- 3 O Lamb of God, the Book unseal,
And to our hearts explain;
- Let all its life and spirit feel,
And heavenly wisdom gain.
- 4 That Thou for us didst live and die,
Make known to us, dear Lord;
To us the promises apply,
Recorded in Thy Word.

William Hammond, 1719-1783

6 NOX PRÆCESSIT C. M. J. Baptiste Calkin, 1827-1905 (1875)

1. Thy law is per - fect, Lord of light, Thy test - i - mon - ies sure;

The stat - utes of Thy realm are right, And Thy com - mand - ments pure. A - men.

- 2 Holy, inviolate Thy fear,
Enduring as Thy throne;
Thy judgments, chastening or severe,
Justice and truth alone.
- 3 More prized than gold, than gold whose Refining fire expels; [waste
Sweeter than honey to my taste,
Than honey from the cells.
- 4 Let these, O God, my soul convert,
And make Thy servant wise;
- Let these be gladness to my heart,
The day-spring to my eyes.
- 5 By these may I be warned betimes;
Who knows the guile within?
Lord, save me from presumptuous crimes,
Cleanse me from secret sin.
- 6 So may the words my lips express,
The thoughts that throng my mind,
O Lord, my Strength and Righteousness,
With Thee acceptance find.

Slow

O Word of God In - car - nate, O Wis - dom from on high,
O Truth un - changed, un - chang - ing, O Light of our dark sky;
We praise Thee for the ra - diance That from the hal - lowed page,
A lan - tern to our foot - steps, Shines on from age to age. A - men.

2 The Church from her dear Master
Received the gift divine,
And still that Light she lifteth
O'er all the earth to shine.
It is the golden casket,
Where gems of truth are stored;
It is the heaven-drawn picture
Of Christ, the living Word.

3 It floateth like a banner
Before God's host unfurled.
It shineth like a beacon
Above the darkling world.

It is the chart and compass
That o'er life's surging sea,
'Mid mists and rocks and quick-
sands,
Still guides, O Christ, to Thee.

4 O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light, as of old.
O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.

NICÆA 11.12.12.10. (144, C)

The Rev. John B. Dykes, 1823-1876 (1861)

1. Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord God Al-might - y! Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to Thee; Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly!

Mer - ci - ful and Might-y! God in Three Per-sons, bless-ed Trin-i - ty! A-men.

2 Holy, Holy, Holy! All the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.

3 Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee
Perfect in power, in love, and purity.

4 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy Name, in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

10 ITALIAN HYMN 6.6.4.6.6.6.4. (579, B) Felice de Giardini, 1716-1796 (1769)

1. Come, Thou Almighty King, Help us Thy Name to sing, Help us to praise: Fa-ther, all-glo - ri-ous, O'er all vic-to-ri-ous, Come, and reign over us, Ancient of days. A - men.

2 Come, Thou Incarnate Word!
Gird on Thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend:
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy word success;
Spirit of holiness!
On us descend.

Thou, Who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

4 To the great One in Three
The highest praises be,
Hence, evermore!
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

3 Come, Holy Comforter!
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour:

2 Holy, holy, holy! Thee,
One Jehovah evermore,
Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
Dust and ashes, would adore:
Lightly by the world esteemed,
From that world by Thee redeemed,
Sing we here with glad accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy! all [sing,
Heaven's triumphant choir shall
While the ransomed nations fall
At the footstool of their King:
Then shall saints and seraphim,
Harps and voices, swell one hymn,
Blending in sublime accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

James Montgomery, 1771-1854

12 HANFORD 8.8.8.4. (3, E)

1 God of my life! Thy boundless grace
Chose, pardoned and adopted me;
My Rest, my Home, my Dwelling-place;
I come to Thee.

2 Jesus, my Hope, my Rock, my Shield!
Whose precious blood was shed
for me,
Into Thy hands my soul I yield;
I come to Thee.

3 Spirit of glory and of God!
Long hast Thou deigned my Guide to be;
Now be Thy comfort sweet bestowed;
I come to Thee.

4 I come to join that countless host,
Who praise Thy Name unceas-ingly;
Blest Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!
I come to Thee.

Let there be light.

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, Holy Dove,
Speed forth Thy flight!
Move o'er the water's face,
By Thine almighty grace;
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light!

4 Blesséd and holy Three,
Glorious Trinity,—
Wisdom, love, might,—
Boundless as ocean's tide,
Rolling in fullest pride;
O'er the world, far and wide,
Let there be light!

14 EMMANUEL C.M. (14, Bb)

Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827 (1827)

1. Our heaven-ly Fa-ther, source of love, To Thee our hearts we raise:
Thy all-sus-tain-ing power we prove, And glad-ly sing Thy praise. A-men.

2 Lord Jesus, Thine we wish to be,
Our sacrifice receive:
Made and preserved, and saved by Thee,
To Thee ourselves we give.

So shall we ever live and move,
And be with Christ in God.

3 Come, Holy Ghost, the Saviour's love
Shed in our hearts abroad:

4 Honor to the Almighty Three,
And Everlasting One;
All glory to the Father be,
The Spirit, and the Son.

15 GROSTETE L.M.

Henry W. Greatorex, 1811-1858 (1849)

1. Fa-ther of all! Whose love pro-found A ran-som for our souls hath found,
Be-fore Thy throne we sinners bend; To us Thy pardoning love ex-tend. A-men.

2 Almighty Son—Incarnate Word—
Our Prophet, Priest, Redeemer, Lord!
Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy saving grace extend.

Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
To us Thy quickening power extend.

3 Eternal Spirit! by Whose breath
The soul is raised from sin and death,

4 Jehovah!—Father, Spirit, Son!—
Mysterious Godhead—Three in One!
Before Thy throne we sinners bend;
Grace, pardon, life to us extend.

19 LEONI 6.6.8.4. D. (345, A)

Arr. from a Hebrew Melody

1. The God of Abraham praise, Who reigns enthroned above; An-cient of ev - er - last-ing days, And God of love: Je-ho-vah! Great I AM! By earth and heaven confessed; I bow and bless the sa - cred Name, For ev - er blest. A-men.

2 The God of Abraham praise,
At Whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At His right hand:
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power;
And Him my only Portion make,
My Shield and Tower.

3 He by Himself hath sworn,
I on His oath depend;
I shall, on eagle's wings upborne,
To heaven ascend;
I shall behold His face,
I shall His power adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
For evermore.

4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness;
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of peace,

On Zion's sacred height,
His Kingdom still maintains,
And glorious, with His saints in
For ever reigns. [light,

5 The God Who reigns on high,
The great archangels sing:
And "Holy, holy, holy," cry,
"Almighty King!
Who was, and is the same,
And evermore shall be;
Jehovah, Father, great I AM,
We worship Thee."

6 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy They ever cry: [Ghost,"
Hail, Abraham's God and mine,
I join the heavenly lays,
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise.

- 2 O tell of His might, O sing of His grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space.
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is His path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, Thy power hath founded of old;
Hath stablished it fast by a changeless decree,
And round it hath cast, like a mantle, the sea.
- 4 Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air; it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills; it descends to the plain;
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
- 5 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!
- 6 O measureless Might! Ineffable Love!
While angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lisp to Thy praise.

O'er every sea, and every land.

The Rev. Timothy Dwight, 1752-1817

27 TENEBRAE (REDHEAD No. 47)

- 1 Day by day the manna fell;
Oh, to learn this lesson well!
Still by constant mercy fed,
Give me, Lord, my daily bread.
- 2 "Day by day" the promise reads,
Daily strength for daily needs,
Cast foreboding fears away;
Take the manna of to-day.
- 3 Lord, my times are in Thy hand;
All my brightest hopes have planned
To Thy wisdom I resign,
And would make Thy purpose mine.
- 4 Thou my daily task shalt give,
Day by day to Thee I live;
So shall added years fulfill,
Not my own—my Father's will.

28 THANKSGIVING (HAMBURG) 8.7.8.7.8.7.7.8.7.7. Trochaic (214, A)

Johann Schop, 1641

1. { I will sing to my Cre-a-tor, Un-to God I'll render praise, }
 { Who by ev-ery-thing in na-ture Mag-ni-fies His tender grace; } Naught but loving con-de-sen-sion Still in-clines His faith-ful heart To sup-port and take their part,
 Who pursue His blest intention. All things to their period tend, But His mercy has no end. Amen.

2 His good Spirit's blest direction
 He vouchsafes me in His word,
 And His wings their kind protection
 In my pilgrimage afford; [ing,
 When my natural strength is shrink-
 In the time of utmost need,
 He, my God, draws nigh with speed,
 And recovers me from sinking.
 All things to their period tend,
 But His mercy has no end.

3 As a bird is wont to gather
 Her young brood beneath her wings,
 So has He, my Heavenly Father,
 Kept me safe from hurtful things;
 Had my God withdrawn His favor,
 Had not His protecting grace
 Saved me in each trying case,
 I should have been helped never.
 All things to their period tend,
 But His mercy has no end.

4 This I know with full conviction,
 As a maxim ever sure,
 Christian crosses and affliction
 Do but for a time endure;
 After Winter's frost and snowing
 Smiling Summer then appears;
 After sadness, pains and fears,
 Joyful comforts will be flowing.
 All things to their period tend,
 But His mercy has no end.

5 Since nor end, nor bounds, nor measure
 In God's mercies can be found,
 Heart and hands I lift with pleasure,
 As a child in duty bound;
 Humbly still, this grace imploring,
 Thee to love with all my might;
 Thee to serve both day and night,
 Till to higher regions soaring,
 Fuller bliss I taste above,
 Endless praise, and perfect love.

1. O God, our Help in a - ges past, Our Hope for years to come,
Our Shel - ter from the storm - y blast, And our e - ter - nal Home: A - men.

2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

4 A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the
Before the rising sun. [night,

1. Give to the winds thy fears, Hope and be un-dis-mayed;

2 He everywhere hath way,
And all things serve His might,
His every act pure blessing is,
His path unsullied light;
When He makes bare His arm,
What shall His work withstand?
When He His people's cause defends,
Who, who shall stay His hand?

3 Leave to His sovereign sway
To choose and to command, [own
With wonder filled thou then shalt
How wise, how strong His hand;

Thou comprehend'st Him not,
Yet earth and heaven tell,
God sits as sovereign on the throne,
He ruleth all things well.

4 Thou seest our weakness, Lord,
Our hearts are known to Thee,
Oh lift Thou up the sinking hand;
Confirm the feeble knee;
Let us, in life and death,
Boldly Thy truth declare,
And publish with our latest breath
Thy love and guardian care.

2 All Thy works with joy surround
Thee,

Earth and heaven reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee,
Centre of unbroken praise.

Field and forest, vale and mountain,
Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain,
Call us to rejoice in Thee.

3 Thou art giving and forgiving,
Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of living,
Ocean-depth of happy rest!

Thou our Father, Christ our Brother,—

All who live in love are Thine;
Teach us how to love each other,
Lift us to the Joy Divine.

4 Mortals, join the mighty chorus
Which the morning stars began;
Father-love is reigning o'er us,
Brother-love binds man to man.
Ever singing, march we onward,
Victors in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us Sunward
In the triumph-song of life.

Where wild Ju-de-a stretch-es far Her sil-ver-man-tled plains.

Ce-les-tial choirs, from courts a-bove, Shed sa-cred glo-ries there,

And ang-els, with their spark-ling lyres, Make mu-sic on the air. A-men.

Her silent groves of palm.

3 "Glory to God!" the lofty strain
The realms of ether fills;
How sweeps the song of solemn joy
O'er Judah's sacred hills!
"Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring:

1. Im-man-u-el, to Thee we sing, Thou Prince of life, al-might-y King;

That Thou, ex-pect-ed a-ges past, Didst come to vis-it us at last. A-men.

- 2 For Thee, since first the world was made, [and prayed;
Men's hearts have waited, watched
Prophets and patriarchs, year by year,
Have longed to see Thy light appear.
- 3 All glory, worship, thanks and praise,
That Thou art come in these our days!
Thou heavenly Guest, expected long,
We hail Thee with a joyful song.

1. Lord Je-sus Christ, all praise to Thee, That Thou wast pleased a man to be;

Our low-es-tate Thou didst not scorn; And an-gels sang to see Thee born. A-men.

- 2 The heavenly Father's only Son,
He left His rightful glorious throne;
The Lord through Whom the worlds were made
Is in the humble manger laid.
- 3 The brightness of the Light divine
Doth now into our darkness shine;
It breaks upon sin's gloomy night
And makes us children of the light.
- 4 The Father's Son for ever blest
Becomes in His own world a Guest,
To lead us from this vale of strife
Into the everlasting life.
- 5 For us these wonders has He wrought
In love beyond our human thought:
Let Christians all now join to sing
Praise to our newborn Saviour King.

WARNER 7.6.7.6. D., with Refrain (151, W)

M. M. Warner, 1836-1900

1. Softly the night is sleeping On Bethlehem's peaceful hill; Silent the shepherds watching,
The gen-tle flocks are still. But hark! the wondrous mu-sic Falls from the op'ning sky;
Val-ley and cliff re-ech - o "Glo-ry to God on high!" Glo-ry to God! Glory to God!
Glo-ry to God! it rings a-gain; Peace on the earth! good-will to men! A - men.

2 Day in the East is breaking;
Day o'er the crimsoned earth;
Now the glad world is waking,
Glad in the Saviour's birth!
See where the clear star bendeth
Over the manger blest;
See where the infant Jesus
Smiles upon Mary's breast!

Ref.—Glory to God!—we hear again;
Peace on the earth! good-will to men!

3 Come with the gladsome shepherds,
Quick hastening from the fold;
Come with the wise men, pouring
Incense and myrrh and gold.
Come to Him, poor and lowly,
Around the cradle throng;

Come with your hearts of sunshine,
And sing the angels' song.

Ref.—Glory to God!—tell out again;
Peace on the earth! good-will to men!

4 Weave ye the wreaths unfading,
The fir tree and the pine;
Green from the snows of winter,
To deck the holy shrine;
Bring ye the happy children!
For this is Christmas morn;
Jesus, the Sinless Infant,
Jesus, the Lord, is born.

Ref.—Glory to God!—to God again!
Peace on the earth! good-will to men!

1. What off-'ring shall I bring to Thee, Im-man-u-el, my King and God?

Who did'st vouch-safe a man to be, To save me by Thy pre-cious blood;

Thou, at Whose birth the ang - els sing, "Peace up - on earth, good-will to men,"

To Whom the sa-ges humb-ly bring Their gifts, though Thou appear so mean. A-men.

2 This will I do, thou Child Divine,
I'll give Thee that for which Thou cam'st;
My soul and body, Lord, are Thine,
And them in love to me Thou claim'st:
My humble sacrifice receive,
Dear Jesus, born to bleed for me,
That I by faith in Thee might live,
And with Thee live eternally.

1 Jesus! exalted far on high,
To Whom a Name is given—
A Name surpassing every name
That's known in earth and heaven!

3 Jesus, Who in the form of God,
Didst equal honor claim,
Yet, to redeem our guilty souls,
Didst stoop to death and shame!

2 Before Thy throne shall every knee
Bow down with one accord;
Before Thy throne shall every tongue
Confess that Thou art Lord.

4 O may that mind in us be formed
Which shone so bright in Thee,
An humble, meek, and lowly

1. O Mas - ter, it is good to be High on the mount-ain here with Thee;

Where stand re-vealed to mort - al gaze Those glo-rious saints of oth - er days;

Who once re-ceived on Hor - eb's height Th'e - ter - nal laws of truth and right;

Or caught the still small whisper, higher Than storm, than earth-quake, or than fire. Amen

2 O Master, it is good to be
With Thee, and with Thy faithful
Three; [rock
Here, where the Apostle's heart of
Isnerved against temptation's shock;
Here where the Son of Thunder learns
The thought that breathes, and word that burns; [move
Here where on eagle's wings we
With him whose last, best creed is love.

3 O Master, it is good to be Entranced, enwrapt, alone with
Thee;
And watch Thy glistening raiment glow,

Whiter than Hermon's whites
snow,
The human lineaments that shine
Irradiant with a light divine;
Till we too change from grace to grace
Gazing on that transfigured face.

4 O Master, it is good to be
Here on the Holy Mount with Thee
When darkling in the depths of night,
When dazzled with excess of light
We bow before the Heavenly Voice
That bids bewildered souls rejoice
Though love wax cold and faith be dim,

"This is My Son, O hear ye Him.

Our wants and weaknesses He knows, From life's first dawning till its close. A-men.

Appears each grace divine!
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.
2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was His divine employ.
3 'Mid keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek He stood;

His foes, ungrateful, sought His life!
He labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before His Father's throne,
With soul resigned, He bowed and said,

And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
As free and true as Thine.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;

We touch Him in life's throng and
And we are whole again. [press,

6 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His Name.

7 O Lord and Master of us all!
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine.

8 We faintly hear, we dimly see,
In differing phrase we pray;
But, dim or clear, we own in Thee
The Light, the Truth, the Way!

1 In duties and in sufferings too,
My Lord I fain would trace;
As Thou hast done, so would I do,
Depending on Thy grace.

2 Inflamed with zeal, 'twas Thy de-
light,
To do Thy Father's will;
May the same zeal my soul excite,
Thy precepts to fulfill.

3 Meekness, humility, and love,
Through all Thy conduct shine;
Oh, may my whole deportment prove
A copy, Lord, of Thine.

4 Supported by almighty grace,
We'll tread the heavenly road;
And carefully Thy footsteps trace,
Which lead to Thine abode.

The Rev. Timothy R. Matthews, 1826-1910 (1875)

1. Thou didst leave Thy throne And Thy kingly crown When Thou camest to earth for me,

But in Bethlehem's home Was there found no room For Thy ho - ly na - tiv - i - ty;

O come to my heart, Lord Je-sus, There is room in my heart for Thee. A-men.

NOTE.—The ties and slurs are to be used as the syllables require

2 Heaven's arches rang
When the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal decree;
But of lowly birth
Didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility;
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

3 The foxes found rest,
And the birds their nest,
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod,
O Thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee;
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord,
With the living word
That should set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn,
And with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary;
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
Thy Cross is my only plea.

5 When heaven's arches shall ring,
And her choirs shall sing,
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home,
Saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me.

Bring forth the roy - al di - a - dem, And crown Him Lord of all. A-men.

2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of your God
Who from His altar call;
Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail Him Who saves you by His
grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,

Go, spread your trophies at His

And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6 O that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,

William Pitts, 1829-1903 (1871)

1. At the Name of Je - sus Ev - ery knee shall bow,
Ev - ery tongue con - fess Him, King of glo - ry now;
'Tis the Fa - ther's pleas - ure We should call Him Lord,
Who from the be - gin - ning Was the might - y Word. A - men.

2 In your hearts enthrone Him;
There let Him subdue
All that is not holy,
All that is not true;
Crown Him as your Captain
In temptation's hour;
Let His will enfold you
In its light and power.

3 Name Him, brothers, name Him,
With love strong as death,
But with awe and wonder,
And with bated breath;

He is God and Saviour,
He is Christ the Lord,
Ever to be worshipped,
Trusted, and adored.

4 Brothers, this Lord Jesus
Shall return again,
With His Father's glory,
With His angel train;
For all wreaths of empire
Meet upon His brow,
And our hearts confess Him
King of glory now. Amen.

Claude Goudimel, 1508-1572 (1562)

1. All the bliss which we pos-sess, Is de-rived from Je-sus' Cross;
He to God hath by His blood Rec-on-ciled and sav-ed us;
Now His right-eous-ness is found Our sal-va-tion's on-ly ground;
Hence all our fe-l-i-c-i-ty Springs, here and e-ter-nal-ly. A-men.

2 Amen, yea, hallelujah;
Lord, our comfort, joy and peace,
By Thy Cross Thou gain'dst for us
Everlasting happiness;

Since the effects we richly prove
Of this wondrous act of love,
With what gratitude should we
Raise our hearts and eyes to Thee

Bishop Christian Gregor, 1723-1801

112 GOUDIMEL (205, A)

1 Lamb of God, Thy precious blood,
Healing wounds and bitter death,
Be our trust, our only boast,
Blesséd object of our faith;
Thy once marréd countenance
Comfort to our hearts dispense;
By Thy anguish, stripes and pain,
May we life and strength obtain.

2 We adore Thee evermore,
Jesus, for Thy boundless grace;
For Thy Cross, whereby for us
Thou hast gained true happiness;
For Thy death, which sets us free
From sin's cruel slavery;
For Thy all-atoning blood,
Which hath brought us nigh to God.

| 1 Rise, exalt our Head and King;
 Praise the Lord Who ever lives;
 Glad we are His praise to sing;
 He His people's praise receives;
 On His powerful day they rise,
 Offering free-will sacrifice;
 His victorious triumph this,
 Since hell's host defeated is. | 2 Ye who Jesus' death proclaim,
 Service yield to Him with joy;
 Praise with every breath His Name,
 Grace to extol be your employ.

| 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
 Dry up your mournful tears,
 Join our glad theme;
 Beauty for ashes bring,
 Strike each melodious string,
 Join heart and voice to sing,
 "Worthy the Lamb!" | 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
 Filled with the Saviour's love,
 Dwell on His Name;
 There, too, may we be found,
 With light and glory crowned,
 While all the heavens resound,
 "Worthy the Lamb!" |

1. Come, let us sing the song of songs, With hearts and voices swell the strain,

The hom-age which to Christ be-longs; "Worth-y the Lamb, for He was slain!" A-men.

- 2 Slain to redeem us by His blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 4 To Him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 3 To Him Who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at His soul's price, to gain,
Blessing, and praise, and glory be;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"
- 5 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with Him we reign,
This song, our song of songs shall be;
"Worthy the Lamb, for He was slain!"

1. Fair - est Lord Je - sus, Rul - er of all na - ture, O Thou of God and man the Son! Thee will I cher - ish,
Thee will I hon - or, Thou, my soul's Glo - ry, Joy and Crown. A-men.

2 Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of Spring;
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
Who makes the woeful heart to sing.

3 Fair is the sunshine,
Fairer still the moonlight,
And fair the twinkling, starry host;
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels heaven can boast.

4 Fair are the flowers,
Fairer are earth's children
When viewed in youth's unclouded day;

Yet they must perish,
All will soon vanish,
Jesus alone abides for aye.

5 Earth's fairest beauty,
Heaven's brightest splendor
In Jesus Christ unfolded see:
All that here shineth,
Quickly declineth,
Before His spotless purity.

6 Source of all blessing,
He with us abideth,
Sorrow and sin He driveth hence;
Jesus, we pray Thee,
On us have mercy,

Ne'er veil Thy smiling countenance.

1 Hosanna! raise the pealing hymn
To David's Son and Lord;
With cherubim and seraphim
Exalt the Incarnate Word.

2 Hosanna! Lord, our feeble tongue
No lofty strains can raise;
But Thou wilt not despise the young,
Who meekly chant Thy praise.

3 Hosanna! Sovereign, Prophet, Priest,
How vast Thy gifts, how free!
Thy blood, our life! Thy word, our feast,
Thy Name, our only plea.

4 Hosanna! Master, lo! we bring
Our offerings to Thy throne;
Not gold, nor myrrh, nor mortal thing,
But hearts to be Thine own.

5 Hosanna! once Thy gracious ear
Approved a lisping throng;
Be gracious still, and deign to hear
Our poor but grateful song.

6 O Saviour, if, redeemed by Thee,
Thy temple we behold,
Hosannas through eternity
We'll sing to harps of gold.

May Jesus Christ be praised.

4 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

5 Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Be this the eternal song,
Through all the ages long,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

1. Ho - ly Ghost with light di - vine, Shine up - on this heart of mine;
Chase the shades of night a - way, Turn my dark - ness in - to day. A - men.

2 Holy Ghost! with power divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
Long hath sin without control,
Held dominion o'er my soul.

Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.

3 Holy Ghost! with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;

4 Holy Spirit! all divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine;
Cast down every idol-throne,
Reign supreme—and reign alone.

1. Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, Heaven-ly Dove! With all Thy quicken-ing powers, Kin - dle a flame of sa - cred love, In these cold hearts of ours. A - men.

- 2 Look, how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys!
Our souls can neither fly nor go,
To reach eternal joys.
- 4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live,
In this poor dying state?
Our love so faint, so cold to Thee,
And Thine to us so great?
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit, Heavenly Dove!
With all Thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

1. O Spir - it of grace, Thy kind - ness we trace, In show - ing to us,

That life and sal - va - tion pro - ceed from Christ's Cross. A - men.

- 2 In darkness we strayed
Until we were led
By Thee to believe
That Jesus, our Saviour, will sinners receive.
- 3 Grant us to obey
Thy teaching, we pray,
O Spirit of love,
And thankful to Thee for Thy mercies to prove.

1. Cre - a - tor Spir - it, by Whose aid The world's foun-da-tions first were laid,

Come, vis - it ev - ery wait - ing mind; Come, pour Thy joys on hu - man kind;

From sin and sor - row set us free, And make Thy temples wor-thy Thee. A - men.

2 O Source of uncreated Light,
The Father's promised Paraclete!
Thrice Holy Fount, thrice Holy Fire,
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire;
Come, and Thy sacred unction bring
To sanctify us while we sing.

3 Plenteous of grace, come from on high,
Rich in Thy sevenfold energy;
Make us eternal truth receive,
And practice all that we believe;
Give us Thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son by Thee.

4 Immortal honor, endless fame,
Attend the Almighty Father's Name;
The Saviour Son be glorified,
Who for lost man's redemption died;
And equal adoration be,
Eternal Paraclete, to Thee.

 "Peace on the earth, good will to men, From heaven's all-gra - cious King:"
 The world in sol - emn still - ness lay, To hear the an - gels sing. A - men.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,

With peaceful wings unfurled,
 And still their heavenly music
 O'er all the weary world; floats
 Above its sad and lowly plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel-sounds
 The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way
 With painful steps and slow,—

Look now! for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing:
 O rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
 By prophet bards foretold,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold;
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling,
 And the whole world send back the song
 Which now the angels sing.

- 3 "In David's city, shepherds, ye shall find
The long-foretold Redeemer of mankind;
Wrapt up in swaddling clothes, the Babe Divine

He spake, and straightway the celestial choir,
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire.
- 4 The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with Hallelujahs rang;
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.
To Bethlehem straight, the enlightened shepherds ran
To see the wonder God had wrought for man.
- 5 O may we hope, the angelic throngs among,

161 CHRISTMAS C. M. (14, Y)

Georg Friedrich Händel, 1685-1759 (1728)

1. While shep - herds watched their flocks by night, All seat - ed on the ground, The an - gel of the Lord came down,
And glo - ry shone a - round, And glo - ry shone a - round. A - men.

- 2 "Fear not," said he,—for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind,—
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring,
To you and all mankind.
- 3 "To you, in David's town this day,
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, Who is Christ the Lord,
And this shall be the sign:—
The Heavenly Babe you there shall
To human view displayed, [find
- 4 All meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."
- 5 Thus spake the seraph—and forth-
Appeared a shining throng [with
Of angels, praising God, who thus Addressed their joyful song:—
- 6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease!"

- What good news the angels bring!
What glad tidings of our King!
Christ the Lord is born to-day,
Christ, Who takes our sins away!
- 3 Lift your hearts and voices high,
With hosannas fill the sky;
Glory be to God above,
Who is infinite in love!
- He Who rules both heaven and earth
Hath in Bethlehem His birth;
Him shall all the faithful see,
And rejoice eternally.
- 4 Peace on earth, good-will to men!
Now with us our God is seen,
Angels join His Name to praise,
Help to sing redeeming grace.

2 Shepherds, in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by
night,
God with man is now residing,
Yonder shines the infant light;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord descending,
In His temple shall appear.
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen His natal star;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

5 Sinners, wrung with true repentance,
Doomed for guilt to endless pains;

Ere the worlds began, Draw Thou near, and lighten Eve-ry heart of man. A - men.

2 Thou Who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.

3 Gather in the outcasts,
All who've gone astray,
Throw Thy radiance o'er them,
Guide them on their way;
Those who never knew Thee,
Those who've wandered far,
Guide them by the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.

4 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star,

5 Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
Jesus, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home,
Where nor sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.

2 Such treasures to Thy manger-bed,
The ancient Magi brought,
When, by the star resplendent led,
Judea's king they sought.

3 But hearts of humble poverty
Are fairer in Thine eyes,
And penitence is more to Thee
Than costly sacrifice.

4 And wilt Thou, Master, from our hymn
Turn scornfully Thine ear?
Nay; 'mid the songs of seraphim
Our worship Thou wilt hear.

Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them
Traveler, ages are its own; [birth?
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wanderings
cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
Lo, the Son of God is come!

1 One view, Lord Jesus, of Thy passion

Will make the fainting spirit glad;

This yields us lasting consolation,
 When Thy dear blood, so freely shed,

Pervades and heals both soul and body;

When Thou dost give to us Thy peace;

Ah, then our arms of faith are ready
 Thy Cross, O Jesus, to embrace.

2 No drop of blood Thou deem'dst too precious,

To shed for sinners vile like me;
 O that Thy fire of love, dear Jesus,

Inflamed my heart with love to
 Thee;

May Thy atoning death and passion,
 Thy agony and bitter pain,
 Until my final consummation,
 Deep in my heart engraved remain.

3 O might I live in the enjoyment
 Of all my Lord for me hath gained;
 Might this be daily my employment,
 To muse on what His soul sustained:

O may His hands, whereon engraven
 My poor and worthless name
 doth stand,

Support me, till I in the haven
 Of endless joy shall safely land.

214 COVENANT 10.7.10.7.10.10.7.7. Trochaic (185, A)

German Popular Melody, c. 1740; improved by Gregor and others.

1. My Re-deem-er, o-ver-whelmed with an-guish, Went to Ol - i - vet for me;

There He kneels, His heart doth heave and languish In a bit - ter a - go - ny;

Fear and hor-ror seize His soul and senses, For the hour of dark-ness now com-mences;

Ah, how doth He weep and groan, For re - bel - lious man to a - tone. A-men.

2 Could we tune our hearts and voices higher
3 Lamb of God, Thou shalt remain forever

Than man's most exalted lays,
Yet, till joined to the celestial choir,
Cold would prove our warmest praise;

Jesus' love exceeds all comprehension,

But our love to Him we scarce dare mention;

We may weep beneath His Cross,
But He wept and bled for us.

Of our songs the only theme;
For Thy boundless love, Thy grace and favor,

We will praise Thy saving Name;
That for our transgressions Thou wast wounded,

Shall by us in nobler strains be sounded,

When we, perfected in love,
Once shall join the Church above.

2 Thou God of my salvation,
In Whom I trust by faith,
Who hast for my transgression
Lain in the dust of death;
I place upon Thy merit
While here, my confidence;
And will commend my spirit
To Thee, when I go hence.

3 Lord, grant me Thy salvation
And peace divine, I pray,
While under tribulation
On earth below I stay;
Till I shall stand before Thee,
And for redeeming grace,
With all the saints in glory,
My hallelujahs raise.

| 1 O Head so full of bruises,
 So full of pain and scorn,
 'Midst other sore abuses
 Mocked with a crown of thorn;
 O Head, ere now surrounded
 With brightest majesty,
 In death now bowed and wounded,
 Saluted be by me! | 2 I give Thee thanks unfeigned,

| 1 O Sacred Head, now wounded,
 With grief and shame weighed
 Now scornfully surrounded [down,
 With thorns, Thine only crown;
 O sacred Head, what glory,
 What bliss, till now was Thine!
 Yet though despised and gory,
 I joy to call Thee mine. | 3 What language shall I borrow
 To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
 For this Thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end?
 Oh, make me Thine forever;
 And should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never
 Outlive my love to Thee! |
| 2 What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
 Was all for sinners' gain;
 Mine, mine was the transgression,
 But Thine the deadly pain;
 Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
 'Tis I deserve Thy place;
 Look on me with Thy favor,
 Vouchsafe to me Thy grace. | 4 Be near me when I'm dying;
 Oh, show Thy Cross to me!
 And for my succor flying,
 Come, Lord, and set me free!
 These eyes, new faith receiving,
 From Jesus shall not move;
 For he who dies believing,
 Dies safely, through Thy love. |

1. "Welcome, happy morning!" Age to age shall say: Hell to-day is van-quished;

Heaven is won to - day. Lo! the Dead is liv - ing, God for ev - er - more!

REFRAIN

Him, their true Cre - a - tor, All His works a - dore. "Wel - come, hap - py morn - ing!"

Age to age shall say: Hell to-day is van-quished, Heaven is won to-day. A - men.

2 Maker and Redeemer,
Life and Health of all,
Thou, from heaven beholding
Human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead
True and only Son,
Manhood to deliver,
Manhood didst put on.—Ref.

3 Thou, of life the Author,
Death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness,
Saving strength to show;

Come, then, True and Faithful!
Now fulfill Thy word;
'Tis Thine own third morning;
Rise, my buried Lord!—Ref.

4 Loose the hearts long prisoned,
Bound with Satan's chain;
All that now is fallen
Raise to life again;
Show Thy face in brightness,
Bid the nations see;
Bring again our daylight;
Day returns with Thee.—Ref.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He, Who on the Cross did suffer,
He, Who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 He has raised our human nature,
On the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Him in glory stand.
Jesus reigns, adored by angels;
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord! in Thine ascension,
We by faith behold our own.

Sir George J. Elvey, 1816-1893 (1868)

1. Crown Him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;

Hark, how the heaven - ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own!

A - wake, my soul, and sing Of Him Who died for thee,

And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all e - tern - i - ty. A - men.

2 Crown Him the Virgin's Son,
The God Incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won
Which now His brow adorn;
Fruit of the mystic rose,
As of that rose the Stem;
The Root Whence mercy ever flows,
The Babe of Bethlehem.

3 Crown Him the Lord of love;
Behold His hands and side,
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified.
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning
At mysteries so bright. [eye

4 Crown Him the Lord of peace;
Whose power a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end,
And round His piercéd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

5 Crown Him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime.
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For Thou hast died for me;
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.

1. Look, ye saints! the sight is glo - rious; See the "Man of Sor-rows" now!
 From the fight re - turned vic - to - rious, Ev - ery knee to Him shall bow:
 Crown Him! crown Him! crown Him! crown Him! Crowns become the Victor's brow. A-men.

- 2 Crown the Saviour! angels, crown Him!
 Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
 In the seat of power enthrone Him,
 While the heavenly concave rings:
 Crown Him! crown Him!
 Crown the Saviour, "King of kings!"
- 3 Sinners in derision crowned Him,
 Mocking thus the Saviour's claim:
 Saints and angels crowd around Him,
 Own His title, praise His Name:
 Crown Him! crown Him!
 Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

- 4 Hark! those bursts of acclamation!
 Hark! those loud, triumphant chords!
 Jesus takes the highest station;
 Oh! what joy the sight affords!
 Crown Him! crown Him!
 "King of kings, and Lord of lords."

 Glorious, to His native skies!
 Christ, awhile to mortals given,
 Re-ascends His native heaven.
- 2 There the glorious triumph waits;
 Lift your heads, eternal gates!
 Wide unfold the radiant scene;
 Take the King of glory in!
- 3 Him though highest heaven receives,
 Still He loves the earth He leaves;
 Though returning to His throne,
 Still He calls mankind His own.
- 4 See, He lifts His hands above!
 See, He shows the prints of love!
 Hark, His gracious lips bestow
 Blessings on His Church below!

2 He is gone; towards their goal
World and Church must onward roll;
Far behind we leave the past,
Forward are our glances cast;
Still His words before us range
Through the ages as they change;
Wheresoe'er the truth shall lead,
He will give whate'er we need.

3 He is gone; but we once more
Shall behold Him as before,
In the heaven of heavens the same
As on earth He went and came.

In the many mansions there,
Place for us He will prepare;
In that world unseen, unknown,
He and we may yet be one.

4 He is gone; but, not in vain,
Wait until He comes again.
He is risen, He is not here,
Far above this earthly sphere;
Evermore in heart and mind
There our peace in Him we find;
To our own Eternal Friend,
Thitherward let us ascend.

4 He sits at God's right hand
Till all His foes submit,
And bow to His command,
And fall beneath His feet.
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice; again I say, rejoice.

! His Kingdom cannot fail,
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
Are unto Jesus given;
Lift up your heart, lift up your
voice;
Rejoice; again, ye saints, rejoice.

5 Rejoice in glorious hope;
Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
And take His servants up
To their eternal home.
We soon shall hear the archangel's
voice;
The trump of God shall sound,—
Rejoice.

Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

3 Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast;
We know no dawn but Thine;
Send forth Thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest!

5 Come, all the faithful bless;
Let all who Christ confess,
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;
Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy!

The sto - ry of the past Comes up be - fore her view;

How well it seems to suit her still, Old, and yet ev - er new. A - men.

2 'Tis the same story still
Of sin and weariness,
Of grace and love yet flowing down
To pardon and to bless.
No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smoother is the ancient path,
That leads to light and day.

3 Thus onward still we press
Through evil and through good,
Through pain and poverty and want,
Through peril and through blood.
Still faithful to our God,
And to our Captain true,
We follow where He leads the way,
The kingdom in our view.

1 O! where are kings and empires now,
Of old that went and came?
But, Lord! Thy Church is praying
yet,
A thousand years the same.

2 We mark her goodly battlements
And her foundations strong;
We hear within the solemn voice
Of her unending song.

3 For not like kingdoms of this world
Thy Holy Church, O God!
Though earthquake shocks are threatening her,

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made by hands.

296 CÆNA DOMINI 10.10. Iambic (1, C) Sir Arthur S. Sullivan, 1842-1900 (1874)

1. Come, take by faith the bod - y of your Lord,
And drink the blood of Christ for you out - poured. A - men.

Saved by that body and that holy blood,
With souls refreshed, we render thanks to God.

Salvation's Giver, Christ, God's only Son,
By His dear Cross and blood the victory won.

Offered was He for greatest and for least,
Himself the Victim, and Himself the Priest.

5 With heavenly Bread makes them that hunger whole,
Gives living waters to the thirsty soul.

6 Approach ye then with faithful hearts sincere,
And take the safeguard of salvation here.

7 He, Who His saints in this world rules and
To all believers life eternal yields. [shields,

297 LANGRAN 10.10.10.10. (32, F)

James Langran, 1835-1909 (1862)

1. Here, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face! Here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
Here would I grasp with firmer hand Thy grace, And all my weariness upon Thee lean. Amen.

Here would I feed upon the bread of
God,
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven;

Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

I have no help but Thine, nor do I need
Another arm save Thine to lean upon;

It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.

4 Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood;

Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace,
Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord
my God.

1. { Lord Je-sus, Who be-fore Thy pas-sion, Dis-tressed and sor-row-ful to death,
To us the fruits of Thy ob-la-tion In Thy last sup-per didst be-queath
Ac-cept our praise, Thou bounteous Giver Of life to every true be-liev-er. A-men.

2 As oft as we enjoy this blessing,
Each sacred token doth declare
Thy dying love, all thoughts surpassing;
And while we Thee in memory bear
At each returning celebration,
We show Thy death for our salvation.

3 Assurance of our pardon sealed
Is in this sacrament renewed;
The soul with peace and joy is filléd,

With Thy atoning blood bedewed;
That stream from all defilement cleanses,
And life abundantly dispenses.

4 That bond of love, that mystic union,
By which to Thee, our Head, we're joined
Is closer drawn at each communion;
By love inspired we know Thy mind,
And feeding on Thy death and merit,
Are rendered one with Thee in spirit.

1. To a - vert from men God's wrath Je - sus suf - fered in our stead;
By an ig - no - min - ious death He a full a - tone-ment made;
And by His most pre - cious blood Brought us, sin - ners, nigh to God. A - men.

2 That we never should forget
This great love on us bestowed,
He gave us His flesh to eat,
And to drink His precious blood;
All who sick and needy are
May receive in Him a share.

3 Hither each afflicted soul
May repair, though filled with grief;
To the sick, not to the whole,
The Physician brings relief;
Fear not, therefore, but draw nigh,
Christ will all your wants supply.

4 He who in self-righteousness
Fixes any hope or stay,
Has not on a wedding-dress,
And with shame is sent away;
To the hungry, weary heart,
He will food and rest impart.

5 But examine first your case,
Whether you be in the faith;
Do you long for pardoning
grace?
Is your only hope His death?
Then, how e'er your soul's oppress,
Come, you are a worthy guest.

6 He who Jesus' mercy knows,
Is from wrath and envy freed;
Love unto our neighbor shows
That we are His flock indeed;
Thus we may in all our ways
Show forth our Redeemer's praise.

4 Here vouchsafe to all Thy servants
What they ask of Thee to gain.
What they gain of Thee for ever
With the blessed to retain,
And hereafter in Thy glory
Evermore with Thee to reign.

The Scotch Psalter, 1615

1. Thou Whose un-meas-ured tem-ple stands Built o-ver earth and sea,

Ac-cept the walls that hu-man hands Have raised, O God, to Thee. A-men.

2 And let the Comforter and Friend, 3 May they who err be guided here
The Holy Spirit, meet To find the better way,
With those who here in worship And they who mourn and they who bend fear
Before Thy mercy-seat. Be strengthened as they pray.

4 May faith grow firm, and love grow warm,
And hallowed wishes rise,
While round these peaceful walls the storm
Of earth-born passion dies.

1 Light up this house with glory, Lord, 3 No rushing, mighty wind we ask;
Enter, and claim Thine own; No tongues of flame desire;
Receive the homage of our souls, Grant us the Spirit's quickening
Erect Thy temple-throne. light,
His purifying fire.

2 We ask no bright Shekinah-cloud,
To glorify the place;
Give, Lord, the substance of that sign—
A plenitude of grace.

4 O Thou, Who, risen, cam'st to bless,
Gently as comes the dew,
Here entering, breathe on all around,
"Peace, peace be unto you."

5 Light up this house with glory, Lord,
The glory of that love
Which forms and saves a Church below,
And makes a heaven above.

- 1 Come, join the throng, on this glad day,
And praise our God and King!
Let all rejoice with heart and voice,
And thankful tribute bring.
- 2 This house, our God, to Thee we build,
For worship, praise and prayer,
We here recount Thy mercies, Lord,
And all Thy watchful care.
- 3 Our glad hosannas here we raise,
To Thee, our fathers' God,
And with devotion we will tread
The paths our fathers trod.
- 4 With love to Thee this house we give,
Ourselves, our lives, our all;
We gladly own Thee as our King,
And crown Thee Lord of all.

2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round Thy altars, O Most High!
Happier souls that find a rest
In a heavenly Father's breast!
Like the wandering dove, that found

No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls! their praises flow
Even in this vale of woe;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies:

On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach Thy throne at length;
At Thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4 Lord, be mine this prize to win;
Guide me through a world of sin;
Keep me by Thy saving grace;
Give me at Thy side a place.
Sun and Shield alike Thou art;
Guide and guard my erring heart:
Grace and glory flow from Thee;
Shower, O shower them, Lord, on me.

- 1 Lord of life, of love, of light,
Clothed in mercy, armed with might,
Worship centres at Thy throne,
Praise belongs to Thee alone!
Be this house forever Thine;
Through it let Thy favor shine;
Feed the souls that here shall meet,
From Thy bounty pure and sweet.
- 2 Write salvation on these walls;
Succour those whom sin enthrals;
Lightened with celestial rays,
Let these gates reflect Thy praise.
Thou Who dwellest where is sung
Praise to Thee by human tongue,
With the presence of Thy grace
Dwell henceforth within this place.

- 3 On Thy faithful servants pour
Richest mercies from Thy store,
And till life's brief hour shall end,
Be their Guardian, Saviour, Friend.
Father holy! Christ most blest!
Evermore within us rest!
Spirit pure, illumine our ways
With Thy bright, celestial rays!

1. With joy - ful - ness and long - ing We look to Thee, O Lord;

Crown us with lov - ing kind - ness, And prom - is - es of grace,

And let Thy ben - e - dic - tion A - bide with - in this place. A - men.

2 The years have all been crowded
With tokens of Thy love;
And many who here sought Thee
Now worship Thee above.
But we, O Lord, still need Thee,
Our pilgrim feet to stay,
For evil often triumphs
As faith to fear gives way.

3 Teach us to know our calling,
And make that calling sure;
Endow us with the guerdon
Of those whose hearts are pure.

Then by the blood that bought us
And by the grace that sought,
Help us, in loving truly,
To serve Thee as we ought.

4 Lord, make Thy people willing,
In Thy great day of power;
Call out recruits, great captains,
And from this happy hour
Lead on to fresh endeavor
A people true and strong,
Till, jubilant in glory,
They swell the Conqueror's song.

1. Al-might-y Lord, Whose sover-eign right Ex-tends o'er ev-ery na-tion,
We bless Thee for the gos-pel light That brought to us sal-va-tion.
And un-to Thee we raise our prayer For all in dark-ness dwell-ing;
That they with us Thy light may share, With us Thy praise be tell-ing. A-men.

2 O, hear us as we call on Thee
For all the truth possessing;
That they may ever ready be
To share the heavenly blessing.
To send to earth's remotest shore
The gladdening gospel story,
That all the heathen may adore
Jesus, the King of Glory.

3 As with Thine eyes, Lord, may we see
The world in darkness lying;
And may Thy love the motive be
To save the lost, the dying.
The precious harvest waiting lies,
But few the workers number—
O Church of Christ! arise! arise!
Arouse thee from thy slumber!

4 Lord, Lord; the impulse must be Thine,
Forgive our sloth, our dullness;
O quicken us with Life divine,
With all Thy Spirit's fulness.
So may our love and faith increase,
Our fervor and devotion;
To speed the messengers of peace
O'er every land and ocean.

5 There evermore be with them, Lord,
And evermore befriend them;
Be Thou their Shield and Great
Reward,
To succour and defend them.
Prosper their faithful ministry,
Till, in the day appointed,
The kingdoms of the world shall be
The realm of Thine Anointed.

Let every nation praise, [Lord,
Let all the earth with one accord
A glad thanksgiving raise,

2 Fling out the banner! angels bend

3 Fling out the banner! heathen lands

2 If you cannot cross the ocean,
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door.
If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite; 4
And the least you give for Jesus
Will be precious in His sight.

3 If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
You can say He died for all.

If you cannot rouse the wicked
With the judgment's dread alarms,
You can lead the little children
To the Saviour's waiting arms.

Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do,"
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you.
Take the task He gives you gladly,
Let His work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when He calleth,
"Here am I; send me, send me."

1 Our country's voice is pleading,
 Ye men of God, arise!
 His providence is leading,
 The land before you lies;
 Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
 And promise clothes the soil;
 Wide fields, for harvest whitening,
 Invite the reaper's toil.

2 The love of Christ unfolding,
 Speed on from east to west,
 Till all, His Cross beholding,
 In Him are fully blest.
 Great Author of salvation,
 Haste, haste the glorious day,
 When we, a ransomed nation,
 Thy sceptre shall obey.

- 1 Peace be to this congregation,
Peace to every soul therein;
Peace, which flows from Christ's salvation,
Peace, the seal of cancelled sin;
Peace that speaks its heavenly giver,
Peace, to earthly minds unknown;
Peace divine that lasts for ever,
Here erect its glorious throne.
- 2 Jesus, Prince of Peace, be near us,
Fix in all our hearts Thy home;
With Thy gracious presence cheer us,
Let Thy sacred kingdom come;
Raise to heaven our expectation,
Give our favoured souls to prove
Glorious and complete salvation,
In the realms of bliss above.

WORSHIP (159, A) No. 532

This day is holy to the Lord,
This day the Lord hath made;
We will rejoice with one accord,
And in His Name be glad.

Come, let us worship and bow down,
With thanks appear before His throne;
He to our songs of praise and prayer
Will lend a gracious ear.

WORSHIP (159, A) No. 532

We now return each to his tent,
Joyful and glad of heart,
And from our solemn covenant
Through grace will ne'er depart.

Once more we pledge both heart and hand,
As in God's presence here we stand,
To live to Him, and Him alone,
Till we surround His throne.

- 1 Saviour, again to Thy dear Name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise,
We stand to bless Thee ere our worship cease,
Then, lowly kneeling, wait Thy word of peace.
- 2 Grant us Thy peace upon our homeward way;
With Thee began, with Thee shall end the day;
Guard Thou the lips from sin, the hearts from shame,
That in this house have called upon Thy Name.
- 3 Grant us Thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;
Turn Thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep Thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to Thee.
- 4 Grant us Thy peace throughout our earthly life,
Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when Thy voice shall bid our conflict cease,
Call us, O Lord, to Thine eternal peace.

By war without, and fears within,
I come to Thee for rest.

5 O wondrous love, to bleed and die,
To bear the Cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead Thy gracious Name.

The Rev. John Newton, 1725-1807 (1779)

411 INNSBRUCK (79, A)

O God, mine inmost soul convert,
And deeply on my thoughtful heart
Eternal things impress;
Give me to feel their solemn weight,
To tremble on the brink of fate,
And to awake to righteousness.

2 Be this my one great business here,
With godly jealousy and fear,
Eternal bliss to insure;
Thine utmost counsel to fulfill,
To suffer all Thy righteous will,
And steadfast to the end endure.

3 Then, Saviour, then my soul receive,
Transported from this vale, to live
And reign with Thee above;
Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
And hope, in full, supreme delight,
And everlasting, heavenly love.

Samuel S. Wesley, 1810-1876 (1864)

1. I need Thee, pre - cious Je - sus! For I am full of sin;

My soul is dark and guilt - y, My heart is dead with - in;

I need the cleans - ing foun - tain, Where I can al - ways flee,

The blood of Christ most pre-cious, The sin-ner's per - fect plea. A-men.

2 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
For I am very poor;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store;
I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

3 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
I need a Friend like Thee,
A friend to soothe and pity,
A friend to care for me.

I need the heart of Jesus
To feel each anxious care,
To tell my every trouble,
And all my sorrow share.

4 I need Thee, precious Jesus,
And hope to see Thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow,
And seated on Thy throne:
There, with Thy blood-bought child-
My joy shall ever be, [ren,
To sing Thy praises, Jesus,
To gaze, my Lord, on Thee.

413 DE PROFUNDIS 8.7.8.7.8.8.7. Iambic (132, E)

Walther's Chorgesang-buechlein, 1524

1. { Out of the deep I cry to Thee, My God, with heart's con-tri - tion;
Bow down Thine ear in grace to me, And hear Thou my pe - ti - tion;

For if in judg - ment Thou wilt try Man's sin and great in - i - qui - ty, Ah, who can stand be - fore Thee? A - men.

To gain remission of our sin,
No work of ours availeth;
God's favor we may strive to win,
But all our labor faileth;
We're 'midst our fairest actions lost,
And none 'fore Him of aught can boast:
We live alone through mercy.

3 Therefore my hope is in His grace,
And not in my own merit;
On Him my confidence I place,
Instructed by His Spirit;
His precious word hath promised me
He will my Joy and Comfort be;
Thereon is my reliance.

4 Though sin with us doth much abound,
Yet grace still more aboundeth;
Sufficient help in Christ is found,
Where sin most deeply woundeth.
He the good Shepherd is indeed,
Who His lost sheep doth seek and lead
With tender love and pity.

English: ascribed to Ann B. Spratt, 1829 — (1866)

1. No, not de-spair-ing-ly Come I to Thee; No! not dis-trust-ing-ly Bend I the knee.

Ped.

Sin hath gone o-ver me, Yet is this still my plea, Je - sus hath died. A - men.

2 Lord, I confess to Thee,
Sadly, my sin;
All I am tell I Thee,
All I have been.
Purge Thou my sin away,
Wash Thou my soul this day;
Lord, make me clean.

Lord, let the cleansing blood,
Blood of the Lamb of God,
Pass o'er my soul.

3 Faithful and just art Thou,
Forgiving all;
Loving and kind art Thou
When poor ones call;

4 Then all is peace and light
This soul within;
Thus shall I walk with Thee,
The loved Unseen;
Leaning on Thee, my God,
Guided along the road,
Nothing between.

Are not Thy mercies large and free? May not a sin - ner trust in Thee? A - men.

2 O, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain my eyes.

3 My lips, with shame, my sins confess
Against Thy law, against Thy grace;
Lord, should Thy judgments grow severe,
I am condemned, but Thou art clear.

4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round Thy Word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

1 Lord, in this Thy mercy's day,
Ere from us it pass away,
On our knees we fall and pray.

4 By Thy night of agony,
By Thy supplicating cry,
By Thy willingness to die,—

2 Holy Jesus, grant us tears,
Fill us with heart-searching fears,
Ere the hour of doom appears.

5 By Thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not Thy love forego.

3 Lord, on us Thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at the door,
Ere it close for evermore.

6 Judge and Saviour of our race,
Grant us, when we see Thy face,
With Thy ransomed ones a place.

2 Jesus, seek Thy wandering sheep,
Make me restless to return;
Bid me look on Thee and weep,
Bitterly as Peter, mourn;
Till I can, by grace restored,
Say, "Thou know'st I love Thee, Lord."

Smite on my unworthy breast:
Utter the poor sinner's plea,
"God, be merciful to me."

3 Might I in Thy sight appear,
As the publican, distressed;
Stand, not daring to draw near,

4 Ah, remember me for good,
Passing through this mortal vale;
Show me Thy atoning blood,
When my strength and courage fail;
Let me oft in spirit see
Jesus, crucified for me.

1. Take me, O my Fa - ther, take me, Take me, save me, thro' Thy Son;
That, which Thou wouldst have me, make me, Let Thy will in me be done. A - men.

- 2 Long from Thee my footsteps stray-
ing,
Thorny proved the way I trod;
Weary come I now, and praying,
Take me to Thy love, my God.
- 3 Fruitless years with grief recalling,
Humbly I confess my sin;
At Thy feet, O Father, falling,
To Thy household take me in.
- 4 Freely now to Thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like Thine.
- 5 Once the world's Redeemer dy-
ing,
Bore our sins upon the Tree;
On that Sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to Thee.
- 6 Father, take me; all forgiving,
Fold me to Thy loving breast;
In Thy love for ever living,
I must be for ever blest!

A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free:
O God, be merciful to me.
- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast, 4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have
With deep and conscious guilt op-

Christ and His Cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me.

With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
"God has been merciful to me."

EVANGEL 7.6.7.6. D., with Refrain

W. Howard Doane, 1832-1915 (1869)

1. Tell me the old, old sto - ry, Of un - seen things a - bove,

Of Je - sus and His glo - ry, Of Je - sus and His love.

Tell me the sto - ry sim - ply, As to a lit - tle child,

For I am weak and wea - ry, And help - less and de - filed.

REFRAIN

Tell me the old, old sto - ry, Tell me the old, old sto - ry,

Repentance and Confession of Sin

Tell me the old, old sto - ry Of Je - sus and His love. A - men.

2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in,
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin;
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon,
The "early dew" of morning
Has passed away at noon.

3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones, and grave;
Remember, I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save;

Tell me the story always,
If you would really be
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.

4 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear,
That this world's empty glory,
Is costing me too dear;
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."

Katherine Hankey, 1866 (the refrain added.)

1. O Lord, turn not Thy face a - way From me in woe - ful state,

La - ment - ing all my sin - ful life Be - fore Thy mer - cy - gate; A - men.

2 A gate which opens wide to those
That do lament their sin;
Shut not that gate against me, Lord,
But let me enter in.

For then my guilty conscience
How vile I shall appear. [knows

3 And call me not to strict account
How I have sojourned here;

4 Mercy, good Lord, mercy I ask;
This is the total sum;
For mercy, Lord, is all my prayer,
Lord, let Thy mercy come.

1. Sav - iour, when, in dust, to Thee Low we bow the a - dor - ing knee;

When, re - pent - ant, to the skies Scarce we lift our weep - ing eyes,

Oh, by all the pains and woe Suf - fered once for man be - low,

Bend - ing from Thy throne on high, Hear our sol - emn lit - a - ny. A - men.

- 2 By Thy helpless infant years;
By Thy life of want and tears;
By Thy days of sore distress
In the lonely wilderness;
By the dread, mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power;
Turn, oh, turn a favoring eye;
Hear our solemn litany!
- 3 By the sacred grief that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept;
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode;
By the anguished sigh that told
Treachery lurked within Thy fold;
From Thy seat above the sky,
Hear our solemn litany!

- 4 By Thine hour of dire despair;
By Thine agony of prayer;
By the Cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany!
- 5 By Thy deep, expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault, whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;
Oh, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty reascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn litany!

1 I lay my sins on Jesus,
The spotless Lamb of God,
He bears them all, and frees us
From the accurséd load.
I bring my guilt to Jesus,
To wash my crimson stains
White in His blood most precious,
Till not a spot remains.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fullness dwells in Him,
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.
I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine,
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.
I love the Name of Jesus,
Immanuel, Christ the Lord;
Like fragrance on the breezes
His Name abroad is poured.

4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild,
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy child.
I long to be with Jesus,
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

1 Not what these hands have done,
Can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne,
Can make my spirit whole.

3 Thy grace alone, O God,
To me can pardon speak;
Thy power alone, O Son of God,
Can this sore bondage break.

2 Not what I feel or do,
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers and sighs and tears,
Can bear my awful load.

4 No other work save Thine,
No meaner blood will do;
No strength, save that which is divine,
Can bear me safely through.

5 I bless the Christ of God;
I rest on love divine;
And with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine.

Faith and Justification

138 BEN RHYDDING S.M.

Not one of Adam's race,
If in the balance tried,
Can by his works of righteousness
'Fore God be justified.

The works which we have done
Are all, alas, unclean;
But we are saved by faith alone,
And cleansed thereby from sin.

3 Ye sinners, who with grief
Your condemnation feel,
Look up to Jesus for relief,
And to His blood appeal.

4 God gave His only Son,
That sinners who believe,
Might not be lost, but be His own,
And in His kingdom live.

The Saviour's blood and righteousness

My beauty is, my glorious dress;
Thus well arrayed, I need not fear,
When in His presence I appear.

The holy, spotless Lamb of God,
Who freely gave His life and blood,
For all my numerous sins to atone.
I for my Lord and Saviour own.

In Him I trust for evermore,
He hath expunged the dreadful score
Of all my guilt; this done away
I need not fear the judgment-day.

Therefore my Saviour's blood and death
Are here the substance of my faith;

And shall remain, when I'm called hence,
My only hope and confidence.

5 Lord Jesus Christ, all praise to Thee,
That Thou didst deign a man to be,
And for each soul which Thou hast made
Hast an eternal ransom paid.

6 O King of glory, Christ the Lord,
God's only Son, Eternal Word,
Let all the world Thy mercy see,
And bless those who believe in Thee.

I will confess while I have breath,
Till I shall see Thee face to face,

- 1 Now I have found the ground wherein
Sure my soul's anchor may remain;
The wounds of Jesus, for my sin
Before the world's foundation slain;
Whose mercy shall unshaken stay
When heaven and earth are fled away.
- 2 Father, Thine everlasting grace
Our scanty thought surpasses far;
Thy heart still melts with tender-
ness,
Thine arms of love still open are,
Returning sinners to receive,
That mercy they may taste, and live.
- 3 O Love, Thou bottomless Abyss,
My sins are swallowed up in Thee;
Covered is my unrighteousness,
No spot of guilt remains on me;
- While Jesus' blood, through earth
and skies,
Mercy, free, boundless mercy, cries.
- 4 Though waves and storms go o'er
my head,
Though strength, and health, and friends be gone; [dead,
Though joys be withered all and Though every comfort be withdrawn;
On this my steadfast soul relies,
Father, Thy mercy never dies.
- 5 Fixed on this ground will I remain,
Though my heart fail and strength
decay;
This anchor shall my soul sustain,
When earth's foundations melt
away;
Mercy's full power I then shall prove,
Loved with an everlasting love.

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice, I loved a-far to roam. A-men.

The Shepherd sought His sheep,
The Father sought His child;
He followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er desert waste and wild;
He found me nigh to death,
Famished, and faint, and lone:
He bound me with the bands of love,
He saved the wandering one.

Jesus my Shepherd is,
'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that washed me in His

Till, in life's latest hour, I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

Self-Consecration to Christ

465 GRACE 7.6.7.6. D.

The Rev. F. R. Nitzschke, 1871 — (1908)

1. O Je - sus, I have prom - ised To serve Thee to the end;
Be Thou for ev - er near me, My Mas - ter and my Friend.
I shall not fear the bat - tle If Thou art by my side,
Nor wan - der from the path - way If Thou wilt be my Guide. A - men.

See also, Tune ST, EDITH, (151, Q) No. 269

2 O let me feel Thee near me,
The world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
The tempting sounds I hear;
My foes are ever near me,
Around me and within;
But Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

3 O Jesus, Thou hast promised
To all who follow Thee,
That where Thou art in glory
There shall Thy servant be;

And, Jesus, I have promised
To serve Thee to the end;
O give me grace to follow
My Master and my Friend!

4 O let me see Thy footmarks,
And in them plant mine own;
My hope to follow duly
Is in Thy strength alone.
O guide me, call me, draw me,
Uphold me to the end;
And then in heaven receive me,
My Saviour and my Friend!

Spencer Lane, 1843-1903 (1879)

1. Sav - iour, bless - ed Sav - iour, List - en while we sing,

Hearts and voic - es rais - ing Prais - es to our King.

All we have we of - fer, All we hope to be,

Bod - y, soul, and spir - it, All we yield to Thee. A - men.

2 Great and even greater
Are Thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain, or sorrow,
Toil, or care, is known,
Where the angel-legions
Circle round Thy throne.

3 Clearer still and clearer
Dawns the light from heaven,
In our sadness bringing
News of sin forgiven.
Life has lost its shadows,
Pure the light within;
Thou hast shed Thy radiance
On a world of sin.

467 ST. MATTHEW C. M. D. (590, B) See No. 230

Present your bodies to the Lord,
A living sacrifice,
A holy offering unto Him,
And pleasing in His eyes.

This is a service which ye owe,
And reasonably due;
For ye are not your own, ye know,
But Christ hath purchased you.

468 PENITENCE (141, E)

- 1 Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to Thee,
Deep in adoration
Bending low the knee;
Thou for our redemption
Cam'st on earth to die;
Thou, that we might follow,
Hast gone up on high.
- 2 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God;

Leaving all behind us
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

- 3 Higher then and higher
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgotten,
Saviour, to its goal;
Where in joys unthought of Saints with angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King.

Anonymous

1. O, tell me no more Of this world's vain store,
The time for such tri - fles with me now is o'er. A - men.

- 2 A country I've found,
Where true joys abound;
To dwell I'm determined on that happy ground.

- 3 My soul, don't delay,
He calls thee away;
Rise, follow thy Saviour, and bless the glad day.

- 4 No mortal doth know
What He can bestow;
What light, strength, and comfort;
go follow Him, go.

- 5 Perhaps with the aim
To honor His Name,
I may do some service, poor dust
though I am.

- 6 Yet this is confessed,
I count it most blest,
As at the beginning, in Him to find rest.

- 7 And when I'm to die,
Receive me, I'll cry,
For Jesus hath loved me, I cannot tell why.

- 8 But this I do find,
We two are so joined,
He'll not live in glory and leave me behind.

Robert Lowry, 1826-1899

Copyright, 1899, by Robert Lowry. Renewal. Used by permission.

2 At the blest mercy seat,
Pleading for me,
My feeble faith looks up,
Jesus, to Thee;
Help me Thy Cross to bear,
Thy wondrous love declare,
Some song to raise, or prayer,
Something for Thee.

3 Give me a faithful heart—
Likeness to Thee—
That each departing day
Henceforth may see

Some work of love begun,
Some deed of kindness done,
Some wanderer sought and won,
Something for Thee.

4 All that I am and have,
Thy gifts so free,
In joy, in grief, through life,
Dear Lord, for Thee;
And when Thy face I see,
My ransomed soul shall be,
Through all eternity,
Something for Thee.

471 MOZART 7.7.7.7.

Arranged from Mozart, 1756-1791

1. Take my life, and let it be Con - se - crat - ed, Lord, to Thee;
Take my hands, and let them move At the im - pulse of Thy love. A - men.

- 2 Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee,
Take my voice and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.
- 3 Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee,
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold;
- 4 Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise,

- Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.
- 5 Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is Thine own!
It shall be Thy royal throne.
- 6 Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store;
Take myself, and I will be,
Ever, only, all, for Thee.

- 2 Thine for ever! Lord of life,
Shield us through our earthly strife;
Thou the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Guide us to the realms of day.
- 3 Thine for ever! O how blest
They who find in Thee their rest!

- Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end!
- 4 Thine for ever! Thou our Guide,
All our wants by Thee supplied;
All our sins by Thee forgiven,
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

2 Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know;
Long years were spent for me;
Have I spent one for Thee?

Thy pardon and Thy love;
Great gifts Thou broughtest me;
What have I brought to Thee?

3 And Thou hast brought to me
Down from Thy home above
Salvation full and free,

4 O, let my life be given,
My years for Thee be spent;
World-fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent;
Thou gav'st Thyself for me,
I give myself to Thee.

1. Through good re- port and e - vil, Lord, Still guid-ed by Thy faith-ful Word,—

Our Staff, our Buck - ler, and our Sword,— We fol - low Thee. A - men.

2 With enemies on every side,
We lean on Thee, the Crucified;
Forsaking all on earth beside,
We follow Thee.

4 Thou hast passed on before our face;
Thy footsteps on the way we trace;
O, keep us, aid us by Thy grace:
We follow Thee.

3 O Master, point Thou out the way,
Nor suffer Thou our steps to stray;
Then in that path that leads to day
We follow Thee.

5 Whom have we in the heaven above,
Whom on this earth, save Thee, to love?
Still in Thy light we onward move;
We follow Thee!

The Rev. John B. Dykes, 1823-1876 (1861)

1. Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee; Thou art my God, in Thee I live and move;

Oh, let Thy lov-ing Spirit lead me forth Into the land of righteousness and love. A-men.

2 Thy love the law and impulse of my soul,
Thy righteousness its fitness and its plea,
Thy loving Spirit mercy's sweet control
To make me liker, draw me nearer Thee.

3 My highest hope to be where, Lord, Thou art,
To lose myself in Thee my richest gain,
To do Thy will the habit of my heart,
To grieve the Spirit my severest pain.

2 Hath He marks to lead me to Him,
If He be my Guide?
"In His feet and hands are wound-prints,

3 Hath He diadem, as Monarch,

But of thorns!"

4 If I find Him, if I follow,
What His guerdon here?
"Many a sorrow, many a labor,
Many a tear."

5 If I still hold closely to Him,
What has He at last?
"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,
Jordan passed."

6 If I ask Him to receive me,
Will He say me nay?
"Not till earth, and not till heaven Pass away."

7 Finding, following, keeping, struggling,
Is He sure to bless?

Answer, Yes."

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate,—
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 When trouble like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick, and thundered loud,

He near my soul has always stood,—
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

4 Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Saviour to depart;
But though I oft have Him forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.

O for a heart to love Thee
More truly as I ought,
And nothing place above Thee
In deed, or word, or thought.

That Thou Thy foes wilt spare.

3 Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned Thee
And nailed Thee to the Tree:

Blessed mansion, loved abode;
There my Lord had oft His resting station,
Converse held in friendly mood:

I could wish this day still to be favored;
But His presence makes to me
Every place a Bethany.

1. Je - sus, Thy bound-less love to me No thought can reach, no tongue de-clare;

O knit my thank-ful heart to Thee, And reign with-out a ri - val there;

Thine whol-ly, Thine a - lone, I am, Be Thou a-lone my constant Flame. A - men.

2 O grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but Thy pure love
alone;
O may Thy love possess me whole,
My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
Strange fires far from my soul remove;
My every act, word, thought, be love.

4 Still let Thy love point out my way;
How wondrous things Thy love hath wrought!
Still lead me, lest I go astray;
Direct my work, inspire my thought;
And if I fall, soon may I hear
Thy voice, and know that love is near.

3 O Love, how cheering is Thy ray!
All pain before Thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er Thy healing beams arise.
O Jesus, nothing may I see,
Or hear, or feel, or think, but Thee.

5 In suffering, be Thy love my peace;
In weakness, be Thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall
cease,
Jesus, in that important hour,
In death, as life, be Thou my Guide,
And save me, Who for me hast died.

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find:
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

Just and Holy is Thy Name;

False and full of sin I am,

4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.

Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart,

Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing;
We would not mourn them, for we go to Thee.
- 4 We would see Jesus: sense is all too binding,
And heaven appears too dim, too far away;
We would see Thee, Thyself, our hearts reminding
What Thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.

Strength, joy and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

Pray, brethren, pray.

4 Sound now the final chord,
Praise, brethren, praise:
Thrice holy is our Lord,
Praise, brethren, praise.
What more befits the tongues,
Soon to join the angels' songs?
While heaven the note prolongs,
Praise, brethren, praise.

1. What can we of - fer Thee, O Lord, For all the won - ders of Thy grace!

Fain would we Thy great Name re - cord, And worth - i - ly set forth Thy praise.

Dear ob - ject of our faith and love, To Whom our more than all we owe,

O - pen the fountain from a - bove, And let it on our spir - its flow. A - men.

- 2 So shall our lives Thy power proclaim,
 Thy grace for every sinner free,
 Till all mankind shall know Thy Name,
 Shall all stretch out their hands to Thee.
 Open a door, which earth and hell
 May strive to shut, but strive in vain;
 Grant that Thy word may richly dwell
 Among us, and our fruit remain!
- 3 O multiply Thy sowers' seed,
 And fruit we every hour shall bear,
 Throughout the world Thy Gospel spread,
 Thy everlasting grace declare.
 We all, in perfect love renewed,
 Shall know the greatness of Thy power,
 Stand in the temple of our God
 As pillars, and go out no more.

Follow where Thy feet have trod:

Do the holy will of God.
Thou, the peace that passeth knowledge,
Dwellest in the daily strife;
Thou, the Bread of Heaven, art broken
In the sacrament of life.

Shall be the conflict's close:
The Cross hath been victorious,

Our captives, ransomed souls.

Has freed our brethren too.

Not unto us: in glory
The angels catch the strain,

On Thee Thy people call,

As brothers of the Son of Man
Rise up, O men of God! |

Temptation and Conflict

2 Perish policy and cunning!
 Perish all that fears the light!
 Whether losing, whether winning,
 Trust in God, and do the right.
 Trust no party, sect, or faction;
 Trust no leaders in the fight;
 But in every word and action
 Trust in God, and do the right.

3 Trust no lovely forms of passion,— Fiends may look like angels bright;
 Trust no custom, school, or fashion:
 Trust in God, and do the right.

Simple rule, and safest guiding,
 Inward peace, and inward might,
 Star upon our path abiding,—
 “Trust in God, and do the right.”

4 Some will hate thee, some will love
 thee,
 Some will flatter, some will slight;
 Cease from man, and look above
 thee:
 Trust in God, and do the right.
 Courage, brother! do not stumble,
 Though thy path be dark as night;
 There's a star to guide the humble:
 “Trust in God, and do the right.”

574 PENTECOST L. M.

William Boyd, 1847 — (1868)

1. Fight the good fight with all thy might, Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;

Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown e - ter - nal - ly. A - men.

2 Run the straight race thro' God's good grace, Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face; Life with its way before us lies, Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.	3 Cast care aside, upon thy Guide Lean, and His mercy will provide; Lean, and the trusting soul shall prove Christ is its Life, and Christ its Love.

4 Faint not nor fear, His arms are near;
 He changeth not, and thou art dear;
 Only believe, and thou shalt see
 That Christ is all in all to thee.

575 FORWARD 6.5.6.5.12 1. (141, I)

Henry Smart, 1813-1879 (1872)

1. For-ward! be our watch-word, Steps and voic-es joined; Seek the things be-fore us,

Not a look be-hind: Burns the fi-ery pil-lar At our ar-my's head;

Who shall dream of shrink-ing, By our Cap-tain led? Forward through the des-ert,

Through the toil and fight; Jor-dan flows be-fore us, Zi-on beams with light. A-men.

See also, Tune ST. ALBANS, (141, G) No. 241

2 Forward, when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind:
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time,
 Climb from height to height:
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light.

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth;
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth:
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;
 Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light!

Temptation and Conflict

4 Glories upon glories
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech a word.
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight!

Thou, Lord, if we walk in light, Wilt di - rect our steps a - right. A - men.

2 Christians are not here below
 To enjoy earth's fleeting treasure:
 After Christ they're called to go,
 His reproach they count a pleasure;
 Under manifold distress,
 Through the narrow gate they press.

3 Saviour, now for strength we plead,
 In Thy love together banded,
 To advance where Thou dost lead
 Doing what Thou hast commanded:
 Heart and hand we pledge Thee
 Give us grace to persevere. [here,

2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the secret foe;
Far more are o'er thee watching
Than human eyes can know.
Trust only Christ, thy Captain,
Cease not to watch and pray;
Heed not the treacherous voices,
That lure thy soul astray.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished
And heaven is all possest;

Till Christ Himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear, in endless glory,
The crown of victory.

4 Go forward, Christian soldier,
Fear not the gathering night;
The Lord has been thy Shelter,
The Lord will be thy Light;
When morn His face revealeth,
Thy dangers all are past;
Oh, pray that faith and virtue
May keep thee to the last.

1. Lead on, O King E - ter - nal, The day of march has come;

Hence - forth in fields of con - quest Thy tents shall be our home;

Through days of prep - a - ra - tion Thy grace has made us strong,

And now, O King E - ter - nal, We lift our bat - tle song. A - men.

2 Lead on, O King Eternal,
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes.

3 Lead on, O King Eternal,
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy Cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might.

2 With forbidden pleasures
Would this vain world charm;
Or its sordid treasures
Spread to work me harm;
Bring to my remembrance
Sad Gethsemane,
Or, in darker semblance,
Cross-crowned Calvary.

3 Should Thy mercy send me
Sorrow, toil, and woe;
Or should pain attend me
On my path below;

Grant that I may never
Fail Thy hand to see;
Grant that I may ever
Cast my care on Thee.

4 When my last hour cometh,
Fraught with strife and pain,
When my dust returneth
To the dust again;
On Thy truth relying
Through that mortal strife,
Jesus, take me, dying,
To eternal life.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The trumpet call obey;^a
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this His glorious day:
Ye that are men now serve Him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the gospel armor,
Each piece put on with prayer;
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,

 Who follows in His train?

They met the tyrant's brandished

 The lion's gory mane;
 They bowed their necks the death

 Who follows in their train?

3 A glorious band, the chosen few,
 On whom the Spirit came;
 Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
 And mocked the cross and flame:

4 A noble army, men and boys,
 The matron and the maid,
 Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
 In robes of light arrayed.
 They climbed the steep ascent of

 Through peril, toil and pain;
 O God, to us may grace be given

Set my conscience free from guilt.

4 Lord, I come to Thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast;

There Thy blood-bought right main-
And without a rival reign. [tain,

5 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let Thy love my spirit cheer;

1. Je - sus, Lord of life and glo - ry, Bend from heaven Thy gra - cious ear;

While our wait - ing souls a - dore Thee, Friend of help - less sin - ners, hear;

By Thy mer - cy, O, de - liv - er us, good Lord. A - men.

2 Taught by Thine unerring Spirit,
Boldly we draw nigh to God,
Only in Thy spotless merit,
Only through Thy precious blood;
By Thy mercy,
O, deliver us, good Lord!

3 From the depth of nature's blindness,
From the hardening power of sin,
From all malice and unkindness,
From the pride that lurks within,
By Thy mercy,
O, deliver us, good Lord!

4 When temptation sorely presses,
In the day of Satan's power,
In our times of deep distresses,

In each dark and trying hour,
By Thy mercy,
O, deliver us, good Lord!

5 In the weary hours of sickness,
In the times of grief and pain,
When we feel our mortal weakness,
When the creature's help is vain,
By Thy mercy,
O, deliver us, good Lord!

6 In the solemn hour of dying,
In the awful judgment day,
May our souls, on Thee relying,
Find thee still our Rock and Stay,
By Thy mercy,
O, deliver us, good Lord.

COVENANT (185, A.) No. 214

Bless, O Lord, we pray, Thy congregation,
Bless each home and family;
Bless the youth, the rising generation,
Bless the children dear to Thee;
Bless Thy servants, grant them help and favor,
Thee to glorify be their endeavor.
Lord, on Thee we humbly call,
Let Thy blessing rest on all.

1. Lord, teach us how to pray a - right, With rev-erence and with fear;

Though dust and ash - es in Thy sight, We may, we must draw near. A-men.

- 2 God of all grace, we come to Thee, To cast our hopes, to fix our eyes,
With broken, contrite hearts; On Christ, on Christ alone:
Give what Thine eye delights to see,
Truth in the inward parts.
- 3 Give deep humility; the sense Of godly sorrow give;
A strong, desiring confidence, And trust Thee though Thou slay:
- 4 Faith in the only sacrifice We, by Thy Spirit and Thy Son,
That can for sin atone; Shall pray, and pray aright.
- 5 Patience, to watch, and wait, and Though mercy long delay; [weep,
Courage, our fainting souls to keep,
And trust Thee though Thou slay:
- 6 Give these, and then Thy will be done;
Thus strengthened with all might,
We, by Thy Spirit and Thy Son,
Shall pray, and pray aright.

1. My God! is an - y hour so sweet, From blush of morn to even - ing star,
As that which calls me to Thy feet, The hour of prayer? A - men.

2 Then is my strength by Thee renewed;
Then are my sins by Thee forgiven;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear

3 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!

5 Lord! till I reach yon blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to Thee.

On this a - lone my hopes de - pend, That Thou wilt plead for me! A - men.

2 When, weary in the Christian race,
Far-off appears my resting-place,
And fainting I mistrust Thy grace,
Then, Saviour, plead for me!

4 When Satan, by my sins made bold,
Strives from Thy Cross to loose my hold,
Then with Thy pitying arms enfold,
And plead, oh, plead for me!

3 When I have erred and gone astray
Afar from Thine and Wisdom's way,
And see no glimmering guiding ray,
Still, Saviour, plead for me!

5 And when my dying hour draws near,
Darkened with anguish, guilt, and fear,
Then to my fainting sight appear,
Pleading in heaven for me!

The last two lines from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," 1846

1. When the wea-ry, seek-ing rest, To Thy goodness flee; When the heav-y-la-den cast
2. When the worldling, sick at heart, Lifts his soul above; When the prodigal looks back

All their load on Thee; When the troubled, seeking peace, On Thy Name shall call;
To his Father's love; When the proud man, in his pride, Stoops to seek Thy face;

REFRAIN

When the sin-ner, seek-ing life, At Thy feet shall fall: } Hear then in
When the burdened brings his guilt To the throne of grace: } love, O Lord, the cry, In heaven, Thy dwell-ing-place on high. A-men.

3 When the stranger asks a home,
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor (a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee:—Ref.

4 When the man of toil and care,
In the city crowd,
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the Name of God;
When the learned and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessed Name:—Ref.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God! to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God! to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

3 There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven!
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God! to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

5 Or if, on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God! to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!

| 2 O God of grace and love,
Regard us from Thy throne;
Send down to us the Heavenly Dove,
And seal us as Thine own. | Saviour, remember us for good
In danger's trying hour. |
| 3 We have no other trust,
But Thy dear Sacrifice;
Our hope, Thou Holy One and Just,
Thou never wilt despise. | 5 Come with Thy saving strength,
With healing virtue come;
And let Thy guiding hand at length
Conduct us safely home. |
| 4 Sinful, we plead Thy blood;
Weak, we implore Thy power; | 6 Till, saved from all annoy
Of earthly fear and strife,

The prayer we offer now;
Thy Name be hallowed far and near,
To Thee all nations bow. | 4 From dark temptation's power,
From Satan's wiles defend;
Deliver in the evil hour,
And guide us to the end. |
| 2 Thy kingdom come; Thy will
On earth be done in love,
As saints and seraphim fulfill
Thy perfect law above. | 5 Thine, then, for ever be
Glory and power divine;
The scepter, throne and majesty
Of heaven and earth are Thine. |
| 3 Our daily bread supply,
While by Thy Word we live;
The guilt of our iniquity
Forgive, as we forgive. | 6 Thus humbly taught to pray,
By Thy beloved Son, [say
Through Him we come to Thee, and
All for His sake be done. |

625 COVENANT 10.7.10.7.10.10.7.7. Trochaic (185, A)

Popular Melody, c. 1740; improved by Gregor and others

1. Should our minds, to earth-ly ob-jects cleav-ing, Of the mark for - get - ful prove?

God for - bid! all world-ly tri - fles leav-ing, Let us fix our thoughts a-bove;

Have with Christ in heaven our conversation, Keep in view our bless-ed des - ti - na-tion,

As re-deemed from this world's thrall, To pur - sue our heaven-ly call. A-men.

2 Let us watch and pray, and never slumber,
 Lest the foe approach unseen;
 Cast away whate'er would us encumber,
 Fear to touch the thing unclean;
 Lest, escapéd from the world's pollution,
 We again give way to sin's delusion:
 Ah, 't would cause us pungent pain,
 Christ to crucify again.

626 PLEYEL'S HYMN 7.7.7.7. (11, T) Arr. from Ignaz J. Pleyel, 1757-1831 (1790)

1. Chil-dren of the heav-en-ly King, As ye jour-ney, sweet-ly sing;

Sing your Sav-iour's wor-thy praise, Glo-rious in His works and ways. A-men.

2 We are traveling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Lift your eyes, ye sons of light,
Zion's city is in sight;
There our endless home shall be,
There our Lord we soon shall see.

4 Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

627 PLEYEL'S HYMN 7.7-7.7. (11, T)

1 Mighty God, we humbly pray,
Let Thy power so bear the sway,
That in all things we may show
That we in Thy likeness grow.

2 Grant that all of us may prove
By obedience, faith, and love,
That our hearts to Thee are given,
That our treasure is in heaven.

3 May it in our walk be seen,
That we have with Jesus been,
That as King o'er us He reigns,
And unrivalled sway maintains.

4 Then shall we in every state,
Soul and body dedicate
Unto Him Who for us died,
Till with Him we're glorified.

Heinrich Isaak, c. 1450-1519 (c. 1490)

1. Je - sus, Thy - self to us re - veal, Grant that we may not on - ly feel

The first system of musical notation is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Some draw - ings of Thy grace, But in com - mun - ion with Thee live,

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and harmony. It features similar rhythmic patterns and chordal structures to the first system.

And dai - ly from Thy death de-rive The need-ful strength to run our race. A-men.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece with a final cadence. The lyrics 'A-men' are written at the end of the line.

2 O, let us think Thee always near,
As is the light that shines so clear,
Or as the air we breathe;
In all our thoughts, our words and ways,
Thus may our lives show forth Thy praise,
Our hearts be freed from things beneath.

3 Jesus, Thou fain wouldst have us be
In all things more conformed to Thee;
We're filled with conscious shame,
And thank Thee for Thy care and love;
Thy patience, which we richly prove,
Our heart-felt gratitude doth claim.

POSEN (STRATTNER) 7.7.7.7. (11, C) No. 232 Vienna, (11, P) No. 504

1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born;
Songs of praise arose, when He
Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day;
God will make new heaven and earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And can man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious Kingdom come?
No;—the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds

1. Chris-tian hearts, in love u - nit - ed, Seek a - lone in Je - sus rest;
Has He not your love ex - cit - ed? Then let love in - spire each breast;
Mem - bers—on our Head de - pend-ing Lights—re - flect-ing Him, our Sun,
Brethren—His commands at-tend-ing, We in Him, our Lord, are one. A - men.

2 Come then, come, O flock of Jesus,
Covenant with Him anew;
Unto Him, Who conquered for us,
Pledge we love and service true;
And should our love's union holy
Firmly linked no more remain,
Wait ye at His footstool lowly,
Till He draw it close again.

3 Grant, Lord, that with Thy direction,
"Love each other," we comply,
Aiming with unfeigned affection,
Thy love to exemplify;

Let our mutual love be glowing,
Thus will all men plainly see,
That we, as on one stem growing,
Living branches are in Thee.

4 O that such may be our union,
As Thine with the Father is,
And not one of our communion
E'er forsake the path of bliss;
May our light 'fore men with bright-

From Thy light reflected, shine;
Thus the world will bear us witness,
That we, Lord, are truly Thine.

1. A safe Strong-hold our God is still, A trust-y Shield and Weap-on;

He'll help us clear from all the ill That hath us now o'er-tak-en.

The ancient prince of hell Hath risen with purpose fell; Strong mail of craft and power

He wear-eth in this hour, On earth is not his fel-low. A-men.

2 With force of arms we nothing can,
Full soon were we down-ridden;
But for us fights the proper Man,
Whom God Himself hath bidden.
Ask ye, Who is this same?
Christ Jesus is His Name,
The Lord Sabaoth's Son,
He and no other one
Shall conquer in the battle.

3 And were this world all devils o'er,
And watching to devour us,
We lay it not to heart so sore,
Not they can overpower us.

And let the prince of ill
Look grim as e'er he will,
He harms us not a whit:
For why? his doom is writ,
One little word shall slay him.

4 That word, for all their craft and
One moment will not linger, [force,
But, spite of hell, shall have its course,
'Tis written by His finger.
And though they take our life,
Goods, honor, children, wife,
Yet is their profit small;
These things shall vanish all,
The kingdom ours remaineth.

Leaning on Thy arm alone.

We to Thee our refuge take,
Of Thy fullness we receive:
Every other help be gone,
Thou art our Support alone;

3 The ground of my profession
Is Jesus and His blood;
He giveth me possession
Of everlasting good.

To me His Spirit speaketh
Full many a precious word—
Of rest to him who seeketh
A refuge in the Lord.

4 Should earth lose its foundation,
He stands my lasting rock;
No temporal desolation
Shall give my love a shock;
I'll cleave to Christ my Saviour,
No object, small or great,
Nor height, nor depth, shall ever
Me from Him separate.

2 In holy contemplation
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe His people too;

Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And He Who feeds the ravens,
Will give His children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig tree neither
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;
For, while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
And contradict His gracious Word.

2 Brought safely by His hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to care?
How canst thou want, if He provide,
Or lose thy way with such a Guide?

3 When first before His mercy-seat
Thou didst thy all to Him commit,
He gave thee warrant from that hour
To trust His wisdom, love, and power.

4 Did ever trouble thee befall,
And He refuse to hear thy call?
And has He not His promise passed,
That thou shalt overcome at last?

5 He Who hath helped me hitherto,
Will help me all my journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise
New Ebenezers to His praise.

6 Though rough and thorny be the
It leads me home apace to God; [road,
I count my present trials small,
For heaven will make amends for all.

| 2 And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain. | 4 And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore. |
| 3 No offering of my own I have,
Nor works my faith to prove;
I can but give the gifts He gave,
And plead His love for love. | 5 I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care. |

| 1 O for a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe;
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe; | 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear,
When tempests rage without,
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt; |
| 2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But in the hour of grief or pain
Will lean upon its God; | 4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed. |
- 5 Lord! give us such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste e'en here the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

1. God moves in a mys - ter - ious way, His won - ders to per - form;

He plants His foot-steps in the sea, And rides up - on the storm. A-men.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines Of never-failing skill
He treasures up His bright designs,
And works His sovereign will.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for His grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds you so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan His work in vain;
God is His own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

Jerusalem above.

3 "For ever with the Lord!"

Be Thou at my right hand,
Then I can never fail;
Uphold Thou me, and I shall stand;
Fight, and I must prevail.

4 So, when my latest breath

By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before Thy throne:
"For ever with the Lord!"

The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

4 Great God! what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of man I see appear,
On clouds of glory seated!
Beneath His Cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

The Judgment

735 LUTHER'S HYMN 8.7.8.7.8.8.7. (132, L)

- 'Tis sure that awful time will come
When Christ, the Lord of glory,
Shall from His throne give men their doom,
And change things transitory;
This will strike dumb each impious jeer,
When all things are consumed by fire,
And heaven and earth dissolvéd.
- 2 When all with awe the throne surround
To hear their doom allotted,
Oh, may my worthless name be found
In the Lamb's book unblotted.
Grant me that firm, unshaken faith,
That Thou, my Saviour, by Thy death
Hast purchased my salvation.
- 3 Before Thou shalt as Judge appear,
Plead as my Intercessor,
And on that awful day declare
That I am Thy confessor;
Then bring me to that blessed place,
Where I shall see with open face
The glory of Thy Kingdom.
- 4 O Jesus, shorten the delay,
And hasten Thy salvation,
That we may see that glorious day
Produce a new creation;
Lord Jesus, come, our Judge and King,
Come, change our mournful notes,
to sing
Thy praise for ever: Amen.

2 Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone;
Softened words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone;
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the throne of light.

3 Naught that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone;
Where the Godhead dwelleth,
Temple there is none;
All the saints that ever
In these courts have stood,

Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.
On through sign and token,
Stars amidst the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

4 To the eternal Father,
Loudest anthems raise;
To the Son and Spirit
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord of Glory
Blesséd Three in One,
Be by men and angels
Endless honor done.
Weak are earthly praises,
Dull the songs of night;
Forward into triumph,
Forward into light.

EWING 7.6.7.6. D. (151, N)

1 The world is very evil,
The times are waxing late,
Be sober, and keep vigil,
The Judge is at the gate;
The Judge that comes in mercy,
The Judge that comes with might,
To stop the course of evil,
To recompense the right.

2 Arise, arise, ye Christians,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead;—
To light that has no evening,
That knows no moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The Light that is but One.

3 O home of fadeless splendor,
Of flowers that hide no thorn,
Where they shall dwell as children
Who here as exiles mourn;
'Midst power that knows no limit,
Where wisdom has no bound,
The beatific vision
Shall gladden all around.

4 O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest,
True vision of true beauty,
True cure of the distrest!
O strive to win that glory;
O toil to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight.

- 2 Since we likewise may attain
 To this happiness through grace,
 And, by following Jesus, gain
 With the saints in heaven a place;
 May we tread the narrow path,
 Not unfruitful in the faith,
 And unto the end endure,
 Making our election sure.
- 3 May we always have in view
 The example of our Lord,
 Faithfully His steps pursue,
 Giving heed unto His word;

In our bodies, while we've breath,
 May we bear about His death,
 That His life may even here
 In our mortal flesh appear.

- 4 Let us call to mind, with joy,
 Those who have before us gone,
 Who obtained the victory
 Through the blood of Christ alone;
 That we all may zealously
 Imitate their constancy,
 Till we too the prize receive,
 And with them in glory live.

CULFORD (205, L)

- 1 Who are these in bright array,
 This innumerable throng,
 Round the altar night and day,
 Hymning one triumphant song:
 "Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
 Blessing, honor, glory, power,
 Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
 New dominion every hour?"
- 2 These through fiery trials trod,
 These from great affliction came;
 Now before the throne of God,
 Sealed with His almighty Name,

Clad in raiment pure and white,
 Victor-palms in every hand,
 Through their dear Redeemer's might,
 More than conquerors they stand.

- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
 On immortal fruits they feed;
 Them the Lamb amid the throne
 Shall to living fountains lead;
 Joy and gladness banish sighs,
 Perfect love dispels all fears,
 And for ever from their eyes,
 God shall wipe away the tears.

Good angels know it well;
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell;
Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand saints adore
Christ, with the Father One,
And Spirit, evermore. | To give to Him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things He hath done. |
| 3 O joy all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb Who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands, and feet, and side; | 4 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above. |

In - fin - ite day ex - cludes the night, And pleas - ures ban - ish pain.

There ev - er - last - ing spring a - bides, And nev - er - with - ering flowers;

Death, like a nar - row sea, di - vides This heavenly land from ours. A - men.

- 2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
But timorous mortals start, and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 3 O, could we make our doubts remove
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeclouded eyes:
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore

'Fore Him ap - pear, Then meet Him with - out fear. A - men.

How great our joy shall be
In heaven, O Lord, where we

In hymns of praise unite.

3 Repeat the solemn strain,
Worthy the Lamb once slain!
Let all reply, Amen;
Blessing and power and majesty
Through endless ages be to Thee,
Who us by blood hast bought,
In mercy sought,
And to the fold us brought.

2 Thy turrets and thy pinnacles
With jewels rare do shine,
Thy very streets are paved with gold
Surpassing pure and fine.
No murky cloud o'ershadows thee,
Nor gloom, nor darksome night;
But every soul shines as the sun,
For God Himself gives light.

3 Thy gardens and thy goodly walks
Continually are green,
Where grow such sweet and pleasant

As nowhere else are seen.

Right through thy streets, with sil -

The living waters flow,
And on the banks, on every side,
The trees of life do grow.

My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end
When I thy joys shall see.

'65 MORNING HYMN L. M.

F. H. Barthélémon, 1741-1808 (1791)

1. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run:

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn-ing sac - ri - fice. A - men.

Thy former misspent time redeem,
Each present day thy last esteem;
Thy talents to improve take care,
For the great day thyself prepare.

In conversation be sincere,
Keep conscience as the noon-day
clear;

For God's all-seeing eye surveys
Thy secret thoughts, thy works and ways.

Glory to God, Who safe hath kept,
And hath refreshed me while I slept:

Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of heavenly bliss partake.

5 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew,
Disperse my sins as morning dew,
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

6 Direct, control, suggest this day
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

Bishop Thomas Ken, 1637-1711 (1692)

766 MORNING HYMN L. M.

New every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove,
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,

Restored to life, and power, and [thought.

New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of [heaven.

3 If, on our daily course, our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,

New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;
Room to deny ourselves; a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

5 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

767 MAINZER L. M.

Joseph Mainzer, 1801-1851 (1845)

1. Be with me, Lord, where'er I go, Teach me what Thou wouldst have me do;

Sug-gest what-e'er I think or say, Di-rect me in the nar-row way. A-men.

2 Prevent me lest I harbor pride,
Lest I in my own strength confide;
Show me my weakness, let me see
I have my power, my all, from Thee.

4 Assist and teach me how to pray,
Incline my nature to obey;
What Thou abhorrest, let me flee,
And only love what pleaseth Thee.

3 Enrich me always with Thy love,
My kind Protector ever prove:
Lord, put Thy seal upon my breast,
And let Thy Spirit on me rest.

5 O may I never do my will,
But Thine, and only Thine, fulfill;
Let all my time and all my ways,
Be spent and ended to Thy praise.

2 'Tis Thine, my God the same that
My resting hours from harm; [kept
No ill came nigh me, for I slept
Beneath the Almighty's arm.

4 In death's dark valley though I stray,
'Twould there my steps attend,
Guide with the staff my lonely way,
And with the rod defend.

3 'Tis Thine my daily bread that
Like manna scattered round, [brings,
And clothes me, as the lily springs
In beauty from the ground.

5 May that dear hand uphold me still,
Through life's uncertain race,
To bring me to Thine holy hill,
And to Thy dwelling-place.

Ready burning
Be the incense of thy powers:
For the night is safely ended;
God hath tended
With His care thy helpless hours.
- 4 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, behold -

- 2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove;
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast;
Gives unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day.
- 3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin

And the tempter's power within,
Every morning, for the strife,
Feed us with the Bread of Life.

- 4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever-blessed Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailling prayer and praise.

771 KELSO 7.7.7.7.7.

- 1 God Who madest earth and heaven,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Who the day and night hast given,
Sun and moon and starry host,
All things wake at Thy command,
Held in being by Thy hand.
- 2 Help me, as each morn shall break,
In the Spirit to arise;
Let my soul from sin awake,
That when o'er the aged skies
Shall the morn of doom appear
I may see it free from fear.

- 3 Ever lead me, ever guide
All my wanderings by Thy Word;
As Thou hast been, still abide,
My Defence, my Refuge, Lord;
Never safe except with Thee,
Ever Thou my Guardian be.
- 4 Mighty God, I now commend
Soul and body unto Thee;
All the power that Thou dost lend
By Thy hand directed be;
Thou my Boast, my Strength Divine,
Keep me with Thee, I am Thine.

Arr. from Carl M. von Weber, 1786-1826
by H. W. Greatorex, 1849

1. Now the shades of night are gone: Now the morn-ing light is come:

Lord, may we be Thine to-day, Drive the shades of sin a-way. A-men.

- 2 Fill our souls with heavenly light, 3 Keep our haughty passions bound,
Banish doubt, and clear our sight; Save us from our foes around,
In Thy service, Lord, to-day Going out and coming in,
May we stand, and watch, and pray. Keep us safe from every sin.

775 AWAKE 7.7.7.7. Iambic (10, A)

Joachim von Burgk, 1584

1. My soul, a-wake, and ren-der To God, thy great De-fend-er,

Thy prayer and a-do-ra-tion For His kind pre-ser-va-tion. A-men.

- 2 With joy I still discover Thy light, O Lord, my Saviour;
My thanks shall be the spices Of morning sacrifices.
- 3 Bless me, this day, Lord Jesus, And be to me propitious;
Grant me Thy kind protection From every sin's infection.
- 4 Bless every thought and action; Afford me Thy direction;
To Thee alone be tending Beginning, middle, ending.
- 5 Be Thou my only treasure, Fulfill in me Thy pleasure;
May I, in every station, Give Thee due adoration.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1838-1896

1. Still, still with Thee, when pur - ple morn - ing break - eth,

When the bird wak - eth, and the shad - ows flee;

Fair - er than morn - ing, lov - lier than the day - light,

Dawns the sweet con - scious - ness, I am with Thee. A - men.

- 2 Alone with Thee, amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with Thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.
- 3 When sinks the soul, subdued by toil, to slumber,
Its closing eyes look up to Thee in prayer;
Sweet the repose beneath Thy wings' o'er-shading,
But sweeter still, to wake and find Thee there.
- 4 So shall it be at last, in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh, and life's shadows flee;
O in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought—I am with Thee.

BROOKFIELD L. M.

Thomas B. Southgate, 1814-1868 (1855)

1. A - gain, as eve - ning's shad - ow falls, We gath - er in these hallowed walls;

And evening hymn and evening prayer Rise mingling on the ho - ly air. A - men.

- 2 May struggling hearts, that seek release,
Here find the rest of God's own peace;
And strengthened here by hymn and prayer,
Lay down the burden and the care.
- 3 O God our Light, to Thee we bow;
Within all shadows standest Thou;

- Give deeper calm than night can bring,
Give sweeter songs than life can sing.
- 4 Life's tumult we must meet again,
We cannot at the shrine remain;
But in the spirit's secret cell,
May hymn and prayer for ever dwell.

TALLIS' CANON L. M. (22, T)

Thomas Tallis, 1520-1585 (1565)

1. All praise to Thee, my God, this night, For all the bless-ings of the light.

* At this point the Tenor takes up the melody of the Soprano

Keep me, oh keep me, King of kings, Be-neath Thine own almighty wings. A-men.

- 2 Forgive me, Lord, for Thy dear Son,
The ill that I this day have done,
That with the world, myself, and
Thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.
- 3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may Rise glorious at the judgment-day.
- 4 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts
supply,
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.
- 5 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep my eye-lids close,
Sleep, that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

779 ANGELUS L. M. (22, N)

Georg Josephi, 1657

Once more 'tis eventide, and we,
Oppressed with various ills, draw near;
What if Thy form we cannot see?
We know and feel that Thou art here.
O Saviour Christ, our woes dispel;
For some are sick, and some are sad,
And some have never loved Thee well,
And some have lost the love they had;
And none, O Lord, have perfect rest,
For none are wholly free from sin;

And they who fain would serve Thee best
Are conscious most of wrong within.
5 O Saviour Christ, Thou too art Man,
Thou hast been troubled, tempted, tried;
Thy kind but searching glance can scan
The very wounds that shame would hide.
6 Thy touch has still its ancient power;
No word from Thee can fruitless fall:
Hear, in this solemn evening hour,
And in Thy mercy heal us all.

The Rev. Henry Twells. 1823-1900 (1868)

780 HURSLEY L. M. (22, L)

Peter Ritter, 1760-1846 (1792)

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!
Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,

Now, Lord! the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take;
Till, in the ocean of Thy love,
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

INTEGER VITÆ 11.11.11.5. Iambic (36, E)

Frederick F. Flemming, 1778-1813 (1810)

1. Now God be with us, for the night is closing, The light and dark-ness are of His dis-pos-ing; And 'neath His shadow here to rest we yield us, For He will shield us. A-men.

- 2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Master, o'er us;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.
- 3 Let holy thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us;
Our earliest thoughts be Thine when morning wakes us;
All sick and mourners, we to Thee commend them,
Do Thou befriend them.
- 4 We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
Save Thee, O Father, Who Thine own hast made us;
But Thy dear presence will not leave them lonely,
Who seek Thee only.
- 5 Father, Thy Name be praised, Thy kingdom given,
Thy will be done on earth as 'tis in heaven;
Keep us in life, forgive our sins, deliver
Us now and ever.

1. Soft - ly now the light of day Fades up - on my sight a - way;

Free from care, from la - bor free, Lord, I would com-mune with Thee. A-men.

2 Thou, Whose all-pervading eye
Naught escapes, without, within!

1. The shad - ows of the even - ing hours Fall from the darkening sky;

Up - on the fra - grance of the flowers The dew's of even - ing lie:

Be - fore Thy throne, O Lord of heaven, We kneel at close of day;

Look on Thy chil - dren from on high, And hear us while we pray. A-men.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord, Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
O do not Thou despise, Within the heavens shine;
But let the incense of our prayers Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes of heaven,
Before Thy mercy rise. And trust in things divine.

The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows from our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes of earthly love and joy
That one by one depart.

4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils, Thou
Our trembling hearts defend:
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we labor, Lord,
O give us now repose.

1. The day is past and o - ver; All thanks, O Lord, to Thee;

I pray Thee that of - fence - less The hours of dark may be.

O Je - sus, keep me in Thy sight, And save me thro' the com-ing night. A-men.

2 The joys of day are over;
I lift my heart to Thee,
And call on Thee that sinless
The hours of gloom may be.
O Jesus, make their darkness
light,
And save me through the coming
night.

4 Lighten mine eyes, O Saviour,
Or sleep in death shall I,
And he, my wakeful tempter,
Triumphantly shall cry:
"He could not make their darkness
light,
Nor guard them through the hours of night."

3 The toils of day are over;
I raise the hymn to Thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be.
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.

5 Be Thou my soul's Preserver,
O God, for Thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go.
Lover of men, O hear my call,
And guard and save me from them
all.

1 Jesus, God of our salvation,
 Behold, Thy Church with supplication
 Humbly appears before Thy face;
 By Thy powerful love constrained
 Since from Thy death we life obtained
 We give Thee glory, thanks and praise.
 Oh listen to our prayer,
 To meet Thee us prepare
 With due reverence;
 No tongue can tell, what joy we feel
 When Thou, Lord, dost Thyself reveal.

2 Thus our bliss will last for ever;
 While we enjoy Thy love and favor,
 And safe beneath Thy shadow rest,
 We with joyful acclamation
 Adore Thee as Thy congregation,
 Thou art our Head and Lord confessed.
 To Thee, Ancient of days,
 Be honor, power, and praise
 Now and ever;
 Lord, grant that we eternally
 May put our trust alone in Thee.

799 COVENANT (185, A)

- 1 Grace and peace from God our blessed Saviour
Be with all who love His Name;
Church of Christ, His service deem a favor,
Joyfully His death proclaim:
Be prepared for rest or for employ - ment,
From activity derive enjoyment;
Serve with zeal and faithfulness,
Filled with love His Name confess.
- 2 Gracious Father, bless this congregation
As the purchase of Thy Son;
For His sake behold us with com -

And us all Thy children own;
Jesus, grant to us Thy peace and favor;
Holy Ghost, abide with us for ever,
And to us Christ's love explain;
Hear us, Lord our God: Amen.

1. Sav-iour, Thy love hath guid-ed Our fa-thers on their way,
Thy watch-ful care pro-vid-ed Their man-na day by day;
From youth to man-hood grow-ing, Thou led'st them up to age,
Till death full life be-stow-ing, End-ed their pil-grim-age. A-men.

2 With faith and lowly meekness,
With patient love and zeal,
In ignorance and weakness,
They wrought Thy Church's weal;
Enriched with wealth unmeasured,
Beyond all wisdom wise,
In humble heart they treasured
The Saviour's sacrifice.

3 For honest lips confessing
High faith and simple creed,
For lives this sad world blessing
With kindly human deed;

For valiant hearts that bore them
Full bravely in the fray,
Thy Cross, Thy crown before them,
We give Thee thanks to-day.

4 Grant, Lord, the Church that gathers
Within Thy house this day,
To thank Thee for her fathers,
May serve Thee even as they.
With hearts by love made willing,
In works by faith made free,
Till we our lot fulfilling,
Shall rest with them and Thee.

2 There's a home for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
Where Jesus reigns in glory,
A home of peace and joy.
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare,
For every one is happy,
Nor could be happier, there.

3 There's a song for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
A song that will not weary,
Though sung continually;

A song which even angels
Can never, never sing;
They know not Christ as Saviour,
But worship Him as King.

4 There's a crown for little children
Above the bright blue sky,
And all who look for Jesus
Shall wear it by and by.
All, all above is treasured,
And found in Christ alone;
Lord, grant Thy little children
To know Thee as their own.

814 ELLACOMBE 7.6.7.6. D. Iambic (151, R) Konrad Kocher, 1786-1872 (1854)

1. Come, praise your Lord and Sav - iour In strains of ho - ly mirth;

Give thanks to Him, O chil - dren, Who lived a child on earth.

He loved the lit - tle chil - dren, And called them to His side,

His lov - ing arm em - braced them, And for their sake He died. A - men.

2 (Boys) O Jesus, we would praise
With songs of holy joy, [Thee,
For Thou on earth didst sojourn,
A pure and spotless boy.
Make us, like Thee, obedient,
Like Thee, from sin-stains free,
Like Thee, in God's own temple,
In lowly home like Thee.

O give that best adornment
That Christian maid can wear,
The meek and quiet spirit
Which shone in Thee so fair.

3 (Girls) O Jesus, we too praise Thee,
The lowly maiden's Son;
In Thee all gentlest graces
Are gathered into one;

4 (All) O Lord, with voices blended
We sing our songs of praise;
Be Thou the Light and Pattern
Of all our childhood's days;
And lead us ever onward,
That, while we stay below,
We may, like Thee, O Jesus,
In grace and wisdom grow.

1. Go thou, in life's fair morn - ing, Go, in thy bloom of youth,

And buy for thine a - dorn - ing, The pre - cious pearl of truth;

Se - cure the heaven - ly treas - ure, And bind it on thy heart,

Go, while the day-star shineth,
Go, while the heart is light;
Go, ere thy strength declineth,
While every sense is bright.

Scepters and crowns of kings.

3 Go, e'er the cloud of sorrow
Steals o'er thy bloom of youth;
Defer not till to-morrow,
Go now and buy the truth;
Go, seek thy great Creator,
Learn early to be wise;
Go, place upon the altar
A morning sacrifice.

816 STORY OF LOVE 7.6.7.6. D.

George F. Root, 1820-1895

1. I love to hear the sto - ry Which an - gel voi - ces tell,

How once the King of Glo - ry Came down on earth to dwell.

I am both weak and sin - ful; But this I sure - ly know,

The Lord came down to save me, Be - cause He loved me so. A - men.

2 I'm glad my blessed Saviour
Was once a child like me,
To show how pure and holy
His little ones might be;
And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forget me,
Because He loves me so.

3 To sing His love and mercy,
My sweetest songs I'll raise,
And though I cannot see Him,
I know He hears my praise;
For He Himself has promised
That even I may go
To sing among His angels,
Because He loves me so.

The chil - dren all stood sing - ing Ho - san - na to His Name:

Nor did their zeal of - fend Him, But, as He rode a - long,

He let them still at - tend Him, And smiled to hear their song. A - men.

2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still,
Though now as King He reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill,
We'll flock around His banner
Who sits upon His throne,
And cry aloud, "Hosanna
To David's royal Son!"

3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

321 SIMPLICITY 7.7.7.7.

Glory to the Father give,
God in Whom we move and live;
Children's prayers He deigns to hear
Children's songs delight His ear.

3 Glory to the Holy Ghost;
Be this day a Pentecost:
Children's minds may He inspire,
Touch their tongues with holy fire.

Glory to the Son we bring,
Christ our Prophet, Priest and King;
Children, raise your sweetest strain
To the Lamb, for He was slain.

4 Glory in the highest be
To the blessed Trinity,
For the Gospel from above,
For the word, that "God is love."

Je - sus was here a - mong men, How He called lit - tle chil - dren as lambs to His fold, I should like to have been with them then. A-men.

- 2 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
That His arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
"Let the little ones come unto Me."
- 3 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in His love;
And if I now earnestly seek Him below,
I shall see Him and hear Him above;
- 4 In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering there,
For of such is the kingdom of heaven.
- 5 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall
Never heard of that heavenly home;
I should like them to know there is room for them all,
And that Jesus has bid them to come.

The sweetest and brightest and best,
When the dear little children of every clime
Shall crowd to His arms and be blest.

The children sang around;
For joy they plucked the palms, and strewed
Their garments on the ground.

2 Hosanna, our glad voices raise,
Hosanna to our King!
Should we forget our Saviour's praise,
The stones themselves would sing.

3 For we have learned to love His Name;
That Name, divinely sweet,
May every pulse through life proclaim,
And our last breath repeat.

Thou dear - er far than earth - ly guest Vouch - safe Thy pres - ence here;

For ho - ly Thou in - deed dost prove The mar - riage vow to be,

Pro-claim-ing it a type of love Be - tween the Church and Thee. A-men.

2 The holiest vow that man can make, 3 On those who at Thine altar kneel
The golden thread in life, O Lord, Thy blessing pour,
The bond that none may dare to break, That each may wake the other's zeal
That bindeth man and wife; To love Thee more and more;
Which, blest by Thee, whate'er betides, O grant them here in peace to live
No evil shall destroy, [divides, In purity and love,
Through care-worn days each care And, this world leaving, to receive
And doubles every joy. A crown of life above!

43 PERFECT LOVE 11.10.11.10.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1838-1896 (1889)

1. O per - fect Love, all hu - man thought tran - scend - ing,
 Low - ly we kneel in prayer be - fore Thy throne,
 That theirs may be the love that knows no end - ing,
 Whom Thou for ev - er - more dost join in one. A - men.

2 O perfect Life, be Thou their full assurance
 Of tender charity and steadfast faith,
 Of patient hope, and quiet, brave endurance,
 With childlike trust that fears not pain nor death.

3 Grant them the joy which brightens earthly sorrow;
 Grant them the peace which calms all earthly strife,
 And to life's day the glorious unknown morrow,
 That dawns upon eternal love and life.

BLAIRGOWRIE 7.6.7.6. D.

The Rev. John B. Dykes, 1823-1876 (1872)

1. O Love, di - vine and ten - der, That through our homes doth move,

Veiled in the soft - ened splen - dor Of ho - ly house - hold love:

A throne, with - out Thy bless - ing, Were la - bor with - out rest,

And cot - ta - ges, pos - sess - ing Thy bless - ed - ness, are blest. A - men.

- 2 God bless these hands united,
 God bless these hearts made one;
 Unsevered and unblighted
 May they through life go on:
 Here, in earth's home, preparing
 For the bright home above,
 And there, for ever sharing
 Its joy, where "God is Love."

Marriage

45 BLAIRGOWRIE 7.6.7.6. D.

O Father all creating,
Whose wisdom, love, and power
First bound two lives together
In Eden's primal hour,
To-day to these Thy children
Thine earliest gifts renew,—
A home by Thee made happy,
A love by Thee kept true.

3 O Spirit of the Father,
Breathe on them from above,
So mighty in Thy pureness,
So tender in Thy love,
That, guarded by Thy presence,
From sin and strife kept free,
Their lives may own Thy guidance,
Their hearts be ruled by Thee.

O Saviour, Guest most bounteous
Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day Thy presence
With those who call on Thee;
Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,
And teach them in the tasting
To know the gift is Thine.

4 Except Thou build it, Father,
The house is built in vain;
Except Thou, Saviour, bless it,
The joy will turn to pain;
But nought can break the union
Of hearts in Thee made one;
And love Thy Spirit hallows
Is endless love begun.

3 O Lord of life and love,
Come Thou again to-day;
And bring a blessing from above
That ne'er shall pass away.

4 Before Thine altar-throne
This mercy we implore;
As Thou dost knit them, Lord, in one,
So bless them evermore.

Moravian

1. Our child-ren, gra-cious Lord and God, With fer-vor we to Thee commend

Thou hast re-deemed them by Thy blood; Thy bless-ing on them all de-scend;

Kind Shep-herd, take each lit-tle lamb In-to Thy faith-ful arms of love;

Cause them to know Thy sav-ing Name, And Thy redeeming grace to prove. A-men.

2 On us, their parents, grace bestow,
 That we, with care and faithfulness,
 May lead them Thee, our Lord, to know,
 To obey Thy word and seek Thy face.
 Teach us the duties of our state,
 To love each other heartily,
 Our children so to educate
 That they may love and follow Thee.

2 All the world is God's own field,
Fruit unto His praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;

Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final harvest-home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide;
Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home.

PRAISE JEHOVAH 14.14.4.7.8. Dactylic (61, A)

The Rev. Joachim Neander, 1610-1680

1. O praise Je-ho-vah! Who reign-eth on earth and in heav - en, Praise Him, my soul, for the 'ran-som He free-ly hath giv - en. Come, let us sing,

Psal-t'ry and harp, wake and ring,—Praise Him with tim-brel and trum-pet. A-men.

2 O praise Jehovah! Who kindly and richly hath fed thee,
Granted thee health, and so wisely and gently hath led thee;
Dangers arose—
Quickly He vanquished thy foes,
Spreading His gracious wings o'er thee.

3 O praise Jehovah! Who oft-times hath signally blessed thee,
Showers of love sent from heaven when evil oppressed thee;
Trust in this hour
On His omnipotent power;
Loving He hastens to meet thee.

4 O praise Jehovah! Let all that is in me adore Him;
Children of faith—yea, let all that hath breath bow before Him!
He is thy Light,
My soul; give glory and might,
Praise Him for evermore: Amen.

By God's almighty hand; He sends the snow in win-ter, The warmth to swell the grain,

REFRAIN

The breez-es and the sun-shine, And soft re-fresh-ing rain. All good gifts a-round us

Are sent from heaven above; Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord For all His love. A-men.

2 He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.—Ref.

3 We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food;
No gifts have we to offer,
For all Thy love imparts,
But that which Thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.—Ref.

1. My coun - try, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of lib - er - ty,
Of thee I sing; Land where my fa - thers died, Land of the pil-grim's pride, From ev - ery moun-tain side Let free-dom ring. A - men.

- 2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.
- 3 I love thine inland seas,
Thy groves of giant trees,
Thy rolling plains;
Thy rivers' mighty sweep,
Thy mystic canyons deep,
Thy mountains wide and steep,
All thy domains;
- 4 Thy silver Eastern strands,
Thy Golden Gate that stands
Wide to the West;

- Thy flowery Southland fair,
Thy sweet and crystal air,—
O land beyond compare,
I love thee best!
- 5 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.
- 6 Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

1. God, most might - y, sov - ereign Lord, By the heav - en - ly hosts a - dored!

God of na - tions, King of kings, Head of all cre - at - ed things!

By Thy saints with joy con - fessed, God o'er all for ev - er blest!

Lo! we come be - fore Thy throne, In our Sav - iour's Name a - lone. A - men.

2 On our fields of grass and grain
Drop, O Lord, the kindly rain;
O'er our wide and goodly land
Crown the labors of each hand.
Let Thy kind protection be
O'er our commerce on the sea;
Open, Lord, Thy bounteous hand,
Bless Thy people, bless our land.

3 Let our rulers ever be
Men that love and honor Thee;
Let the powers by Thee ordained
Be in righteousness maintained;
In the people's hearts increase
Love of piety and peace;
Thus united we shall stand
One wide, free, and happy land.

| 1 Lord God, we worship Thee,
 Whose goodness reigneth o'er us;
 We praise Thy love and power
 In loud and happy chorus.
 To heaven our song shall soar;
 For ever shall it be
 Resounding o'er and o'er;
 Lord God, we worship Thee. | 3 Lord God, we worship Thee:
 Thou didst indeed chastise us;
 Yet still Thy goodness spares,
 And still Thy mercy tries us.
 Once more our Father's hand
 Has bid our sorrows flee,
 And peace rejoice our land;
 Lord God, we worship Thee. |
| 2 Lord God, we worship Thee:
 For Thou our land defendest;
 Thou pourest down Thy grace,
 And strife and war Thou endest.
 Since golden peace, O Lord,
 Thou grantest us to see,
 Our land with one accord,
 Lord God, gives thanks to Thee. | 4 Lord God, we worship Thee,
 And pray Thee, Who hast blessed
 That we may live in peace, [us,
 And none henceforth molest us.
 O crown us with Thy love;
 And our Defender be;
 Thou, Who hast heard our prayer,
 Lord God, we worship Thee. |

Thou art our holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife;
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

Thou art the great High-Priest,
Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love;
While in our mortal pain
None calls on Thee in vain;
Help Thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

4 Be ever near our side,
Our Shepherd and our Guide,
Our Staff and Song;
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thy perennial Word,
Lead us where Thou hast trod;
Make our faith strong.

5 So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high,
And joyful sing.
Children and the glad throng,
Who to Thy Church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To Christ our King.

1. While Thee I seek, pro - tect - ing Power, Be my vain wish - es stilled;

And may this con - se - crat - ed hour With bet - ter hopes be filled. A-men.

In each event of life how clear Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear, Because conferred by Thee.

3 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.

4 My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
That heart will rest on Thee.

02 ST. PETER C. M. (14, T)

1 In mercy, Lord, remember me,
Be with me through this night,
And grant to me most graciously
The safeguard of Thy might.

2 With cheerful heart I close my eyes;
Thou wilt not from me move;
Lord, in the morning let me rise,
Rejoicing in Thy love.

3 O, if this night should prove my last,
And end my transient days,
Lord, take me to Thy promised rest,
Where I may sing Thy praise.

Hum - bly at Thy Cross I bow; Save me, Je - sus, save me now.

Used by per. of the Estate of Wm. G. Fisher, Dec'd.

- 2 Long my heart has sighed for Thee; 3 Here I give my all to Thee,—
 Long has evil reigned within; Friends and time and earth;
 Jesus sweetly speaks to me, Soul and body Thine to be, [store
 "I will cleanse you from all sin." Wholly Thine, for evermore.

904 EVEN ME 8.7.8.7.6.7.

- 1 Lord! I hear of showers of blessing
 Thou art scattering full and free,
 Showers the thirsty land refreshing;
 Let some drops descend on me,
 Even me, even me!
 Let some drops descend on me.

- 2 Pass me not, O gracious Father!
 Sinful though my heart may be;
 Thou might'st pass me, but the rather
 Let Thy mercy light on me,
 Even me, even me!
 Let Thy mercy light on me.

- 3 Pass me not, O tender Saviour!
 Let me love and cling to Thee;
 I am longing for Thy favor;

When Thou comest, call for me,
 Even me, even me!
 When Thou comest, call for me

- 4 Pass me not, O mighty Spirit!
 Thou canst make the blind to see
 Witnesser of Jesus' merit,
 Speak the word of power to me
 Even me, even me!
 Speak the word of power to me

- 5 Love of God, so pure and changeless
 Blood of God, so rich and free,
 Grace of God, so strong and boundless,
 Magnify them all in me,
 Even me, even me!
 Magnify them all in me.

2 To-day Thy gate is open,
And all who enter in Shall find a Father's welcome,
And pardon for their sin;
The past shall be forgotten,
A present joy be given,
A future grace be promised,
A glorious crown in heaven.

3 To-day the Father calls me,
The Holy Spirit waits,
The blessed angels gather
Around the heavenly gates:

No question will be asked me,
How often I have come;
Although I oft have wandered,
It is my Father's home.

4 O all-embracing mercy,
Thou ever-open door,
What shall I do without thee
When heart and eyes run o'er?
When all things seem against me,
To drive me to despair,
I know one gate is open,
One ear will hear my prayer.

LORD OF LIFE Irregular (211, A)

Darmstaedter Gesangbuch, 1687

1 Jesus, Lord of life and glory,
Hear Thy people's fervent prayer,
Us to meet Thee now prepare:
We with awe appear before Thee,
Longing to enjoy Thy favor;
In this consecrated place
We approach the throne of grace:
Lord, Lord, God,
Thee we own our only Saviour:
Blesséd, truly blessed they
Who to Thee have found the way,
Who of Thy body and Thy blood even here partakers are,
And in the supper of the Lamb in heavenly realms shall share.

2 May I gladly haste to meet Thee
When Thou com'st to summon me,
Yes, to take me home to Thee,
Where I may behold Thee ever,
Gaze upon Thee, precious Saviour,
Clothed with Thy own righteousness;
Only thus I'm freed from fear.
Lord, my God,
Let me dwell with Thee for ever,
And enjoy Thy loving favor
With all souls that bear Thy Name,
Blest, truly blest are they who now the Gospel-call obey,
For they shall dwell with Thee in heaven,
that realm of endless day.

THE MORAVIAN EMIGRANTS' HYMN

938 INNSBRUCK (79, A) No. 411

Henry Isaac, 1450-1517, c. (1490)

1 Blest be the day when I must roam
Far from my country, friends and home,
An exile, poor and mean;
My fathers' God will be my Guide,
Will angel guards for me provide,
My soul, my soul in danger screen.

2 Himself will lead me to a spot
Where all my cares and griefs forgot
I shall enjoy sweet rest.
As pants for cooling streams the hart
I languish for my heavenly part
For God, for God my Refuge blest.

This hymn is printed here for its historic interest only. The members of our Ancient Unity sang these words when bitter persecution compelled them to seek refuge and liberty of conscience in foreign countries.

939 THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Francis Scott Key, 1779-1843 (1814)

1. Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's ear - ly light, What so proud - ly we hailed at the twi-light's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the per - il - ous fight O'er the ram - parts we watched, were so gal - lant - ly stream-ing? And the rock - et's red glare, the bombs burst-ing in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.

f* REFRAIN

Oh, say, does that star-span-gled ban-ner yet wave,
O'er the land..... of the free, and the home of the brave?

- 2 On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines in the stream.
'Tis the star-spangled banner, oh, long may it wave, etc.
- 3 And where is that band, who so vauntingly swore,
'Mid the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country they'd leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footstep's pollution;
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave;
And the star-spangled banner, in triumph shall wave, etc.
- 4 O, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand,
Between their loved home and the war's desolation,
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heaven rescued land,
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust;"
And the star-spangled banner, in triumph shall wave, etc.
- 5 When our land is illumed with liberty's smile,
If a foe from within strike a blow at her glory,
Down, down with the traitor, that dares to defile
The flag of her stars and the page of her story!
By the millions unclained who our birthright have gained,
We will keep her bright blazon forever unstained!
And the star-spangled-banner, in triumph shall wave, etc.

A charge to keep I have	449	All our knowledge, sense, and sight	372
A cloud of witnesses around	450	All our woes He did retrieve	153
A country I've found	469	All people that on earth do dwell	639
A dying, risen Jesus	431	All praise and thanks to God	661
A faith that keeps the narrow way	708	All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee	152
A faith that shines more bright and clear	708	All praise to Thee, Eternal Lord	50
A Father's chastening hand	857	All praise to Thee, Lord Jesus	213
A few more storms shall beat	739	All praise to Thee, my God, this night	778
A few more struggles here	739	All self-dependence is but vain	272
A few more years shall roll	739	All that dedicated city	326
A gate which opens wide to those	421	All that I am and have	470
A glorious band, the chosen few	586	All the bliss which we possess	111
A heart in every thought renewed	630	All the plenty summer pours	865
A heart resigned, submissive, meek	630	All the way is rightly ordered	178
A holy war those servants wage	359	All the world give praises due	146
A little Child the Saviour came	284	All the world is God's own field	861
A little Child, Thou art our Guest	50	All things are Thine; no gift have we	324
A noble army, men and boys	586	All things come of Thee, O Lord	945
A safe stronghold our God is still	679	All things do serve Thee here	553
A second look He gave, which said	442	All things living He doth feed	25
A thousand ages, in Thy sight	29	All this for us Thy love hath done	50
Abel's blood for vengeance	92	All thy woe and sadness	662
Abide among us ever	590	All Thy works with joy surround Thee	33
Abide in grace, Lord Jesus	590	Almighty Father, bless the word	366
Abide, Lord, with the story	590	Almighty God, in humble prayer	591
Abide, our only safety	590	Almighty God, our hearts incline	839
Abide, our pathway brighten	590	Almighty Lord, Whose sovereign right	337
Abide with me! fast falls the eventide	516	Almighty Son,—Incarnate Word	15
Abide with me from morn till eve	780	Alone with Thee, amid the mystic shadows	776
Abide with us in blessing	590	Although by stars Thou dost not lead	182
Abide with us, that so this life	198	Am I a soldier of the cross?	451
Above the clear blue sky	811	Am I of my salvation	595
Above the starry sky	127	Amazing grace! how sweet the sound	423
Across this troubled tide of life	894	Amen! Amen! Amen!	950
Again, as evening's shadow falls	777	Amen, Lord Jesus, grant our prayer	267
Again we raise the strain	44	Amen, yea, hallelujah	111
Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned Thee	500	Amen, yea, my lasting praises	747
Ah, remember me for good	417	An humble, lowly, contrite heart	630
Ah, that day of tears and mourning	929	And all who else have strayed from Thee	185
Ah, why did I so late Thee know?	494	And call me not to strict account	421
Alas, and did my Saviour bleed?	203	And can man alone be dumb?	660
Alas, that I should ever	484	And death, which sets the prisoner free	80
All are alike before the Highest	718	And duly shall appear	558
All glory be to God on high	161, 648	And every virtue we possess	141
All glory, laud, and honor	206	And happy was the bride	846
All glory to the Sovereign Good	649	And He the witness gives	908
All glory, worship, thanks, and praise	55	And His that gentle voice we hear	141
All hail, our Church's Elder dear	795	And if my heart and flesh are weak	707
All hail the power of Jesus' Name	90	And in the garden secretly	43
All her fettered powers release	274	And let the Comforter and Friend	327
All may of Thee partake	522	And lo! already on the hills	360
All my heart this night rejoices	169	And lo! Thy touch brought life and health	860
All our days direct us	812
All our days, O Jesus	624

See the Lord, thy Keeper, stand	702	So perish all Thine enemies	348
Send down Thy likeness from above	459	So shall it be at last, in that bright morn- ing	776
Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call	347	So shall my walk be close with God	628
Send them Thy mighty word to speak	347	So shall no wicked thing draw near	37
Send out Thy light and truth, O God	348	So shall our lives Thy power proclaim	546
Servant of all, to toil for man	86	So shall we faultless stand at last	424
Servant of God! well done	314	So sure may I be	533
Shall we, whose souls are lighted	341	So teach me, Lord, my days to number	733
Shed within our hearts, O shed	647	So they with us may evermore	185
Shepherd of tender youth	886	So to Thy Church, in wisdom taught	883
Shepherds, in the field abiding	164	So, when my latest breath	721
Shine on the darkened and the cold	185	So, when our life is clouded o'er	78
Shine Thou upon us, Lord	888	So, when the world shall pass away	669
Should earth lose its foundation	683	So, when'er the signal's given	378
Should friends misjudge, or foes defame	81	So with Thee, till life shall end	220
Should not I for gladness leap?	486	So within Thy palace gate	175
Should our minds, to earthly objects cleaving	625	Soar we now where Christ has led	232
Should swift death this night o'ertake us	790	Soft and easy is thy cradle	851
Should Thy mercy send me	581	Softly now the light of day	789
Shout the glad tidings, exultingly sing	145	Softly the night is sleeping	57
Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive	415	Soldiers of Christ, well done!	314
Show Thy power in every nation	608	Soldiers of Christ, arise	583
Showers of blessing from the Lord pro- ceed	313	Soldiers of the Cross, arise!	560
Shun evil companions	835	Some wait around Him, ready still	37
Silent night! Holy night!	168	Some will hate thee, some will love thee	573
Since by Thee were all things made	257	Sometimes a light surprises	684
Since nor end, nor bounds, nor measure	28	Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom	686
Since we likewise may attain	751	Son of God! to Thee I cry	605
Since we, though unworthy	616	Songs of praise awoke the morn	660
Since, with pure and warm affection	680	Songs of praise the angels sang	660
Sinful, we plead Thy blood	613	Soon as the evening shades prevail	32
Sing hallelujah, Christ doth live	240	Soon as the Spirit shows	49
Sing hallelujah, praise the Lord	755	Soon, for me, the light of day	789
Sing of His dying love	108	Soon I hope in glory	826
Sing praises to our risen Lord	230	Soon our souls to God Who gave them	742
Sing, pray, and keep His ways unswerving	718	Soon shall end the time of weeping	357
Sing to the Lord most high	26	Soon shall my eyes behold Thee	526
Sing to the Lord of harvest	868	Soon shall we hear Him say	108
Sing we the song of those who stand	383	Soon Thou wilt come again	63
Sing with awe, in strains melodious	222	Soon to come to earth again	606
Sing with humble hearts your praises	123	Soul, spirit, and mind	533
Sinners in derision crowned Him	247	Soul, then know thy full salvation	457
Sinners, turn, why will you die?	408	Souls in heathen darkness lying	364
Sinners who in Thee believe	435	Sound now the final chord	545
Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget	90	Source of all blessing	119
Sinners, wrung with true repentance	164	Sow in the morn thy seed	558
Slain to redeem us by His blood	116	Spare, O God, in mercy spare him	929
Sleep, my babe; thy food and raiment	851	Speak, O God, and I will hear Thee	381
Sleep thy last sleep	729	Speak Thou for us, O Lord	888
Slowly the rays of daylight fade	793	Speak to me by name, O Master	527
		Speed Thy servants, Saviour, speed them	356

The young remember Thee in youth	591	There is a holy sacrifice	428
The young, the old, inspire	253	There is a land of peace	759
Thee, apostles, prophets, Thee	257	There is a land of pure delight	760
Thee may our tongues for ever bless	109	There is a place where Jesus sheds	593
Thee we address in humble prayer	898	There is a scene where spirits blend	593
Thee we adore, eternal Lord	22	There is a stream whose gentle flow	705
Thee will I love, my Strength and Tower	494	There is a world above	722
Then, after walking in Thy ways	840	There is no place where earth's sorrow	407
Then all grief is drowned	506	There is none other Name than Thine	69
Then all is peace and light	414	There is plentiful redemption	407
Then all these wastes, a dreary scene	347	There is the throne of David	748
Then bless His holy Name	653	There is the well-loved Son of God	711
Then cleansed be every breast from sin	152	There is welcome for the sinner	407
Then e'en in storms I Thee shall know	638	There let the way appear	612
Then fixed on Thee my trust shall be	698	There shall each raptured tongue	108
Then hallelujah, power, and praise	383	There shall I wear a starry crown	587
Then, having all things done	583	There the glorious triumph waits	248
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song	201	There the sinful souls that turn	731
Then is my strength by Thee renewed	609	There the tears of earth are dried	731
Then let my faith each fear dispel	732	There, there on eagle wings we soar	593
Then let my soul march boldly on	587	There, there Thou standest, pleading	246
Then let our humble faith address	98	There was no other good enough	226
Then let our songs abound	369	There we to all eternity	755
Then let us adore, and give Him His right	129	Therefore hasten we to Thee	282
Then let us leave him to his rest	720	Therefore I'll humbly cleave	448
Then let us prove our heavenly birth	594	Therefore my hope is in His grace	413
Then murmur not, but be resigned	655	Therefore my Saviour's blood and death	445
Then, only then, we feel	143	There's a crown for little children	813
Then onward we march, our arms to prove	937	There's a Friend for little children	813
Then persevere till death	580	There's a home for little children	813
Then praise we God the Father	806	There's a song for little children	813
Then, Saviour, then, my soul receive	411	There's a wideness in God's mercy	407
Then shall I see, and hear, and know	393	There's but a small beginning made	358
Then shall my latest breath	461	These are they who have contended	810
Then shall the earth her increase bring	339	These are they whose hearts were riven	810
Then shall wars and tumults cease	346	These like priests have watched and waited	810
Then shall we go from strength to strength	440	These through fiery trials trod	752
Then shall we in every state	627	These various mercies from above	862
Then the bright word of hope	892	They can cast by faith their care	504
Then to all who have confessed	738	They go from strength to strength	376
Then to life I turn again	227	They have come from tribulation	807
Then to the Father, and the Son	320	They live to Him, Who bought them with His blood	279
Then to the watchful shepherds it was told	159	They see Thy power and glory there	858
Then, when on earth I breathe no more	695	They stand, those halls of Zion	748
Then, when the glorious end	558	They suffer with their Lord below	249
Then, when their work is finished here	315	They who Him their Saviour know	504
Then, when Thou dost call us	831	They who Jesus' followers are	677
Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ?	496	They who know our Lord indeed	504
Then will I tell to sinners round	443	They who simply to Him cleave	503
Then, with my waking thoughts	612	They who tread the path of labor	547
Then with saints and angels	812	They're delighted when they all	677
Then, within Thy fold eternal	823	Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old	860
There behold His agony	227	Thine for ever:—God of love	472
There dwells the Lord our King	19	Thine for ever:—Lord of life	472
There evermore be with them, Lord	337	Thine for ever:—O how blest	472
There grief is turned to pleasure	741	Thine for ever:—Thou, our Guide	472
There happier bowers than Eden's bloom	763	Thine, then, for ever be	614
There I walk amid the shades	227	Thine was the Cross, with all its fruit	100
There is a blessed home	759	Think, kind Jesus! my salvation	929
There is a Fountain filled with blood	201	This child is therefore blessed	730
There is a green hill far away	226	This consecrated cross I'll bear	463
